Introduction

The workshop on “Digital Channels and Platforms” was held on 10th October 2024, attended by 50 students from B.Com and BBA programs. The session aimed to provide a comprehensive overview of digital marketing, focusing on platforms and tools widely used in the industry today. The resource person, Mr. Raghu Ram P. S., Head of the MCA Department at St. Philomena’s College, guided the students through both theoretical concepts and practical examples to demonstrate the real-world application of digital marketing.

Objectives of the Workshop

- ☐ Provide in-depth knowledge of digital marketing concepts and platforms.
- ☐ Bridge the gap between theoretical learning and practical industry practices.
- ☐ Equip students with skills to manage digital campaigns effectively.
- ☐ Offer insights into industry trends like SEO, social media marketing, and paid advertising.
- ☐ Enhance communication and analytical skills using real-world examples.

Session Highlights

Social Media Marketing

The session covered the importance of building a brand presence on platforms like Facebook , Instagram , and LinkedIn , where businesses can interact with consumers, run targeted ads, and build communities.

Search Engine Optimization (SEO)

A practical example of how Flipkart uses SEO techniques to ensure their products rank high on Google search results was explained. The concept of on-page optimization, backlinks, and the role of keywords were emphasized.

Email Marketing

The session highlighted how effective email marketing can be for customer retention, citing Netflix as an example. Netflix regularly sends personalized recommendations based on user preferences, which helps to maintain engagement.

Analytics and Tools

Tools like Google Analytics and Hootsuite were introduced to help students understand how businesses monitor and improve their digital marketing efforts. Real-time examples were shown to explain how metrics like click-through rates and conversion rates are measured.

Key examples from the session

Social Media Marketing

Mr. Raghu Ram used Instagram as an example of a platform where businesses can showcase their products visually and interact with users through features like stories and reels. He highlighted how brands like Nike use targeted ads and influencer partnerships to engage their audience.

Search Engine Optimization (SEO)

The importance of SEO was explained using the example of Amazon , which utilizes optimized content to rank higher on search engines like Google, making their products more visible to consumers. Mr. Raghu Ram provided a step-by-step breakdown of how businesses can incorporate keyword research to enhance their SEO strategies.

Email Marketing

He explained how companies like Zomato use personalized email marketing campaigns to offer special discounts and keep customers engaged. The example illustrated the role of segmentation and automation in driving effective email campaigns.

The session covered the importance of leveraging analytics tools to track the success of these campaigns, using Google Analytics as an example of a tool that helps businesses make informed decisions.

Outcome of the Workshop

- ☐ Students acquired practical knowledge of social media marketing, SEO, and email marketing strategies.
- ☐ They learned how to use digital marketing tools and platforms to create successful campaigns.
- ☐ The session provided insights into career opportunities in digital marketing for B.Com and BBA students.
- ☐ Students engaged in discussions and case studies, gaining a better understanding of how digital marketing works in practice.

Conclusion

The “Digital Channels and Platforms” workshop was a success, offering valuable insights to the 50 B.Com and BBA students who attended. The resource person, Mr. Raghu Ram, effectively bridged the gap between theory and practice, helping students understand the importance of digital marketing in today’s business world. His use of real-world examples, like Nike , Amazon , and Netflix , brought the concepts to life, making the session both informative and engaging.

The session concluded with a vote of thanks by Mrs. Sowmya, Assistant Professor, expressing gratitude to Mr. Raghu Ram for his enlightening and interactive lecture.
