PHILO'S ANTHEM

As Philomenites we sing, Philomenites we are-2
Hailing from within and countries afar
As Philomenites we stand, our hearts are high with pride!
Abundantly, blessed by the almighty God above,
'Caritas- in-scientia'- spreading knowledge with love
The ocean of wisdom, letting tributaries round the world-2
Deep rooted with ethics our motto is unfurled! -2
Just to mere, classroom walls, we're not confined
But to leave a mark and to benefit all mankind.
We do learn for joy, we learn for life, all that comes on our way
To bring a smile on someone's face, each and every day! -2

"Success is not permanent and failure is not final.
Never stop working after Success
And never stop trying after failure."

Preparing Global Citizens through Value-based Excellence

At St. Philomena's college (Autonomous), we stand on the proud shoulders of a rich and inspiring legacy that began on 9th of October 1946 – an era when education was envisioned not merely as a pathway for employment, but as a means of personal transformation and nation building. Founded through the farsighted vision of Rev. Dr. Rene Feuga and inaugurated by Sri Jayachamarajendra Wodeyar, the king of the then princely state of Mysore, the institution has evolved into one of the most respected centres of higher learning in the region.

From its very inception, the college has been guided by the profound motto "Caritas in Scientia" – Service expressed through the pursuit of knowledge. This guiding principle continues to define our academic philosophy, blending intellectual rigour with ethical grounding. Over the decades, the college has grown into a multidisciplinary academic hub offering a comprehensive range of undergraduate, post graduate, and research programmes. As an autonomous college, we enjoy the academic freedom to design innovative curricula that are responsive to contemporary global demands while rooted in human values.

A defining feature of our institution is its vibrant and diverse student community. With learners from different States across India and countries worldwide, the campus represents a true global village. This multicultural environment fosters inclusivity, cross-cultural understanding, and a broader worldview - qualities essential for leadership in a globalized society.

As we move forward, we remain steadfast in our vision to evolve into a globally recognized institution, with aspirations for attaining University status. We are committed to fostering innovation, expanding research capabilities, and strengthening industry-academia collaborations to meet the challenges and opportunities of the future. At Philomena's, we do not merely educate we inspire, transform, and empower. We nurture individuals who are intellectually competent, morally upright, and socially responsible –true global citizens ready to make a meaningful difference in the world. We warmly welcome students, parents, and stakeholders to be part of this enduring journey of excellence.

Empowering Minds, Enriching Lives through Values and Excellence

The academic year 2025–26 holds special significance for the Philo's fraternity as we celebrate the Oak Jubilee, marking the 80th year of the establishment of our esteemed institution. This milestone is not merely a celebration of years, but a tribute to a rich legacy of excellence, service, and commitment to higher education.

A number of programmes and activities have been planned as part of the Jubilee celebrations, and this magazine offers a glimpse into many of these meaningful initiatives and achievements. The Jubilee invites each one of us to rediscover our roots, renew our commitment to quality education, and continue striving towards academic and human excellence. On this memorable occasion, we gratefully acknowledge the invaluable contribution of our Management, teachers both past and present students, non-teaching staff, alumni, and all those who, in visible and invisible ways, have contributed to the remarkable growth of this institution over the years.

As the Academic Head of the college, I remain deeply grateful to Rev. Dr. Lourdu Prasad Joseph, Rector of St. Philomena's Educational Institutions, whose visionary leadership continues to nurture an environment rooted in the true spirit and charism of Philo's. I also extend my sincere gratitude to Rev. Fr. Gnanapragasam, Campus Administrator, for his constant support and accompaniment; Rev. Fr. "Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world."

- Nelson Mandela

Education is not merely the pursuit of knowledge; it is a journey of discovering truth, nurturing values, and shaping lives with wisdom and compassion.

The year 2025–2026 witnessed numerous academic, cultural, literary, and social activities that enriched student life and strengthened the values upheld by the institution. Every event, achievement, and milestone recorded in this magazine reflects the vibrant spirit and enduring legacy of the college community.

Rooted in the values of faith, service, and humanity, education is viewed not merely as the pursuit of knowledge but as a path towards character formation and social responsibility. With discipline, integrity, compassion, and wisdom at its core, the institution continues to shape responsible citizens and future leaders through value-based learning and academic excellence.

EDITORIAL TEAM

INSIGHTS

If classrooms are where lessons are taught and corridors where lives intersect, a magazine is where both are remembered. It captures the quiet in between the thinking, the feeling, the becoming and binds it into something that lasts beyond semesters."

Through Students Eyes: Perspectives

A Collective Voice, A Shared Journey

A college magazine is not merely a compilation of articles, images, or creative expressions bound together. It is a living record of a campus; its thoughts, its energies, its debates, its silences, and its growth. It holds within its pages the spirit of a student community at a particular moment in time. As the Students' Editorial Team, we present this issue with a sense of collective responsibility, humility, and pride, representing not individual voices alone, but the shared rhythm of student life

The process of shaping this magazine has been a journey in itself. What began as ideas on paper gradually evolved into conversations, collaborations, revisions, and rediscoveries. As a team, we learned that editorial work is not simply about selection or correction, but about listening to perspectives different from our own, to stories still finding their voice, and to thoughts that deserve space and patience. Each stage of this process reminded us that a magazine is built not in isolation, but in dialogue. Working together as a student editorial board taught us the value of teamwork and mutual respect. Deadlines tested our discipline, disagreements sharpened our judgment, and shared goals strengthened our unity. We learned to balance creativity with responsibility, expression with clarity, and freedom with structure. In many ways, the editorial journey mirrored student life itself; demanding, enriching, occasionally overwhelming, yet deeply formative.

Our college plays a vital role in shaping student experiences by going beyond academics to create an environment that encourages exploration, questioning, and active participation. It nurtures curiosity and critical thinking, transforming classrooms into spaces where ideas are formed, challenged, and refined. Alongside academics, cultural activities enrich campus life by offering platforms for expression through festivals, performances, and debates, reminding us that education is incomplete without creativity and emotional connection.

Sports and physical activities further contribute to holistic development, instilling discipline, resilience, teamwork, and perseverance, values that extend far beyond the field. Co-curricular engagements, including clubs, outreach programmes, and leadership opportunities, bridge the gap between theory and practice, fostering confidence, responsibility, and adaptability. Together, these experiences prepare students not just for examinations, but for life itself.

This magazine reflects these diverse dimensions, bringing together analytical writing, creative expression, poetry, and personal reflections. It captures the essence of student life; its questions, aspirations, and evolving journeys without seeking to resolve them, but rather to acknowledge and give them space. Through these pages, readers are invited to reflect and find connections with their own experiences.
As students, we are constantly growing, and this magazine captures us in that process of becoming. It stands as a testament to the power of expression and opportunity, and we extend our gratitude to the institution, faculty, and contributors who made it possible. Above all, it celebrates the voices of students, whose ideas and participation continue to shape our campus.

"The future depends on what you do today."

IMPLEMENTATION OF SEP 2025

The State Education Policy (SEP) 2025, introduced by the Government of Karnataka under the chairmanship of Prof. Sukhadeo Thorat, marks a transformative step in redefining the educational landscape. Designed with inputs from hundreds of experts, the policy aims to create a more inclusive, flexible, and student-centric system especially impactful for undergraduate learners. For UG students, SEP 2025 brings significant academic reforms. The introduction of a flexible 3+2 degree structure allows students to pursue a three-year undergraduate programme with the option to continue into advanced studies. This structure encourages academic mobility and offers multiple exit and re-entry opportunities, making higher education more adaptable to individual needs. Affordability and accessibility are key highlights of the policy. Free education for female students across government, aided, and private institutions aims to promote gender equity, while scholarships and financial support for economically disadvantaged students help reduce dropout rates and ensure continuity in education.

The policy also places strong emphasis on research and innovation. The proposed State Research Foundation, supported by substantial funding, will create opportunities for students to engage in research activities early in their academic journey.

Research Investment: Establishing a State Research Foundation with a ₹500 crore initial fund and providing state-funded fellowships for Ph.D. candidates. Creating the KSCQA (Karnataka State Council for Quality Assessment) and committing to filling all faculty vacancies within five years.
Recognizing the demands of a rapidly evolving job market, SEP 2025 introduced Professional & Vocational Training. The policy shifts focus toward modern industry needs, rural economic empowerment, future-ready skills, expansion into "Deep Tech" fields like AI, Biotechnology, and Quantum Computing, agricultural modernization; introducing diplomas in precision farming and food processing, unique emphasis on providing textbooks in Kannada to bridge the language gap in science. industry links; forming regional skilling councils led by industry veterans to ensure graduates are job-ready, within polytechnics and universities.

