"Towards Enhancement Quality of Teaching, Learning and Evaluation in Colleges"

A Capacity Building Workshop for Teachers

18 – 20, December, 2017

Organized by

IQAC

St. Philomena's College (Autonomous), Mysuru

REPORT

"Change is the only permanent thing in life", In India all the field has seen change but only field that has not seen change id life of Education, said Rev. Dr. Varghese Kelamparampil CMI Provincial, St. Paul's province, Mysuru.

On the occasion of the Inaugural function of college, Mysuru in collaboration of IQSC department of the college on December 18, 2017. The workshop was on "Towards enhancing Quality of Teaching, learning and Evaluation in colleges" – A Capacity Building Workshop for the teachers of St. Philomena's college for three days in college Auditorium.

Rev. Dr. Varghese also focused on Role and Significance of teachers in student's life and students more follow and imitate their teachers more than parents so teachers play very important role in society building. He also gave some tips to the teachers on how to understand the present mind set of the students and he also congratulated all the teachers for choosing this noble profession.

Dr.Ramesh, Dean of PG commerce and Humanities, Mount Carmel College, Bangalore delivered key note address, he stressed more on emerging trends in higher education and how knowledge revolution is taking place with technology.

He also focused on how to fill the gap between learning and industrial expectation through designing the syllabus according to Industrial needs.

Dr. Ramesh gave in-depth information on topics like emergence of knowledge century, characterized by knowledge economy, effort of foreign universities for academic linkage etc…

Rev. Dr.Bernad Prakash Barnis, rector of College gave the Presidential speech and Dr, Ruth Shantha Kumari; Principal of the college welcomed the gathering.

Rev.Fr. Sanjay Kumar, Vice Principal (Administration); Prof. Vidyadhar Sanjay Nair, Vice-Principal(Academics); Rev. Fr. Rony Ravi Kumar, Asst. Director(PG); Prof. Alphonsus D'Souza, Controller of Examination; Mr. Ronald Prakash Cutinha, IQAC coordinator of the college were present.

11.30a.m to 11.45a.m	Tea Break

Session 1 - Monday
18-Dec-2017

Topic: Curriculum design and Development in the present context

Resource Person	Dr. Ramesh, Dean of PG Commerce and Humanities, Mount Carmel College (Autonomous), Bengaluru
Time	11.45a.m to 1.15p.m

Dr. Ramesh explained on Industry dimension and curriculum in that he mainly concentrated on structured teaching and how to make students to go out of the campus and work. Question banks should be given to the students to support their preparation for examination.

He stressed more on soft skills training because that would help students to meet Industrial expectations. He told teachers on how to make students realize about attitude and maaners in their professional life.

He also gave insights on how motivated teaching takes place through group activities and using technology and make students to participate more.

In the section of curriculum he briefed about how to rebuild the curriculum according to the current needs of the Industry.

While designing the curriculum he told to concentrate on the outcome of that program or the objective of the study should be clear and also explain how will that help while working and job roles in the organization.

In the curriculum only add industrial visits and sending students for internships will help them to get more exposure and contact of the industry and they get a practical knowledge.

He concluded his session stressing more on how to meet the industrial expectation and also how to fill in that huge gap between what students learn and how that will help them in their work place.

Session was open for interaction and participants cleared their doubts on re-structuring the curriculum.

Session 2 - Tuesday

19-Dec-2017

Topic: Recent Trends in Teaching and Learning

Resource Person	Dr. Jagadeesh, Dean – Academic & Professor – Operations SDM – Institute for Management Development, Mysuru
Time	10a.m to 11.30a.m

In the second session Dr. Jagadeesh more concentrated on Pedagogy in teaching and learning and what are its emerging trends. He also briefed teachers about how to change in the teaching process, impact of teaching, how learning efficiency being examined.

Dr. Jagadeesh focused on how to create multiple answers for a problem and he explained teachers what happens when they take early judgment and told them to avoid it. He also explained what are the industrial expectation on students and how teachers should train them so that they get placement once they finish their studies and he told to concentrate more on communication, professional attitude, time management ability of team work, etc… these are the fields that should be given more importance by teachers as well as students.

In his session he also briefed about pedagogy of teaching to meet diverse requirements, characteristics of the educator, innovation in classroom, trends in learning, improving quality system approach.

He concluded his session on teaching how much customization is important and retention and satisfaction of the consumer i.e., students.

Session was opened for interactions for few more minutes.

11.30a.m to 11.45a.m	TEA BREAK

Session 3 - Tuesday

19-Dec-2017

Topic: Technology trends changing the landscape of Education

Resource Person	Prof. Mohamed Minhaj Professor – Systems SDM – Institute for Management Development, Mysuru
Time	11.45a.m to 1.15p.m

In session 3, Prof. Minhaj explained about technology transformation in higher education and what are the themes resonating the contemporary world of education.

He focused on how E-learning sector is taking education into other level and Digital world is changing the social behavior of the people and he explained teachers what are the tools that can help in making education a technical learning like use of Internet, learning management system, blended learning etc…

He practically showed how to use Moodle and how the software makes our work easy and also clearly students get to know about their subject.

