Department of botany

One Day Work shop on research methodology in Biosciences
19 Feb 2013

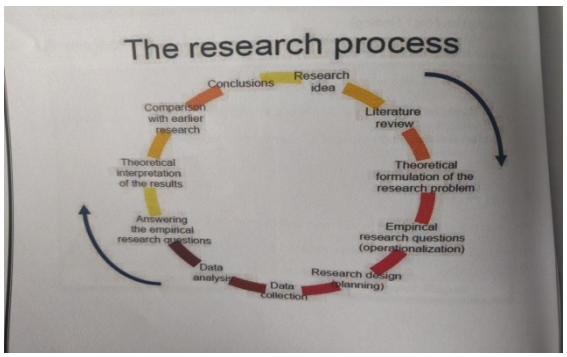

Objectives of the workshop

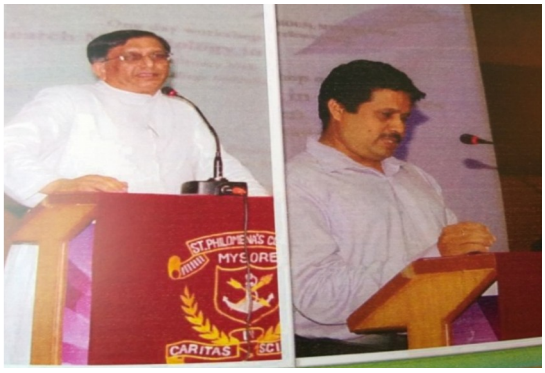

1. Orient students to modern research methodology
2. Help students learn skills and techniques of conducting research and statistical analysis
3. Encourage students to undertake MRP and publish research.

Themes

1. Collection of Data and Documentation
2. Clinical Research Methods
3. Statistical Analysis ofResearch data.
4. Resource Persons
5. Eminent Resource persons like Dr Shankar. P. Hosmani, Prof and HOD of Biotechnology, SBRR, Mahajana's First Grade College, Mysore, Dr.Cletus JM D'souza Professor of Biotechnology, ManasagangotriMysore, Dr. Lancy Dsouza, Associate professor , Department of Psychology, Maharajas college, Mysore addressed the above topics. The workshop was inaugurated by Dr.Shankar P Hosmani with lighting of the lamp along with Rev. Father Leslie Moras,principal, Rev. Father Bernad Prakash , Vice Principal and other dignitaries. Dr. Lancy Dsouza in his valedictory address appreciated the college organizers for reaching out to students at the UG level and highlighting the importance of research in the present day world. All the three speakers were very clear in theircommunication which made the workshop interesting and informative.

One day workshop on herbal remedies for vibrant health on 24thfeb 2014.

Aim-

- To promote and enhance health of people through usage of homemade herbal medicine.
- To create awareness on medicinal plants 0f local heritage with global significance
- To demonstrate preparation of few popular herbal remedies
- To educate people on responsibilities of preservation and sustainable utilization of natural recourses

Resource person –

Dr. Guru Basavaraja, Professorof Ayurvedic medicine, JSS Ayurveda College and hospital, Mysore in his key note address stressed the importance of medicinal plants around us.

He highlighted the importance of herbal medicines and their therapeutic properties in the present age.

Later during the day, Father. Joseph Chittor,Director, Jeeva daru and herbal nursery and Dr. E J John, Retd. Senior medical officer, Indian system of medicine Govt. of Kerala, enlightened the medicinal, nutritional and dietary importance of common plant around us.They demonstrated few popular herbal remedies like kasaya for cough, cold, ulcers, and aciditiy pills, pain balms, beauty creams, lepa and health drinks for memory and good health.

Medicinal plant and handbooks were distributed to the participants. 170 participated in workshop, it was an extension activity of the college to reach out to the neighboring students and the public.