OPEN ELECTIVE SUBJECTS

Life Skills - Learning for Life
In today's competitive world, academic knowledge alone is not enough. Many students face challenges in personal, social, and professional life, often lacking the skills needed to balance them effectively.
Recognizing this gap, St. Philomena's college has adopted a holistic approach to education that nurtures both the mind and the individual as a whole. Inspired by thinkers like Rudolf Steiner and Maria Montessori, the college has introduced a mandatory foundation course in soft skills for all students. This interactive program helps students reflect on real-life situations and develop essential life competencies.
The course focuses on personal development, emotional intelligence, and overall well-being, along with employability skills such as leadership, the right mindset, and work life balance.
Ultimately, the Life Skills program prepares students not just for careers, but for meaningful and balanced lives.

ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES: The Department of Environmental Studies, established in 2003, was introduced following the University Grants Commission's initiative to ensure that every undergraduate student understands the challenges facing our environment. Taught during the first two years, the subject goes beyond academics; it encourages students to develop a sense of responsibility towards nature.
The department envisions individuals who actively practice sustainable living, and its mission is to build awareness that nurtures a culture of environmental care. Through this course, students gain a basic understanding of how the world works, from ecosystems and biodiversity to pollution, climate change, and resource management. It helps them see the connection between human actions and the health of the planet.
Teaching combines traditional classroom methods with modern tools like presentations, making learning both effective and engaging. Faculty members also stay updated by participating in seminars and workshops within and outside the campus. What truly brings this subject to life are the activities carried out by students and staff in collaboration with other departments and the Nature Club. Initiatives such as Swachh Mysuru, promoting a plastic-free campus, rainwater harvesting, vermicomposting, paper recycling, and tree planting reflect a commitment to real change.
A meaningful example of this was the celebration of World Environment Day in June 2025, when around 500 saplings were planted on the campus. Small actions like these remind us that caring for the environment begins with simple steps.

Philo's Kalarava 2K26

Kalarava 2026 unfolded as a vibrant celebration of culture, color, and collective spirit, transforming the open quadrangle into a lively canvas of tradition on April 17, 2026. Organized by the Humanities Departments as part of the Oak Jubilee festivities, the event captured the essence of India's rich cultural diversity through rhythm, movement, and shared celebration.

The program began with the release of the official banner, setting the tone for the day, followed by an energetic inaugural folk performance by students. What followed was a seamless cultural procession, where dance became a narrative tracing tradition from Karnataka, Gujarat, Kerala, Madhya Pradesh, Tamil Nadu, and Odisha each step reflecting unity in diversity.

Marking the commencement of the festivities, the ceremonial breaking of the pot to inaugurate the traditional food and games stalls added a symbolic and festive touch. The campus soon buzzed with activity vibrant game stalls, aromatic regional cuisines, and the much-admired "Virasat Walk," where students gracefully showcased traditional attire from across the country. The celebration culminated in a series of spirited dance performances, eventually blending into a joyful burst of colors with a Holi celebration, leaving the campus immersed in festivity. Philo's Kalarava 2026 stood as a vivid expression of cultural harmony, student talent, and the enduring spirit of celebration.

Meet Our Alumni: Inspiring Journeys, Shared Roots

"Three Decades of Connection, One Proud Alma Mater"

Mr. B. L. Nagendra Singh
B.Sc., M.A., M.Ed., K.E.S.

It gives me great pleasure to be a part of the Annual Magazine being brought out for the year 2025–2026. I joined my P.U.C. course during the year 1977 and went on to complete my B. Sc (PCM) degree in the year 1980.With great privilege I say that I was a part and parcel of this esteemed institution. During my stay in the college, I was able to get a lot of knowledge from the experienced eminent faculty members of all departments.

It will be wrong on my part to mention only few as all of them strived hard for the success of our studies. During the period I was a regular member of the college football team for 5 years. I had even represented Mysore University Football team for 2 years. Because of this I was able to get in touch with other departments and non-teaching staff. If at all I went on to develop discipline in life and sports, it's all because of these members and Physical Director at that time. For more than three decades, I have been an executive member of the Alumni Association because of which I am able to visit my Alma matter every now and then to know more about the developments of the college and often myself recalling the past. Wishing all the best.

"Revisiting My College: A Journey of Growth and Discovery"

Ms. M. Meghana R
2023–2025 Batch

As I step into the familiar corridors of St Philomena's College, a wave of nostalgia washes over me. It's hard to believe it's been a few years since I graduated with a master degree in Criminology and Forensic Science. My time at St Philomena's was a transformative experience that shaped my passion for understanding the complexities of crime and justice.

The college's emphasis on academic rigor, coupled with hands-on learning, equipped me with the skills and knowledge to excel in my field. The faculty, with their expertise and mentorship, played an essential role in nurturing my interest in Criminology. Today, as an Assistant Professor at the same institution, I'm thrilled to be part of shaping the next generation of criminologists and forensic experts. The college continues to evolve, incorporating advanced technology and innovative teaching methods to stay ahead in the field. To my fellow alumni, I say, let's stay connected and continue to contribute to our college's growth. To current students, I encourage you to make the most of the opportunities available. The world needs passionate and skilled professionals like you! St Philomena's College, has been more than just an institution it's a community that fosters growth, curiosity, and excellence. Proud to be a part of it!

"A Journey of Growth, Friends and Finding Myself"

Ms. Dheena S Raj
(2023-25 batch) MBA

My MBA journey at St. Philomena's College has been one of the most transformative phases of my life. It was not merely an academic pursuit, but a meaningful experience that shaped my perspective, built my confidence, and strengthened my character. Coming from a different academic background, I initially faced self-doubt. However, the supportive environment of the college helped me adapt and grow.

The encouragement from professors and the constant support of classmates made the journey enriching and memorable. Beyond classrooms and assignments, it was the friendships, teamwork, and shared experiences that truly defined my MBA journey.

One of the most unforgettable memories of my MBA journey was the industrial visit to Goa. It was not just about visiting a new place, but about learning outside the classroom and bonding with classmates and professors in a completely different setting. Those moments of laughter, discussions, and shared experiences are still vivid in my mind. The trip strengthened our connections and reminded us that learning can also be joyful and memorable. The internship and project phase was a defining part of my MBA journey, demanding dedication and perseverance while bridging the gap between theory and practice. The constant support and guidance from professors, along with a nurturing academic environment, made the experience enriching. Overall, the journey was one of growth and self-discovery, shaping me into a confident and responsible individual ready to face future challenges.

"Confused Fresher to Confident Explorer"

Ms. Hemashree H S
2023–2025 Batch

My journey at college has been one of growth and transformation. What began with uncertainty and hesitation gradually turned into confidence and clarity. In the beginning, everything felt new and overwhelming, but over time, I adapted to the environment and embraced the opportunities around me. College became more than just academics it became a space for learning, participation, and self-discovery.

I actively took part in Kannada Rajyothsava celebrations, contributed to event decorations, and enthusiastically participated in Philo Fest through both group and solo competitions, making my journey vibrant and memorable. Each stage appearance came with nervous energy but also growth. Getting associated with Akashwani was another unforgettable experience that pushed me beyond what I thought I could do. Though I was from PG, interacting and engaging with UG teachers and students gave me new exposure and confidence.

. It reminded me that learning doesn't come with labels it comes with participation. Somewhere between organizing, practicing, presenting, coordinating, and managing deadlines (sometimes dramatically), I began discovering strengths I didn't know I had. Confidence didn't arrive in a grand moment. It built itself quietly through small risks, small failures, and small successes. There were moments of stage fear, last-minute rushes, and times when I wondered why I said "yes" to so many things. But every "yes" shaped me. Not everything went perfectly and thankfully so. The imperfect days taught me resilience. The pressure taught me balance. The experiences taught me independence. I didn't just learn subjects; I learned how to manage responsibility, speak up, lead, collaborate, and believe in myself. This journey gave me courage, direction, and the confidence to grow, transforming me from a confused fresher into a stronger, more self-assured individual. I leave with gratitude and memories, ready for what's next.