He also concentrated on changing landscape of education, effective internet searching, and also explained how social media helps in communication.

The session was open for discussion and participate cleared their doubts through interaction.

1.15p.m to 2.00p.m	LUNCH BREAK

Session 4 - Tuesday

19-Dec-2017

Topic: Information Harvesting – Effective use of search engines for research and academic content development

Resource Person	Prof. Mohamed Minhaj Professor – Systems SDM – Institute for Management Development, Mysuru
Time	2.00p.m to 3.15p.m

In this session Prof. Minhaj showed teachers practically how to use search engines effectively and what are the techniques to use search engines according to our search preference.

He also introduced them to Google Scholar which helps them in their research work and also in developing academic contents. The participants worked practically on each type and got how to make use these search engines properly and in limited time.

The session ended with interaction and discussing doubts with the resource person.

3.15p.m to 3.30p.m	TEA BREAK

Session 5 - Tuesday

19-Dec-2017

Topic: Technology tools and techniques for effective teaching

Resource Person	Prof. Mohamed Minhaj Professor – Systems SDM – Institute for Management Development, Mysuru
Time	2.00p.m to 3.15p.m

In this session Prof. Minhaj explained how effective is internet searching techniques is and how will that benefit teachers in their teaching. He showed participants how to search for a particular topic without going in to other website, explained about phrase search, site filter, fill in the blank search etc… he also gave teachers few software's which will help them in creating the academic content and how to blend audio-visual content, how to work on effective communication and how information technology will help them in research and how to extract content with the help of search engines.

The session was open for discussion and participants clarified their doubts.

Session 6 - Wednesday

20-Dec-2017

Topic: Recent trends in testing and evaluation

Resource Person	Dr. V. Illagovan, Senior resource person, National testing Service – India, CIIL, Mysuru
Time	10a.m to 11.30a.m

In this session Dr. Illagovan explained on what are all the recent trends in testing and evaluation. He concentrated on how more learning takes place in informed atmosphere and testing acts as a tool to collect the data.

He also explained on how evaluation is a context method and what the purpose of it is and also trained teachers how to set questions on skill based and explained then how to find out the difficulty index level.

He also focused on assessment of higher order thinking problem solving, critical thinking and taxonomy authentic reading assessments. He concluded the session by telling teachers that any trends are of no use unless they are ready to learn and use it, and session was open for discussion.

11.30a.m to 11.45a.m	TEA BREAK

Session 7 - Wednesday

20-Dec-2017

Resource Person	Dr. Biresh Kumar, PhD, Resource Person, National – India, CIIL, Mysuru
Time	11.45a.m to 1.15p.m

In this session Dr. Biresh explained in-depth on evaluation and testing method, while explaining he told more than 90% fall under achievement test. While taking about question bank he referred question bank works like all other banks and the working system of it is also same.

He also told actual question bank should consist of post validation test; electronic question bank should be there.

Later he explained about question designing, he told all round growth of the students should take place and question should be prepared on that way. He also gave in-depth information on scale V/s tool and structure of question item i.e., objective and subjective type and how effective it is while testing and evaluation.

The session was open for discussion.

1.15p.m to 2.00p.m	LUNCH BREAK

Session 8 - Wednesday

20-Dec-2017

2.00p.m to 3.15p.m

Topic: Follow up action: Suggestions for the curriculum& evaluation by all the participants

Session 8 was a follow up action for all the participants and five areas were identified and given to the participants to give their points of view on those five areas namely.,

- Curriculum Design and development in the present context.
- Innovation in pedagogy
- Extent of use of technology in learning process
- Characteristics of ideal question paper
- Modes of evaluation

The participants were then grouped under different streams namely arts and humanities, commerce and management, sciences, language and linguistics and all PG departments. Once teachers were given their points on the above fields, the session was open for discussion. Then the deans of the respective streams were asked to consolidate/summarize the feedbacks from the participants on the above areas and present it. It was an action taken for more workshops for teachers on their stream and for new innovations.

Session 8 - Wednesday

20-Dec-2017

“Valediction Address”

Resource Person	Rev. Fr. Leslie Moras, Episcopal Vicar, MDES, Mysuru
Time	3.30p.m to 4.30p.m

We need to re think about education and its system said, Rev. Fr. Leslie Moras, Episcopal Vicar, MDES, Mysuru.On the occasion of valediction function held at St. Philomena's College on December 20, 2017 for the workshop that was held from December 18 to 20 in college auditorium.

In his address he also explained teachers, about how to understand and behave with the present generation students and how to interact with them according to their interest.

He reminded teachers to concentrate on social, ethical, interpersonal values and teachers should understand the present situation and make students also learn and know about the current affair.

He also focused on how to make whole learning a interdisciplinary. He concluded his address by telling teachers to be creative and make students also to think creative and all this would take place when ambiance is helping both teachers and students.

Dr. Ruth Shantha Kumari, Principal of St. Philomena's College, thanks and certificates were distributed to the participants.

Rev. Fr. Sanjay Kumar, Vice Principal (Administration); prof. Vidyadhar Sanjay Nair, Vice-Principal(Academics); Rev. Fr. Rony Ravi Kumar, Asst. Director(PG); prof. Alphonsus D'Souza,

