RURALCAMP REPORT (2024)
Department of PG studies and Research in Social Work

Day 01 (13/07/2024)

Social work trainees of Department of PG Studies in Social work, St. Philomena's College reached Mariyapura village, Chikkalluru grama panchayat on 13-07-2024 for the seven days Rural Study camp. Rev. Fr. John Victor welcomed the trainees and faculties.

The camp began with the inauguration. The inaugration was graced by Mrs. Nagamma, President of Chikkalluru Grama panchayat. Key note address was delivered by Robin K J, Camp Director and Assistant professor, St. Philomena's College. Mrs. Mariamma, member of the Panchayat, Mr. Arulappa, Parish committee president, Sr. Julia from the Maria Nikethan Convent, Ms. Nandana P, Co-director of the camp and anganwadi teachers of Mariyapura were invited as the guests for the inauguration.Presidential remarkswas given by Fr. Victor John. He spoke about the life of the villagers, and he advised the trainees to adjust with the environment for a better learning. The villagers were also part of the inauguration. The MC was done by Vinod, welcome speech by Dhanya and vote of thanks was delivered by Adarsh. After the inaugration Mr. Kiran Kumar, PhD scholar at St. Philomena's College, Mysuru, gave a brief introduction about the topic 'Participatory Rural Appraisal' (PRA). After the session trainees completed the report of day one. The day ended with an evaluation session where trainees shared their views and opinions about the day.

DAY 02 (14/07/2024)

The Second day started with a refreshing morning exercise at 6:30 am. Trainees Conducted Jatha walking through the village by using slogans to aware the villagers on important issues like' green environment, clean environment' , 'The importance of Education' , 'say no to drugs and alcohol'.

At 9:30 am trainees conducted a street play in front of the church on the topic 'Phone Addiction'. At 11:00am Mr. Murugesh, Programme Coordinator, Toyota CSR

Project, Sneha Institution, gave a special talk on different types of disabilities and Dr. Shrikanth gave a talk on communication and its importance in research. The MC for the talk was done by Vishnupriya, and introduction of the guest was by Ganashree, vote of thanks by Shashank. Social work trainee went to the villagers and conducted survey/PRA Practical to collect the data on the socio-economic-health status of Mariapura village. In the evaluation session trainees shared their experiences regarding the data collection.

Day 03(15/07/2024)

On the third day, the camp began with a warmup exercise at 6.30 am. Social work trainees started with the work assigned to them. The leaders for the day were Ganashree, Alfin and Vinod.

Trainees went to the village for data collection regarding, “The mobile addiction among the Mariapura villagers” focusing on the youths of Mariapura. Later social-work trainees were engaged in preparation for the cultural programme, planned to be conducted in the evening. Around 6.00 pm the cultural programme was conducted in-front of Govt. LP school, Mariapura. All villagers gathered for the programme. Mc was done by Abhitha, the cultural programme began with a dance programme of the trainees followed by a awareness skit, musical comedy skit, group song, solo song and a dance form known as Maari kunitha.

The programme concluded at 7.00 pm and around 9.30 pm evaluation session was conducted, everyone shared their suggestions and feedback about the day.

Day 04(16/07/2024)