Hostel Life Through Students' Eyes

Sneha Nilaya: A Home Away from Home

Ms. Suvaiba Hanzala, 6th Sem, BCA

The hostel is my second home, a place where I truly feel I belong. It is not just because of my nature, but because of the people around me who make this place special. My friends, the girls here, and especially my roommates turn this building into a warm and loving home. For those who come from far away, it may feel difficult at first. Sharing a room with six people can be challenging, but hostel life is not just about living together. It is about creating memories and gaining lifelong experiences. In the hostel, we learn to care for ourselves and gradually find a new family. Our roommates support us and make us feel at home, shaping us into independent and better individuals. Life here is filled with laughter, small moments, and late-night conversations that make it special. We share care, celebrations, and simple meals that bring comfort and create lifelong bonds. The sisters, wardens, and staff are kind and supportive, always ready to help. Their presence gives us a sense of security and belonging. The hostel also provides a clean, peaceful, and comfortable environment with good facilities for living and studying. Surrounded by greenery and calmness, it becomes a perfect place for both learning and growth. One of the most memorable parts of hostel life is Hostel Day, filled with games, competitions, and celebrations. The energy and togetherness during this time create unforgettable memories being a Sneha Nilaya hostelite has been a beautiful journey. Living in a hostel may seem unfamiliar at first, but it becomes one of the most meaningful experiences of life. It is a journey of friendship, growth, laughter, and memories that stay forever.

Roommates Today, Family Forever

Ms. Ananya S L, 2nd Sem, BA (CFS, OEN, JOUR)

Hostel life becomes truly meaningful when shared with roommates. Living together is not just about sharing a room, but also about sharing daily routines, responsibilities, and personal space. It becomes a journey that teaches valuable lessons far beyond academics. One of the greatest joys of having roommates is companionship. You are never alone there is always someone to talk to, study with, or share your thoughts and feelings. Through late night conversations, exam stress, and moments of laughter, roommates often grow into close friends. They stand by each other during difficult times, making hostel life both easier and more enjoyable. At the same time, living with roommates helps develop qualities like patience, understanding, and adjustment. Each person comes from a different background, with different habits and routines. Learning to respect these differences and live together peacefully builds tolerance and cooperation. It also strengthens communication, as problems are shared and solved together. However, this journey is not without challenges. Differences in lifestyle, noise, or shared responsibilities can sometimes lead to misunderstandings. A lack of privacy may also feel difficult at times. Yet, when handled with care and understanding, these challenges become opportunities to grow stronger and wiser. In the end, roommates are not just people we live with they become a part of our lives, turning simple moments into lasting memories and friendships into bonds that feel like family.

An Overview of My Experience at Hostel

Tarun Kanumane, 2nd Sem, BA (CFS, OEN, JOUR)

My name is Tarun, and I stay at Boys Hostel. For many students like me who come from different towns and backgrounds, the hostel becomes more than just a place to sleep it gradually becomes part of everyday life. When I first arrived, everything felt unfamiliar: the rooms, corridors, voices of strangers, and the hostel routine. Like many students leaving home for education, I wondered if I would be able to adjust. Hostel life is not always simple. Some days are filled with laughter in the corridors, casual conversations, or small moments that become lasting memories. Other days are harder, with misunderstandings between roommates, small arguments, or the quiet weight of missing home. Living with different personalities teaches patience, understanding, and the ability to move forward despite conflicts. Over time, strangers become friends, roommates turn into companions, and the place that once felt distant starts to feel like a second home. Shared meals, late-night conversations, and daily routines create bonds that are difficult to explain but easy to feel. The hostel also provides a structured and calm environment for study, helping students focus on their academics while learning lessons that classrooms cannot teach. Living here has taught me independence, responsibility, and respect for others, especially when sharing life with people from different regions and backgrounds. Most importantly, it has shown me how to live as part of a community. My time at St. Philomena's Boys Hostel has been meaningful, full of joy, challenges, and quiet reflections. Hostel life may not always be perfect, but it is honest a place where young students grow into responsible individuals while walking a shared journey.

Hostel: A Journey of Growth

K Uday Kiran- 4th Sem, M. Sc- CRIMINOLOGY

Hostel life is a world of its own a place where independence, responsibility, and personal growth come together. Living away from home teaches students to manage finances, maintain self-discipline, and navigate life's challenges without parental support. It fosters resilience, helping hostellers face obstacles with courage and determination. Beyond personal growth, hostel life is about forging lifelong friendships. From shared laughter and late-night conversations to moments of support during tough times, roommates and peers become a second family. Cultural diversity adds richness to everyday life, as students from different regions bring their traditions, values, and perspectives, creating an environment of mutual learning and understanding. Every small experience from cooking together, celebrating festivals, or collaborating on projects contributes to memories that last a lifetime. The hostel not only teaches practical life skills but also nurtures empathy, teamwork, and emotional intelligence. In essence, it is a home away from home, where friendships, growth, and cherished memories combine to shape students into confident, responsible, and well-rounded individuals ready to face the world.

"THE PURPOSE OF OUR LIVES IS TO BE HAPPY."

— DALAI LAMA

Ayush Jonathan - 2nd Sem, BA (CFS, PSY, JOUR)

Life in a boys' hostel is a mix of challenge, learning, and fun. For many students, it is a new experience that can feel strange at first, as being away from family is never easy. Gradually, the hostel transforms into a second home where friendships flourish. Boys share rooms, study together, celebrate birthdays, exchange jokes, and support one another during exams, creating bonds that often last a lifetime. Hostel life teaches self-reliance managing one's time, keeping rooms tidy, adjusting with roommates, and handling personal responsibilities. Amid routines and rules, there is also joy: playing games, watching movies, sharing snacks, or simply spending hours talking. Though students sometimes miss home and find rules strict, these experiences help them grow stronger and more resilient. Ultimately, life in a boys' hostel is a vibrant journey of learning, friendship, and personal growth.

Kailash Jadhav – 4th Sem, BCA

Hostel life is a unique and memorable chapter in a student's journey. Moving away from home, the hostel becomes a second home, offering not just accommodation but lessons in independence, responsibility, and friendship. Initially, students may feel anxious or homesick, but with time, they adjust, form friendships, and connect with peers from diverse backgrounds. These interactions also foster an appreciation for different cultures. While hostel life comes with challenges strict rules, limited privacy, and missing family it teaches essential life skills, from managing personal belongings to facing life's hurdles with courage. Following meal schedules, study routines, and hostel regulations instills discipline, while shared experiences create lasting bonds. In essence, hostel life shapes students into independent, responsible, and well-rounded individuals, leaving them with memories and friendships to cherish forever.

BOYS' HOSTEL REPORT 2025-2026

Rev.Fr. Gnanapragasam
Campus Administrator
Warden, Boy's Hostel

A Home Away from Home

St. Philomena's Boys' and Girls' Hostel stand as a place of comfort, discipline, and unity for young students who come from different parts of the country in search of education and personal growth. As a warden, I take great pride in saying that our hostel is not just a place to stay, but a home where every student is welcomed with warmth and equality. One of the most admirable qualities of our hostel is our commitment to inclusiveness. We accommodate students irrespective of caste, color, language, religion, or region. Every student is treated equally with dignity and respect. We believe that diversity is a strength, and our hostel provides an environment where boys from various backgrounds live together in harmony, learning from one another and building lifelong friendships.

Our hostel has 120 well-maintained rooms with the capacity to accommodate up to 240 students. The rooms are spacious, comfortable, and designed to provide a peaceful atmosphere that supports both study and rest. Cleanliness and discipline are given high priority to ensure a healthy and safe living environment for all. Physical development is equally important as academic growth. We are blessed with a large playground where students can engage in various outdoor games. Different varieties of sports and games are encouraged to promote teamwork, leadership, and physical fitness. In addition, we have gym facilities available for our boys, and these facilities are provided free of cost. Regular physical activity helps students stay energetic, focused, and healthy.

At Boys' Hostel, we also focus on building community spirit. Every year, we celebrate Hostel Day with great enthusiasm. On this special occasion, a variety of competitions and cultural programs are organized. These activities help students discover their talents, interact with one another, and strengthen their bonds of friendship. Hostel Day becomes a joyful platform where everyone participates and celebrates together as one family. We understand the importance of recreation and relaxation in a student's life. Therefore, students are permitted to go out every Thursday from 4:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. Additionally, on Sundays, they are allowed to go out after lunch until 7:00 p.m. These outings provide them with a refreshing break from their regular routine and help them maintain a balanced lifestyle. Food and nutrition are given special attention in our hostel. We provide tasty and hygienic meals along with a variety of snacks for our boys' and Girls'. The food is prepared in our own kitchen under proper supervision, ensuring quality and cleanliness.

We believe that good food contributes to good health, which in turn supports better academic performance. Spiritual and moral guidance also form an important part of hostel life. Two Fathers reside in the hostel along with the students, offering guidance, care, and support. Their presence ensures spiritual nourishment and moral development. In addition, some of our professors stay in the hostel, helping to maintain discipline and providing academic assistance whenever needed. This close supervision creates a structured and secure environment where students feel supported at all times, with proper guidance, excellent facilities, and a caring atmosphere, our hostel continues to shape the future of many students. We remain committed to providing a safe, inclusive, and enriching environment for all who enter our doors.

