REPORT ON INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION 2026

Introduction

St. Philomena's College (Autonomous), Mysore, celebrated the 80th Independence Day of India with great patriotic fervour and enthusiasm on 15 August 2026. The celebration was held in the College Auditorium at 8:15 a.m. as part of the institution's 80th Oak Jubilee Year.

A special highlight of the celebration was the march led by the NCC cadets of the college. The NCC cadets proudly led the dignitaries during the ceremonial march, demonstrating discipline, coordination and patriotic spirit. Their confident participation added dignity and grandeur to the Independence Day celebrations and reflected the values of discipline, leadership and service that are integral to the NCC.

The programme brought together the college authorities, faculty members, students and wellwishers to commemorate the historic journey of the nation and to celebrate the values of freedom, unity, democracy and national responsibility.

Significance of the Programme

The 80th Independence Day celebration provided an opportunity for the college community to remember the sacrifices of the freedom fighters and to reflect upon the responsibilities of citizens in building a progressive and inclusive nation.

The celebration emphasized the ideals of freedom, unity in diversity, patriotism, social responsibility and national integration. It also served as a reminder to students and young citizens of their important role in contributing towards the development and progress of the country.

The celebration was particularly significant as it coincided with the 80th Oak Jubilee Year of St. Philomena's College, marking a memorable milestone in the institution's journey of academic excellence and service to society.

Arrival of Dignitaries

Inaugural and Dignitary Session

The Independence Day programme commenced with the gathering of students, faculty members, college authorities and invited dignitaries at the College Auditorium.

The programme was graced by distinguished dignitaries. Rev. Fr. Edward Philip, Episcopal Vicar for Religious, Diocese of Mysore, was the Chief Guest. Most Rev. Dr. Thomas Anthony Vazhapilly, Bishop Emeritus, Diocese of Mysore, attended the programme as the Guest of Honour.

Their presence added significance and solemnity to the Independence Day celebration and inspired the members of the college community to uphold the values of patriotism, service and social responsibility.

Flag Hoisting Ceremony

Significance of the day

The celebration served as an important platform to inspire individuals to become responsible citizens and future leaders. The occasion emphasized that the progress of a nation depends not only on its institutions and leaders but also on the commitment of every citizen.

Students were encouraged to uphold constitutional values, respect diversity, promote harmony and contribute towards the social, economic and environmental development of the country.

1. Understand the historical significance of India's Independence and the sacrifices associated with the freedom struggle.
2. Develop a deeper sense of patriotism, national pride and responsibility.
3. Appreciate the values of unity in diversity, democracy and social harmony.
4. Recognize their responsibilities as citizens in contributing to national development.
5. Develop respect for the nation's heritage, democratic values and constitutional ideals.

6. Understand the importance of collective participation in strengthening society and the nation.
7. Feel inspired to contribute positively to the development and welfare of the country. 8. Strengthen their commitment towards responsible citizenship and service to society.

Institutional Significance

The celebration held special importance for St. Philomena's College as the institution is commemorating its 80th Oak Jubilee Year. The occasion provided an opportunity to celebrate not only the nation's 80th Independence Day but also the institution's longstanding contribution to education, character formation and service to society. The programme reflected the college's commitment to nurturing students who are academically competent, socially responsible and committed to the welfare of the nation.

Conclusion

The 80th Independence Day Celebration at St. Philomena's College (Autonomous), Mysore, was a meaningful and inspiring occasion that brought the entire college community together in the spirit of patriotism and national pride.

The presence of the Chief Guest, Rev. Fr. Edward Philip, and the Guest of Honour, Most Rev. Dr. Thomas Anthony Vazhapilly, added distinction to the celebration. The programme successfully reinforced the values of freedom, unity in diversity, responsibility and service among the students and faculty members. The celebration concluded with a renewed commitment to uphold the ideals of the nation and to contribute towards building a strong, united, responsible and progressive India.
