ST. PHILOMENA'S COLLEGE (AUTONOMOUS)
PRESS RELEASE
FACULTY ENRICHMENT PROGRAM

Education helps to accelerating the speed among students; in education everything happens by design and nothing by default, said Prof. C.G Venkatesha Murthy, Dean Research, Regional institution of education, Mysore

In the workshop organized by St.Philomena's college in collaboration with IQAC has organized two days workshop on Professional Enrichment Program for the faculties of the college on June 1 and June 2, 2018 at college auditorium.

He added, education is a process of man making where professional are governed by codes of ethics, integrity and morality. Emphasized on research and its importance in the teaching profession where teaching should become the byproduct of research.

Teaching is the profession which always scope for change and growth which helps the teachers in learning and also to provide quality education to their students, he added

Prof.Venkatesha also briefed the faculties on profession, professionalism, professional development on his key note address.

Profession that constantly evolving is teaching profession and as a teachers we should always be open for learning and growing, said Rev Fr Dr. Bernard Prakash Barnis, Rector/manager, St.Philomena's college.

Rev Fr Dr. Bernard Prakash Barnis, Rector/manager, Rev Fr.Maria Xavier , vice Rector, Dr. Ruth Shantha Kumari, principal, Prof.V.Sanjay Nair , Vice Principal, Rev Fr.Rony Ravikumar, assistant director PG, Prof.Ronald Prakash , IQSC Coordinator, all the Dean's and HOD of all the departments and faculties were present in the workshop.

Faculty
Enrichment
Programme