At St. Philomena's Boys Hostel, every student is not just a resident he is a valued member of our family.

Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC)

In an institution as vibrant and purposeful as St. Philomena's College (Autonomous), Mysore, quality is not a mandate handed down from a distant authority it is a culture quietly nurtured from within, growing each year through the commitment of every teacher, student, and staff member who walks through its corridors. The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), in its role as the institution's conscience and compass, has for the academic year 2025–26 charted a roadmap that is at once ambitious in scope and deeply human in spirit.

Inspired by the college motto Caritas in Scientia, the IQAC envisions a campus where quality is experienced every day in the rigour of a seminar, the warmth of a mentoring session, the discipline of a sports field, and the quiet labour of documentation that makes good work visible and lasting. The roadmap is built around the Plan–Implement–Review–Improve model, a reflective cycle that keeps the institution honest about its aspirations and accountable to its stakeholders.

"Quality becomes meaningful when it is experienced, not enforced."

— Dr. Ravi JD Saldanha, Principal and Chairperson, IQAC

The year's calendar of activities is both comprehensive and deliberate. On the academic front, national and international seminars, interdisciplinary conferences, and skill-oriented workshops have been planned across departments, inviting scholars, professionals, and students into conversations that extend well beyond the syllabus. Faculty Development Programmes on pedagogy, research methodology, technology integration, and NAAC alignment ensure that the quality of teaching keeps pace with the demands of a changing educational world. Curricular enrichment through add-on courses, industry interface sessions, and value-added programmes complements formal instruction, producing graduates who are not merely knowledgeable but genuinely capable. Co-curricular and extra-curricular life pulsates with equal energy. Debates, quizzes, literary events, cultural competitions, and science exhibitions animate the campus calendar, offering every student a platform to discover and display talent beyond the examination hall. The institution's commitment to social responsibility finds expression through NSS and NCC activities, rural outreach, health sensitization drives, and community service programmes that turn classroom learning into lived service.

"Excellence is built slowly — through consistency, reflection, and care."

— Mr. A. Thomas Gunaseelan, Coordinator, IQAC

On the quality assurance front, the IQAC roadmap responds to the evolving NAAC framework not with anxiety but with clarity. Academic and administrative audits, student satisfaction surveys, alumni feedback sessions, and employer engagement exercises together constitute a robust system of self-reflection. The emphasis throughout is on evidence-based practice and documentation that truly mirrors institutional life rather than merely satisfying an external checklist. The autonomous examination machinery, too, receives careful attention from semester scheduling and continuous internal assessment to result analysis, grievance redressal, and the progressive integration of outcome-based evaluation strategies.

"When quality is shared, excellence follows naturally."

— Dr. Deepa V., Co-Coordinator, IQAC

Creating a Safe and Respectful Campus: Anti-Ragging Initiatives
The Anti-Ragging Cell, led by Mr. Mathew C, Assistant Professor, UG Dept. of Social Work, along with faculty members and class teachers, is committed to fostering a safe and inclusive learning environment for all students. The college's Anti-Ragging Committee works tirelessly to promote respect, tolerance, and camaraderie, ensuring that every student can pursue education in a secure and supportive atmosphere.
The primary objectives of the committee are clear: preventing ragging, educating students about its consequences, and taking prompt action against offenders. To achieve these goals, the committee conducts orientation programmes for first-year students, awareness campaigns, grievance redressal, and provides counselling and support to victims. Regular monitoring and strict disciplinary measures further reinforce a ragging-free culture on campus.

EDUCATOR'S CORNER

AI Versus NI, and AI - A Boon or a Bane?

Prof. A. Thomas Gunaseelan
Associate Professor & Head,
Department of Physics &
IQAC Coordinator

The Mirror We Have Built

Not long ago, machines merely followed instructions. Today, they predict our routes, suggest meals, translate languages, analyze research data, and sometimes, much to our surprise, correct our spelling. During a faculty meeting, a colleague once joked, "My iPhone knows I'm hungry before I do." We laughed and then realized how true it was.

We now stand at an intriguing juncture in human history, shaped by Artificial Intelligence (AI) systems designed to simulate certain aspects of human cognition and Natural Intelligence (NI) the biological, emotional, imaginative, and moral capacity of the human mind. Are these two in competition? Or are they partners in shaping the future of education, research, and society?

Natural Intelligence: The Original Genius

Natural Intelligence is the outcome of millions of years of evolution. It enables humans to reason, empathize, create art, question authority, and design civilizations. NI allows us to learn from limited experience, grasp context, exercise judgment, and adapt creatively to unfamiliar situations. A student touches a hot object once and remembers life. No massive dataset is required - only experience, emotion, and reflection.

Artificial Intelligence: The Engineered Prodigy

Artificial Intelligence, by contrast, is human built. It relies on algorithms, computing power, and enormous volumes of data to recognise patterns, forecast outcomes, and automate tasks. AI never tires, forgets little, and processes information at astonishing speed. As one academic humorously remarked: "Humans get tired after correcting sixty answer scripts. AI becomes exhausted only when the electricity goes off." AI excels in efficiency; NI excels in meaning.

AI vs NI: Comparison without Combat

The contrast between the two forms of intelligence is revealing:

- Origin: NI is biological; AI is engineered.
- Emotion & Ethics: NI experiences feelings and moral reasoning; AI follows programmed constraints.
- Creativity: NI imagines; AI recombines existing patterns.
- Speed & Memory: AI surpasses humans dramatically.
- Consciousness: Present in NI, absent in AI.

A chess-playing program may defeat a grandmaster, but it does not savor victory, feel disappointment, or celebrate success. The human experience remains uniquely human.

Everyday Encounters in Education and Society

In higher education institutions, including at St. Philomena's College (Autonomous), Mysuru, AI tools increasingly assist in generating practice questions, analyzing feedback, visualizing complex physics simulations, and preparing multilingual content. Dr. Nikyta Thomas, my elder daughter once observed, "Dad, AI explained anatomy better than my textbooks". My response was simple and at point blank: "Good; but it still cannot motivate you to study."

In medicine, AI systems scan radiological images and detect early disease patterns with remarkable accuracy. Yet when a physician reassures a patient with empathy and confidence, that healing moment arises solely from NI. Navigation apps, agricultural advisory platforms, fraud-detection systems, climate models, and language translators have quietly become part of daily life, demonstrating the immense societal value of intelligent machines.

Light-hearted Lessons from Intelligent Machines

AI is impressive, but not infallible. While preparing study material for my Final BSc students, I once discovered that voice-recognition software converted "Einstein's theory of relativity" into "I stand's theory of relatives." Another popular quip captures the contrast: "AI can compose a poem in seconds; it still cannot decide what to wear for a wedding." Such moments remind us that machines manipulate patterns, while humans understand nuance.

When AI is a Boon

Used responsibly, AI can be transformative:

In Education: personalized learning, automated feedback, virtual laboratories, accessibility tools.

In Research: protein-folding prediction, climate simulations, astronomical data analysis, and high-energy physics modelling.

In Society: disaster warnings, smart farming, logistics optimization, and digital inclusion.

In Physics and allied sciences, AI-driven simulations now accelerate discovery, enabling researchers to explore systems that once required years of computation. AI does not replace scientists—it gives them sharper instruments.

When AI Raises Concern

Every powerful technology demands caution.

- Employment shifts require reskilling and lifelong learning.
- Bias in data may reinforce inequities.
- Privacy issues arise from large-scale surveillance and data collection.
- Over-dependence risks dulling human curiosity and critical thought.

An academic joke captures anxiety: "If AI writes our lectures, grades our scripts, and attends meetings; what exactly are we doing?" The answer lies in mentoring, questioning, inspiring, and setting ethical direction - roles that cannot be automated.

A Revealing Experiment

In one research study, an AI system trained to identify wolves in photographs performed extraordinarily well; until scientists realized it was not recognizing wolves at all. It was detecting snow in the background, since most wolf images were taken in winter landscapes.

Presented with a wolf in a forest, the system hesitated. The lesson is profound: AI discovers correlations; humans interpret meaning. Who Guides the Future? AI does not possess conscience; it borrows ours. It asks how, not whether. Hence the real issue is not AI versus NI, but AI governed by NI. Albert Einstein observed that imagination defines true intelligence. Today we might add - wisdom lies in knowing what should not be automated.

