Philo Fest is an intellectual celebration that brings together philosophers, scholars, students, and enthusiasts to explore a diverse array of philosophical topics.

Attendees can expect a rich program featuring keynote speeches.

One of the unique aspects of Philo Fest is its inclusivity and accessibility. Organizers strive to create an environment where individuals from all backgrounds feel welcome to engage in philosophical inquiry and exchange ideas freely. This commitment to diversity fosters a dynamic and enriching experience for participants, fostering cross-cultural dialogue and mutual understanding.

Philo Fest also provides opportunities for networking and collaboration, allowing attendees to connect with like-minded individuals and forge meaningful connections within the philosophical community. Whether you're a seasoned philosopher or just beginning your philosophical journey, Philo Fest offers something for everyone.

Ultimately, Philo Fest serves as a reminder of the enduring relevance of philosophy in today's world, demonstrating its capacity to inspire, challenge, and transform lives. By bringing together thinkers from across disciplines and perspectives, Philo Fest embodies the spirit of philosophical inquiry and the quest for wisdom that lies at the heart of student experience.

One of the highlights of Philo Fest is the engagement of students in organizing and leading various events. This hands-on involvement allows them to develop critical skills in leadership, teamwork, and public speaking. The festival also features cultural performances that showcase the rich artistic heritage of India, linking philosophy with creative expression. I am a student of Philomena's family, as we enjoyed the fun week with great happiness, and joy, we created a new happiness in the name of blue day,retro day , ethic day , twin day and mismatch day.
These days we made new friends which will make a close group and unity of the classmates.
As I am new to this college I celebrated the fun week for the first time and I enjoyed a lot.
We end this fun week with the Philo Fest with great memories from this college.

Dasara Yuva Sambhrama

Date: October 6, 2023

Yuva Sambhrama, an annual celebration of youth talents and cultural diversity commemorated the spirit of Dasara. It took place on the 6th of October in the Open Air Amphitheatre, University of Mysore. The event provided a platform for young individuals to express their creativity and cultural richness. The Cultural committee of St. Philomena's College headed by Prof. Sadebose A T deemed it a wonderful opportunity for the students to showcase their talents. On the inaugural day of Yuva Sambhrama, students from our college participated, contributing to the cultural diversity and enthusiasm of the event. A total of 39 students from our college took part in the event. These students brought their energy and creativity to the forefront, making our institution proud. Accompanying the students were 11 dedicated members of the cultural committee, who played an essential role in organizing and supporting the students throughout the event.The college team put up a multicultural extravaganza, which feature performances that focused on various ethnic dance forms. The stunning performance was choreographed by the renowned Rathish Dance Company. The students delivered their performances with unwavering enthusiasm, captivating the audience and leaving a lasting impression. The dedication and efforts of our students did not go unnoticed. The team received a token of appreciation from the Yuva Sambhrama group for their outstanding participation. In addition to this recognition, all participating students were awarded certificates for their performance. This acknowledgment not only motivates our students but also highlights the remarkable talent nurtured within our college.

Participation in Yuva Sambhrama was more than just a cultural event; it was an enriching experience that exposed both students and faculty to diverse cultural traditions. It allowed them to appreciate the beauty of various art forms and provided a unique learning opportunity that extends beyond the classroom.
