DEPARTMENT OF CRIMINOLOGY & FORENSIC SCIENCE

Cyber Crimes and Cyber Forensics

The seminar was organised by the Department of Criminology and Forensic science and the Department of Computer science. The seminar started at 2:30 PM in the college auditorium on 13 March 2017. Dr G.B.Aravind was the guest speaker. He is a renowned chronologist holds the doctoral degree in the field of cyber forensics. The event started by welcoming the guest and introducing biggest to the audience. The welcoming was done by the final year student of Criminology and Forensic Science - Aminath Shifa and anchoring was done by second year student – Nada Afza Jameel.

The first few minutes of the seminar focused on the Origin of the term cyber Forensic, And the pioneers and events which in lighten the field of cyber crimes. The word cyberspace was first used by William Gibson, and section (h) of Information Technology Act 2008 defines the term communication device.

Through the seminar it was understood that a crime committed by using the electronic device do fall under the umbrella of cybercrime. The nature of cybercrime and the profiling of a cyber criminal was also discussed in the talk.

The cyber law was also highlighted during this seminar. The aspect and the concept of investigation of a cybercrime and it instigated the science of interest among students to choose this area as a profession.

The vote of thanks was given by the Head Department of Computer Science Ms. Gloriya Priyadarshini.

The seminar ended with the vote of Thanks.

use of :-
apacity,
g System,
user.
easure,
enced
Dr.G.B.ARAVIND 3/13/2017