Toward Partnership, Not Rivalry

The path forward is synergy: Machines handle computation and repetition. Humans cultivate ethics and purpose. Algorithms optimize processes. Educators nurture curiosity and values.

Within quality-driven higher education systems and accreditation frameworks, AI can strengthen analytics and documentation, but institutional vision must remain profoundly human-centered. Humorously, data procurement is still a headache in my IQAC office. Rewinding Reflection Artificial Intelligence can generate answers. Natural Intelligence frames the questions that transform society. AI can imitate music. Humans compose symphonies (my God of music being Ilayaraja) inspired by joy, loss, and hope.

Hence, is AI a boon or a bane?

It is neither savior nor threat, it is a mirror reflecting the intentions of its creators and users. Guided wisely, it becomes a boon; driven recklessly, it risks becoming a bane.

To conclude:

"Artificial Intelligence may be the fastest learner in the room but Natural Intelligence must always remain the teacher."

Women Empowerment: A Shared Responsibility

Dr Deepa. V
IQAC – Co-Coordinator

Women's empowerment is a vital force driving the progress of any society. It is not limited to granting rights on paper, but about creating real opportunities for women to grow, decide, and lead with confidence. Empowerment means giving women the freedom to shape their own lives, the courage to raise their voices, and the support to turn their aspirations into achievements. For generations, women have balanced multiple roles within families and communities, often placing others' needs before their own. While these contributions are invaluable, true empowerment begins when women are recognized as equal partners in development.Education plays a key role in this journey.

An educated woman gains awareness, self-belief, and the ability to challenge unfair practices. Knowledge equips her not only to improve her own life but also to uplift those around her. Economic empowerment further strengthens this foundation. When women are financially independent, they gain dignity and security. Access to skill development, fair employment, and equal pay allows women to participate actively in nation-building. Their economic contribution improves family welfare and promotes long-term social stability. Social empowerment is equally important. Respect, safety, and freedom from discrimination are essential for women to thrive. Empowerment flourishes in environments where girls are encouraged to dream without fear and women are supported in their choices. This requires collective effort—from families that nurture equality, from institutions that provide opportunities, and from communities that challenge stereotypes. Women empowerment is not a struggle against men, but a movement towards balance and fairness. When women progress, society progresses with them. Empowered women become leaders, innovators, caregivers, and change-makers, shaping a more just and compassionate world.

In essence, women empowerment is about choice, confidence, and opportunity. It is a continuous process that calls for awareness, action, and empathy. By supporting women at every stage of life, we invest in a future that is inclusive, resilient, and truly empowered.

Two Day National Level Conference – An MoU Follow Up Activity

Ms. Kavitha R
Assistant Professor (UG Commerce)
Academic Networking and Collaborations Cell Coordinator

The Department of Chemistry at St. Philomena's College (Autonomous), Mysuru, Karnataka, in collaboration with the Department of Chemistry at Patna Women's College (Autonomous), successfully organized a two-day National Conference as a follow-up activity of the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between the two institutions. The conference, titled "Community-Based Approach Towards Sustainable Environment and Society Viksit Bharat @2047," was held on 24th and 25th March 2026.

This academic initiative marked a significant step in strengthening inter-institutional collaboration, fostering research exchange, and promoting collective efforts towards sustainability. The conference aimed to highlight the role of community-driven approaches in addressing environmental challenges and building a sustainable society in alignment with the vision of Viksit Bharat @2047.

The event witnessed active participation from academicians, researchers, and students across the country. More than 45 research papers were presented, covering a wide range of themes such as environmental protection, sustainable practices, green chemistry, and innovative solutions to societal issues. The diversity and quality of research presentations reflected the growing commitment of the academic community towards addressing pressing environmental concerns.

A noteworthy contribution from St. Philomena's College was by Ms. Arathy, who presented a research paper on "Advanced Chemical Strategies for Wastewater Remediation." Her work emphasized modern chemical techniques and sustainable approaches to mitigate water pollution, showcasing the institution's dedication to impactful and socially relevant research.

The inaugural session was graced by the presence of Management Heads and distinguished dignitaries from both collaborating institutions, whose presence added significance to the occasion. Their encouragement and support underscored the importance of academic partnerships in achieving long-term developmental goals.

"Make each day your masterpiece."

BSW – Shaping Compassionate Social Professionals

Ms. Deepthy
Assistant Professor, Department of BSW

Bachelor of Social Work (B.S.W) degree programme encourages the empathetic involvement of students in activities that focus on social development. The value of learning through service is significantly incorporated in the academic programme. It prepares students for professional practice in Social Work. Social Work Practicum is a very important component that aims at enabling students to understand the relevance between theory and practice and to concretize the theory learned in the classroom. We provide an excellent opportunity to students by exposing them to real-life situations through surveys, street plays, exposure visits, study tours, internships, and training in Participatory Rural Appraisal (PRA). Students also get an opportunity to work with Government Organisations, whereby they learn about Government schemes and programmes which help them in reaching out to the community. Networking's with Non-Government Organisations expose the students to a wide variety of challenges and interventions. Values such as selflessness and service are blended with leadership skills and social sensitivity that transforms them into leaders of tomorrow. This programme enhances the core values, ethics, knowledge, and skills of social work for professional practice.

- To build a strong foundation in social work knowledge, values, and ethics
- To develop professional competencies necessary for effective social work practice
- To enhance social awareness and sensitivity towards contemporary social issues
- To integrate theoretical learning with practical experience through fieldwork and practicum
- To cultivate critical thinking and analytical skills for problem solving and intervention
- To promote human rights, social justice and empowerment of vulnerable and marginalized groups
- To strengthen leadership qualities and teamwork capabilities in social settings
- To foster research aptitude and analytical competence in social work inquiry

Bachelor of Social Work (BSW): Course Rationale in the Contemporary Context

In the present era marked by rapid socio-economic transformations, technological advancements, environmental crises, and growing inequalities, societies across the world face complex and interconnected challenges. Issues such as poverty, unemployment, migration, mental health concerns, gender-based violence, child protection, climate change, digital exclusion, and violations of human rights demand informed, ethical, and professionally trained social work practitioners.

The Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) programme is a foundational professional course designed to respond to these emerging realities and societal needs. The programme prepares students to understand human behaviours in diverse social contexts and equips them with the knowledge, skills, values, and attitudes required to work effectively with individuals, families, groups, and communities.

In a world increasingly shaped by globalization, urbanization, and digitalization, the BSW course emphasizes rights-based practice, social justice, inclusion, and sustainable development. It nurtures critical thinking and reflective practice, enabling students to analyse social problems, understand structural inequalities, and design appropriate interventions. Special emphasis is placed on working with marginalized and vulnerable populations such as women, children, older persons, persons with disabilities, sexual minorities, migrants, and communities affected by environmental and social injustices.

The programme integrates theoretical learning with intensive fieldwork, ensuring that students gain hands-on experience in real-life settings such as NGOs, community organizations, hospitals, schools, correctional institutions, and development agencies. This practice-oriented approach helps learners bridge the gap between theory and practice and develop professional competence, ethical sensitivity, and cultural responsiveness.

Recognizing the growing importance of mental health, digital social work, policy advocacy, environmental social work, and community resilience, the BSW course equips students with contemporary perspectives and skills relevant to modern social work practice. It also introduces students to basic social research and documentation, fostering evidence-based practice and informed decision-making.

Overall, the Bachelor of Social Work programme aims to develop socially responsible, ethically grounded, and professionally competent social work graduates who can.

Life Today: Free Book vs Free WIFI

Dr. Yamuna B. Raj
Assistant Professor, Department of Mass Communication & Journalism (UG)

In the fast-paced world we live in today, the importance of information and connectivity has reached unprecedented levels. Among the myriads of amenities and services that define modern life, the battle between freely available books and free Wi-Fi has emerged as a fascinating discussion point. Each offers unique advantages, reflecting broader societal shifts in how we consume information, learn, and connect with others.

Free books have long been heralded as gateways to knowledge and imagination. Libraries, community programs, and initiatives like Project Gutenberg have made it possible for people of all ages and backgrounds to access vast amounts of literature without any cost. The benefits of reading are manifold; it not only enhances vocabulary and improves concentration but also fosters empathy by allowing us to see the world from different perspectives. In a society increasingly dominated by digital interactions, the tactile experience of holding a book, turning its pages, and engaging in a linear narrative is irreplaceable. Moreover, reading encourages critical thinking and creativity, cultivating a more informed and imaginative populace.