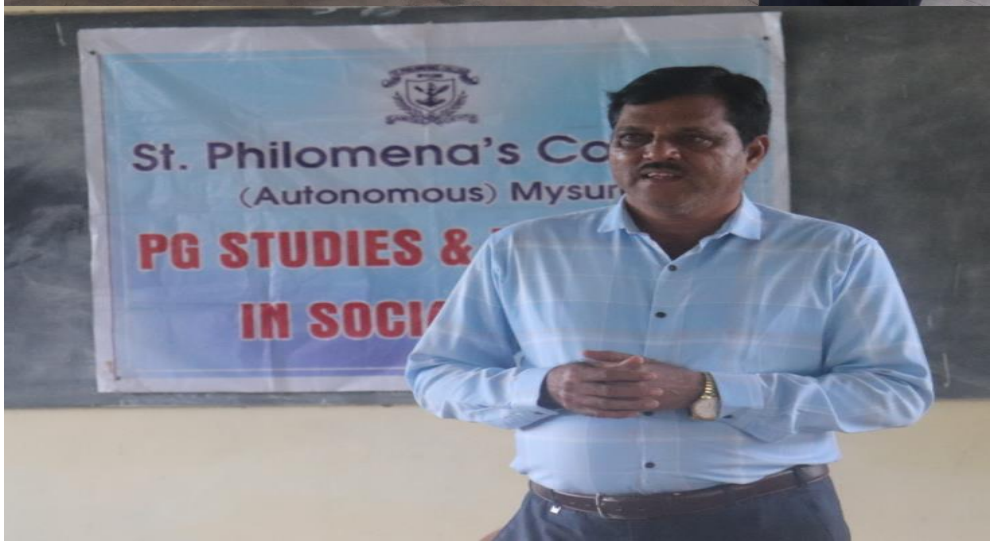

Social work trainees began their fourth day with refreshing exercise and an interesting team building game. Soon after the exercise was over trainees went for the ‘Jatha’ to give awareness about, “Say No to Alcohol, Importance of Education, Green Environment - Clean Environment”. Trainees performed shrmadan, cleaned around the church compound. The next session was on 'An Introduction to the Panchayat.’ The talk was given by the Panchayat Development Officer (PDO) Mr. Shivakumar.

The talk started with a brief introduction about the Chikkalluru Grama Panchayat, schemes and various programmes provided for the people such as, Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Act, Housing assistance, Sanitation, financial assistance etc. for the economically backward people. The evaluation was conducted after the dinner and social work trainees shared their views.

Day 05(17/07/2024)

Social work trainee started the day with morning exercise along with leadership game. Trainees were then assigned to clean the roadside area of Mariyapura. Trainee's organized fun games for the children of the village.They participated with great enthusiasm showcasing their talents and enjoying moments of joy. The games aimed to promote team work, creativity, and physical activity among the young ones. Rev Fr Jnana Pragasam, The Campus Administrator and Fr David Sagayaraj, Assistant to the Rector of St. Philomena's College, Mysore, visited the camp and interacted with the trainees and distributed prizes to the children. Cultural programmes commenced at 7:30 Pm, in-front of the Govt. LP. School, Mariapura. The Programme started with a prayer followed by a skit on 'Dengue' awareness, dance and a closing prayer.

St. Philomena's College
(Autonomous) Mysuru
PG STUDIES & RESEARCH
IN SOCIAL WORK

Philomena's College
(Autonomous), Mysuru
STUDIES & RESEARCH
SOCIAL WORK

Day 06(18/07/2024)

On the sixth day of the camp started with the Transit walk through the lush- green village, listening to the chirping of insects and birds. Trainees observe the daily routine of the villagers and appreciated simplicity and beauty. Trainees did shramdhan in the field near the church which gave them a small glimpse of village living. For the next task trainees divided themselves into groups consisting of committees for report writing, village mapping and survey completion. Trainees successfully completed their assigned tasks.Upon receiving an invitation from the sisters of Maria Nikethan convent, trainees visited the convent. The sisters whole heartedly welcomed the trainees and showed the surroundings of the convent including their women empowerment project it is a tie up initiative with V-Guard. The last night of the camp ended with a camp fire where trainees and faculties shared their experiences, suggestions, and feedback regarding the camp.

Day 07(19/07/2024)

On the last day of the camp trainees gathered together to celebrate the successful completion of their time together. The main event of the day was the felicitation ceremony, where the trainees and faculties were honored for their hard work and dedication and support. It was heart-warming to see the village people attending the function, showing their support and appreciation for trainees efforts.

The guests for the function were Mr. Anthony, the village head, Mr. Moses Palya panchayat, Mrs. chikkamani, Anganwadi Teacher, Rev-Fr. Victor John -Parish Priest and the villagers. Each of the guests were honored for their significant contribution to the village. The welcome speech was delivered by Ms. Nandana P, Co-director of the camp and Assistant professor, St. Philomena's College, MC by Keerthi, 07 days brief report of the camp were read out by Rajesh, Ganashree and Abhitha. Vote of thanks rendered by Robin. K J (director of the camp and Assistant professor, St. Philomena's College. Later Village map was handed over to the Rev-Fr. Victor John -Parish Priest, demands of villagers and the needs of the village identified by the camp trinees during the 07 days stays in the camp was given to the PDO of Chikkaluru grama panchayath.

On the journey back trainees carried a profound sense of purpose and a commitment to continue making a positive difference in the lives of others with them. For these 07 days 30 participants were there.

ST. PHILOMENA'S COLLEGE (AUTONOMOUS)
Affiliated to the University of Mysor
DEPT. OF PG STUDIES
RESEARCH IN SOCIAL