On the other hand, the advent of free Wi-Fi has revolutionized the way we communicate, learn, and interact with the world. Public spaces like cafes, parks, and airports offer free internet access, effectively bridging gaps in connectivity that many face. With the internet, a world of information is at our fingertips; online courses, databases, and research materials are accessible like never before. The immediacy of information received through Wi-Fi encourages spontaneous learning and collaboration, allowing people to connect globally. In an era where knowledge is constantly evolving, having access to the latest research or news can be pivotal.

However, this reliance on Wi-Fi comes with its own set of challenges. The digital divide still exists, with many individuals lacking reliable access to the internet. Additionally, the overwhelming amount of information available online can lead to misinformation and superficial understanding, as people may skim rather than digest complex content. In contrast, books often offer depth and comprehensive insights that are sometimes lost in the rapid consumption of online information. From a social perspective, free books promote communal engagement. Book clubs and reading groups foster discussions around shared texts, building relationships and encouraging interpersonal connections. While free Wi-Fi can facilitate communication, it can also lead to isolation, encouraging individuals to engage with their devices rather than the people around them.

The irony is evident: in a world where we can connect to anyone, we often find ourselves disconnected from the immediate environments and communities in which we live. Ultimately, the choice between free books and free Wi-Fi isn't a matter of one being superior to the other but highlights the varied ways we value knowledge, connection, and personal growth. While free books encourage deep thinking and foster community, free Wi-Fi promotes accessibility and instant communication. Both are essential in their contexts and serve different but complementary purposes in the tapestry of modern life. As we move forward, it is crucial to embrace the best of both worlds encouraging reading while providing universal access to information and connectivity. Perhaps the challenge is to find a balance, where free access to books can coexist with the digital landscape created by free Wi-Fi, creating a society that values depth as much as it does accessibility. In doing so, we can cultivate a more engaged, informed, and connected world. Ultimately, "Life Today: Free Book vs Free Wi-Fi" is not about choosing one over the other. It is about balancing tradition with technology. Books remind us to slow down and think deeply; Wi-Fi urges us to connect and adapt quickly. A wise society values both, the quiet wisdom of printed pages and the dynamic energy of digital networks. Together, they shape a generation that is informed, connected, and capable of thoughtful innovation.

"Success usually comes to those who are too busy to be looking for it."

YOU GET WHAT YOU ARE

Dr. Shilpa N C
Assistant Professor
Department of MBA

For a child, life does not agree
With what is asked, but what they be;
When safety lives where hearts feel free,
Curiosity blooms gently.

As we grow, fear deep inside—
Even blessings choose to hide.
We carry our skies wherever we go;
Bright or broken in the glow.

Ambition walks with quiet claims,
Comparison fuels unseen flames.
When scarcity guides the voice we hear,
Open doors begin to disappear.

Of battles fought and traumas stored,
The body quietly keeps the score.
Yet with kind pause and gentle care,
The body softens, learns repair.

From calm, not armor, we learn to lead;
Do welcome that reflects who we are indeed.
Like children nurtured as they grow,
They bloom when hearts are held below.

As ants are drawn to sweetness true,
Choose wisely what you pursue.
For life reflects the state we are—
You get what you are!

Novel Review

Hemashree H S
Assistant Professor
Department of Criminology and Forensic Science

Tulasi Dalam: The Fine Line Between Science and Belief

Yandamuri Veerendranath's Tulasi Dalam is a remarkable novel that weaves together two completely contrasting themes black magic (vamachara) and science. While introducing the many layers of occult practices, the author powerfully shows how cruel and inhuman a person can become when their selfish and distorted mind gains support from such dark forces. At the same time, he demonstrates how science, which should be used for good, can destroy the peace of families when misused.

The novel is deeply emotional, highlighting parental love and affection. A father's desperate struggle to save his daughter touches the reader's heart, and there are several moments that bring tears to the eyes.

The story revolves around a little girl named Tulasi. A gift given by Robert becomes the cause of her life-threatening suffering. The torture inflicted on the child through Kashmora (a form of black magic ritual) makes the reader hold their breath while reading. Conflicts of belief, rejection of advice, and lack of trust among people cause Tulasi to suffer even more.

Anita falls into the trap of blind faith, while Narayana's silent love never finds expression.
Through the characters, the author shows how circumstances around a person shape their beliefs and attitudes. Sharada, who once believed in black magic, turns toward scientific thinking. On the other hand, Sridhar, who always searched for scientific explanations, ends up moving toward occult practices along with Abrakadabra. These shifts in belief add depth and intensity to the story.
To save Tulasi, each person chooses a path based on their own belief system: Dr. Parthasarathi through medicine, Jaidev and Sharada through hypnosis, Sridhar and Abrakadabra through black magic.
Is Tulasi cured because of everyone's combined efforts? Or due to the effort of just one among them? The author leaves this unanswered, pushing the reader to think. Was Tulasi pushed toward death because of black magic, or because of hypnosis? Did she recover due to science, or because the evil occult force was destroyed? The writer leaves these as unanswered, almost philosophical questions. With suspense building at every turn of the page, the novel stands out as a gripping psychological thriller.

Organic manures such as vermicompost are used as it is environment friendly alternative to commercial fertilizers as it reduces organic waste, improves soil structure and soil health, increases water retention, reduces the need for synthetic fertilizers and has climate benefits.

Experiencing a Miracle Unseen Power of Honesty

Dr Sowmya P
Assistant Professor Department of Sociology

In the rush of modern life, people often move from one responsibility to another without pausing to notice the struggles of others around them. Technology has connected the world digitally, yet genuine human connection and compassion seem to be slowly fading. In such a generation, where many hesitate to help unless there is personal benefit, this incident stood out as a beautiful example of honesty, responsibility, and humanity. What began as a normal day suddenly turned into a moment of fear and uncertainty when a laptop bag containing valuable personal and professional belongings went missing. The bag was not just an object; it carried important documents, memories, work-related materials, and a sense of security. As the realization of the loss grew stronger, worry and helplessness filled the owner's mind. Every passing minute increased anxiety, and hope slowly began to fade. In today's world, many people would assume that once something valuable is lost, it may never return.

However, destiny revealed a different side of humanity through the sincere actions of Mr. Mokhaddar Shariff C I HC 295 KRPS KR ACP Squad. Upon discovering the misplaced bag, he chose honesty over selfishness and responsibility over ignorance. Without expecting appreciation or reward, he safeguarded the bag carefully and ensured that it reached its rightful owner. His actions reflected not only professional duty but also deep human values and moral integrity.

The moment the bag was returned brought immense relief and emotional comfort to the owner. What was lost was not merely a material possession; during those tense moments, it felt as though peace of mind and trust in people had also disappeared. The return of the bag restored not only belongings but also faith in humanity. It became a reminder that kindness still survives quietly in society, even if it is rarely seen or spoken about.

In today's generation, many people are busy proving success, gaining status, and focusing only on personal achievements. Amid such lifestyles, simple acts of honesty and compassion have become uncommon. Yet, incidents like this prove that good-hearted individuals still exist people who choose to help others simply because it is the right thing to do. Such actions inspire society and encourage younger generations to value honesty, empathy, and humanity over selfishness and greed.

This incident teaches that true greatness is not measured by wealth, power, or fame, but by the goodness one shows toward others. Sometimes, even a small act of kindness can leave a lifelong impact on someone's heart. The sincerity shown by Mr. Mokhaddar Shariff became a silent lesson that humanity does not need grand speeches or heroic acts; it lives through simple gestures performed with honesty and compassion.

Moral of the Story:

In a world where genuine kindness is becoming rare, even a small act of honesty and humanity can restore hope, inspire others, and remind society that good human hearts still exist.

ಬೆಳದಿಂಗಳ ರಾತ್ರಿಯಲಿ ತಂಪಾದ ಗಾಳಿ,

ಈ ವಯಸ್ಸಿನಲಿ ಎಲ್ಲವೂ ಅತೀ ಸುಂದರ ಮಾಯೆ.
ಮಿತಿ ಇಲ್ಲದ ಆಸೆ, ಮತಿ ಇಲ್ಲದ ಹಠ,

ಇಲ್ಲದಿದ್ದರೆ ಹಾದಿ ತಪ್ಪುವ ಭೀತಿಯ ಎಲೆ.

मैं हिंदी हूँ, बोल रही हूँ मन से,
जन-मन में बसना है, चाह रही हूँ कब से।
सुन लो मुझको अपना कहने वालों,
मैं घर बनना चाहती हूँ—सबके मन से।

मैंने संस्कृत की धूप सँभाली,
लोक-बोलियों की छाँह भी पाई,
अवधी, ब्रज, भोजपुरी, उर्दू—
सबकी लय मैंने सीने से लगाई।
मैं किसी एक की बपौती नहीं,
मैं बहाव हूँ—जो सबको साथ ले चले।

मैं हिंदी हूँ, बोल रही हूँ मन से...

मुझे ऊँचा मत करो नारों में,
मुझे रोप दो बच्चों की बोली में,
जब माँ कहानी मुझमें कहे,
जब सपने जागें पहली होली में।
मैं राज नहीं, मैं रिश्ते हूँ,
मैं बात-बात में पुल बन जाऊँ।

मैं हिंदी हूँ, बोल रही हूँ मन से...

मैं विज्ञान की भाषा भी बनूँ,
मैं कविता की भी साँस बनूँ,
काग़ज़, कोड और कल्पना में
मैं सहज-सटीक विश्वास बनूँ।
अपने-अपने से आगे बढ़कर,
मुझमें आओ—मैं सबकी हूँ।
आओ मिलकर बोलें—भाषा नहीं, भाव चुनें,
हर शब्द को अपनाकर, नया विश्वास बुनें।
हिंदी बने आँगन तो, सब बोलियाँ आएँ,
प्रेम की इस धरती पर, हम सब एक हो जाएँ।

À l'occasion de la Journée internationale de la Francophonie, nous célébrons l'importance de la langue française et la riche diversité culturelle qu'elle nourrit dans les communautés du monde entier. Le 20 mars commémore la création de l'Organisation internationale de la Francophonie, en 1970, dont le Canada est membre fondateur.
La Journée de la Francophonie a été célébrée le 2 avril 2026 dans l'auditorium du collège avec beaucoup d'enthousiasme et la participation active des étudiants. L'événement visait à promouvoir la connaissance de la langue française, de la culture francophone et de la diversité mondiale.
Les invités en chef [Salva Nishath Ghori] [Lorina D'souza] ont inauguré le programme en arrosant les jeunes arbres et ont encouragé les étudiants à participer activement à de tels événements culturels. La célébration comprenait une série de concours engageants et éducatifs conçus pour encourager la participation et la créativité des étudiants.

« Un concours d'orthographe » de sorts a été organisé pour améliorer le vocabulaire français et les compétences de prononciation des étudiants. Les participants ont joué avec confiance et ont démontré leurs capacités linguistiques.
« Un concours de dessin et d'affiches » a également été organisé, offrant aux étudiants l'occasion d'exprimer leur compréhension de la Francophonie à travers l'art. Les participants ont présenté des illustrations créatives et significatives reflétant les thèmes de la culture française, de l'unité et de la diversité.
Par ailleurs, un défilé de « mode » a été organisé, où les étudiants ont exposé des costumes inspirés de la mode française et des pays francophones. L'événement a mis en valeur la créativité, la confiance et l'appréciation culturelle, ce qui en fait une attraction majeure du programme.
Il convient de noter que les étudiants ont participé activement aux activités préparatoires pendant deux jours avant l'événement, contribuant ainsi de manière significative à son exécution fluide et réussie.
Les lauréats ont été appréciés et récompensés pour leurs performances exceptionnelles.
Dans l'ensemble, la célébration de la Journée de la Francophonie a été un grand succès. Cela a non seulement amélioré les connaissances des étudiants sur la langue et la culture françaises, mais a également encouragé la créativité, le travail d'équipe et la participation. Le déjeuner fut servi puisqu'immédiatement, et il était tout simplement délicieux. Les traditions françaises

Les traditions françaises tissent un lien entre historie, costumes et amour de la fête, reflétant une nation qui valorise à la fois la grandeur et la simplicité. Geste culturel emblématique, la bise, un léger baiser sur les deux jours, est un symbole de chaleur et de familiarité. Des célébrations nationales comme le 14 juillet marquent la Revolution française par des feux d'artifice éblouissants, des défiles militaires et une ferveur patriotique. Noël en France transforme les villes en un enchantement hivernal, avec ses charmants marchés, ses patinoires, et ses festines festifs mettant en vedette des délices comme le foie gras et la buche de Noël.
Pâques, joyeuse fête, est célébrée avec des chasses aux œufs sculptures en chocolat élaborées par des maîtres chocolatiers. L'une des traditions uniques des France, la Journée du Beaujolais Nouveau, qui a lieu chaque année en novembre, marque la sortie du premier vin de l'année dans un esprit de fête et de convivialité.

LIEUX HISTORIQUES EN FRANCE

La France est un musée vivant, un pays où l'histoire est gravée dans son architecture, ses rues et ses paysages. La Tour Eiffel, merveille d'ingénierie, est le symbole ultime de l'innovation et du romantisme attirant des millions de visiteurs chaque année. Le château de Versailles extravagante de Louis XIV, fascine par sa galerie des glaces et ses jardins minutieusement sculptés.
La cathédrale Notre-Dame, symbole de l'architecture gothique, a traversé des siècles de triomphes et de tragédies. Surgissant des flots, le Mont-Saint-Michel paraît presque mythique, son monastère médiéval offrant une vue imprenable sur le littéral Normand. Le Louvre, qui abrite l'énigmatique Joconde de Léonard de Vinci, témoigne de l'héritage artistique du pays Le château de Chambord, chef-d'œuvre de l'architecture Renaissance, révèle l'ingéniosité et l'opulence de l'artisanat français.

STEREOTYPES

La France est souvent encombrée de clichés, certains fondés, Nes d'autres exagères Les Français sont perçus comme naturellement chics, mais tout le monde ne porte pas de vêtements de haute couture. L'image de ces Français portant baguettes et sirotant du vin toute la journée est charmante, mais surfaite, ce sont des éléments culturels de base, et des accessoires du quotidien Mythe est leur impolitesse supposée : s'ils apprécient la politesse, ils apprécient que les visiteurs s'essayent à un français basique. Ces stéréotypes, bien qu'amusants ne font qu'effleurer la richesse et la diversité de la culture française

Reportage sur les plats français.
ALLER À LA BRIOCHE DOREE, À MYSORE.

Tache : Essayer les plats français au restaurant ou café.

Le week-end dernier, j'ai eu l'occasion de découvrir Brioche Dorée, un café-restaurant à la française situé en plein cœur de Mysore. L'endroit offrait une atmosphère chaleureuse et élégante, avec un éclairage tamisé, des tables soigneusement disposées et un doux parfum de pain frais. Une musique française et anglaise diffusée en sourdine contribuait à l'authenticité du lieu. J'ai décidé de goûter deux plats de leur carte : un croissant classique et un pain perdu à l'avocat. Le croissant était servi chaud, et dès la première bouchée, j'ai senti les fines couches feuilletées se briser à la perfection. Il était beurré, léger et fondait littéralement dans la bouche, me rappelant les viennoiseries traditionnelles françaises dont j'avais seulement entendu parler. Le pain perdu à l'avocat était une version originale d'un classique. Le pain était moelleux à l'intérieur et légèrement croustillant à l'extérieur. Il était garni de tranches d'avocat frais et onctueuses, d'un filet de vinaigrette légère et d'une pincée d'herbes aromatiques. L'association des saveurs était à la fois rafraîchissante et gourmande, ce qui en faisait un choix idéal pour un brunch. Ce que j'ai le plus apprécié chez Brioche Dorée, c'est le soin apporté à la présentation et au goût. Les plats étaient magnifiquement présentés, le personnel était aimable et attentionné, et l'ambiance générale en faisait un lieu agréable pour se détendre et savourer un repas.

CONCLUSION :

Ma visite chez Brioche Dorée a été une expérience agréable et mémorable. J'ai non seulement pu déguster d'authentiques saveurs françaises, mais aussi découvrir le charme de la culture des cafés français ici même à Mysore. Je recommande vivement cet endroit à tous ceux qui souhaitent explorer la gastronomie française sans avoir à voyager loin

POULET À LA CREME.

Le poulet à la crème est un plat classique de la cuisine française, popularisé par le chef Jacques Pépin. Le poulet à la crème présenté ci-dessus est une recette arubaise. Voici les ingrédients utilisés :

- Poulet
- Crème
- Beurre
- Poivre
- Sel
- Oignon
- Persil
- Assaisonnement

Pour la préparation,

J'ai d'abord fait fondre le beurre dans une poêle, puis j'y ai fait revenir le poulet jusqu'à ce qu'il soit doré. J'ai ensuite ajouté l'oignon haché et j'ai poursuivi le tout.Après quelques minutes de cuisson, j'ai ajouté la crème, le sel et le poivre, et j'ai remué encore quelques minutes. Mon plat était alors prêt ; je l'ai donc transféré dans une assiette et décoré pour le rendre plus savoureux.

Voici quelques points positifs concernant celui-ci :

Le poulet était incroyablement tendre.

Avec seulement quelques ingrédients, il offre un résultat digne d'un restaurant. Il est parfait pour les réunions de famille, les dîners romantiques ou les occasions spéciales. Ce plat était légèrement sucré grâce à la crème. Il est très rapide à préparer et permet un gain de temps considérable. La sauce à la crème enrobait parfaitement chaque morceau de poulet, lui conférant une saveur exquise. Il est du plus bel effet dans l'assiette. Son parfum est tout simplement divin pendant la cuisson. Cuit dans une seule poêle, il y a donc moins de vaisselle à laver ensuite. La crème apporte de l'onctuosité au plat. Sa saveur douce et onctueuse est un vrai régal, sans être trop complexe. Ce plat français nous offre un petit coin de France à table.

Mon expérience personnelle après avoir dégusté le Poulet à la crème a été tout simplement merveilleuse : on se sent à la fois bien et rassasié. La sauce onctueuse et le poulet tendre rendent ce plat absolument délicieux. Je le referai sans hésiter. On se croirait en France en le savourant. Le goût est resté en bouche même après la dernière bouchée, et j'y repensais encore. De plus, c'était un vrai gain de temps, car il était prêt en quelques minutes. Je l'ai partagé avec mes parents et mon frère, qui l'ont beaucoup apprécié. Honnêtement, dès la première bouchée, j'ai trouvé que ça ressemblait à la garniture d'un shawarma, le goût étant similaire. En résumé, c'était une expérience inoubliable. Voilà qui conclut mon compte-rendu du Poulet à la crème.

The Grandeur and Gravity of Society

Muskan Soofi D
4th Sem, BA - ENSPY

Society, in its most resplendent form, stands as an intricate tapestry woven from the aspirations, values, and collective consciousness of humanity. It is neither a mere congregation of individuals nor a mechanical structure of institutions, but rather a living organism—dynamic, evolving, and profoundly reflective of the human condition. Within its refined framework, order and chaos coexist, shaping civilizations through an unspoken covenant of coexistence and mutual dependence. At its core, society is governed by an implicit code of civility, decorum, and ethical restraint, which elevates human interaction beyond primal instinct into the realm of cultivated existence. The refinement of language, the elegance of customs, and the sophistication of governance are not accidental embellishments, but deliberate manifestations of humanity's perennial quest for harmony and excellence. Indeed, the grandeur of society lies in its ability to transform individual ambition into collective progress, thereby forging a legacy that transcends generations. Yet, beneath this polished veneer resides a subtle tension a perpetual negotiation between individuality and conformity. Society demands allegiance to its norms, while simultaneously nurturing the spirit of innovation and dissent. This delicate equilibrium is what sustains its vitality; for without conformity, there is no order, and without individuality, there is no progress. Thus, society emerges not as a rigid construct, but as a fluid symphony of diverse voices, each contributing to the orchestration of a greater whole. Society is not a static entity, but a perpetual process of living a motion rather than a mere structure. At its essence lies a system of social relationships, defined not simply by interaction, but by reciprocal awareness among individuals. This mutual consciousness, whether direct or indirect, is the defining hallmark of all true social bonds. It is through such interconnected awareness that individuals find meaning, identity, and a profound sense of belonging within the larger collective. Ultimately, society stands as the grand stage upon which humanity asserts its purpose, negotiates its values, and defines its destiny. It is both a mirror and a maker of human existence—reflecting who we are, while simultaneously shaping who we may become. To exist within society is not a passive condition, but a solemn responsibility; a call to uphold its dignity, challenge its imperfections, and contribute to its enduring legacy. In its highest form, society is not merely lived it is consciously elevated, deliberately refined, and boldly reimagined as the ultimate testament to human potential.

"Choosing Hope, One Day at a Time"

Mary Cleta Evangaleen P
1st BA (CFS, PSY, JOUR)

Life as a student is a beautiful journey, but it is not always easy. Some days are full of confidence and laughter, while other days feel heavy for no clear reason. Feeling stressed, confused, or emotionally tired is more common than we admit, and it happens even to the strongest people. Many of us learn to hide our struggles behind smiles. We tell ourselves to "be strong," to "adjust," or to "not make it a big deal." But emotions don't disappear when ignored they quietly wait to be understood. What truly helps during such moments is connection. A friend who listens patiently. A mentor who believes in us. A space where we feel accepted, not judged. These small acts of care remind us that we are not alone, even on difficult days. Student life gives us opportunities to grow beyond academics. It teaches us teamwork, empathy, self-awareness, and resilience. Through shared experiences, activities, conversations, and guidance, we slowly learn how to handle both success and struggle. Choosing to talk, to pause, and to take care of our mental well-being is a sign of maturity, not weakness. Every life has meaning. Every person matters. And every low phase is Hope doesn't always arrive loudly. Sometimes, it comes quietly through understanding, support, and the belief that tomorrow can be better than today.

"Misplaced"

I am not lost.
Lost people search wildly,
turning corners with panic in their hands.
I know exactly where I am.
The floor beneath me is familiar.
The walls have names.

I am just in the wrong room for my kind of breathing.

The conversations move fast—sentences sprinting toward outcomes, voices stacked with certainty.
The ambitions are loud,
measured in numbers, timelines,
neatly framed versions of success.

The milestones arrive with instructions I didn't read, or maybe read once
and quietly set aside.

I nod. I function.
I smile at the right moments.
I pass as present,
like someone who learned the choreography
but not the reason for the dance.

Inside, my thoughts sit elsewhere,
leaning against unfinished ideas,
holding questions that don't belong here, listening for a frequency
this room doesn't carry.

It's not confusion. I'm not unsure.
It's mismatch— a persistent awareness that my edges don't align with this shape.

Like a book shelved correctly, alphabetized, dusted, approved—
but placed in the wrong genre, waiting to be read
by the wrong kind of reader.

I don't need a map.
I don't need directions shouted louder.
I need a different context—
a place where my silence makes sense, where my pace isn't mistaken for delay, where breathing feels natural instead of negotiated.

"After the Bell"

The bell rings and everyone leaves with relief, like air escaping a sealed room—
laughing, stretching, already elsewhere.

I stay.
The benches don't question me.
They've held worse silences.
The board still carries yesterday's half-erased sentences, ghosts of answers that mattered once,
now smudged into almosts.

Chalk dust floats,
suspended, undecided,
as if it forgot
what it was meant to settle on.

The windows hum with traffic, life continuing without asking if I'm ready to rejoin it.

Nothing happens.
That's the point.

My bag is packed—
zippers closed, books aligned, everything pretending to be prepared—but my head isn't.
It's still mid-thought, mid-doubt,
mid-what-am-I-doing-with-all-this.

Time slows down
out of politeness,
like it doesn't want to interrupt
whatever is quietly collapsing inside me.

I sit in the aftermath of learning,
where no one is grading presence,
where attendance doesn't matter,
where even effort is quiet and ambition takes a seat beside me without speaking.

For a few minutes
I am not a student,
not a future being discussed,
not an expectation
wearing borrowed confidence.

I am just weight—breathing, thinking, existing—occupying a chair
in a room that has already moved on, after the bell has done its job and left me to finish mine.

“Every day, Her Eyes”

Every day, she sends me snaps of herself—not her smile, not her voice, not the kind of things people show when they want to be seen.
No, she sends me her eyes.
And I swear, they're enough.
They arrive on my screen like secrets,
like the universe letting me peek into something forbidden.
Two dark oceans,
two galaxies spun into silence,
two truths I've been waiting all my life to find.
I linger on them—
the curve of her lashes,
the way light rests differently each time,
sometimes like dawn, sometimes like midnight rain.
Her eyes don't just look, they speak—and I've been learning their language one snap at a time. One pic at a time.
I love her,
but what I feel for her eyes alone is something beyond love.
They hold weight,
they hold the kind of quiet that shatters you and rebuilds you at once.
They undo me. They anchor me.
I imagine waking up tomorrow,
and the day after,
and every day after that—turning, before the alarm, before the rush of hours, and finding them right there beside me.
Her eyes opening into mine,
like morning belongs to us
and no one else.
I don't dream of palaces or forever promises.
I dream of this simple thing—
to wake each day,
to the gaze that already owns me.
If the world could strip me bare,
leave me with nothing but air in my lungs,
I would still ask for her eyes. Her gaze.
Because in them,
I've found everything worth staying alive for.

"The Yellow Room"

I found it on a rainy day,
at the end of a quiet hall.
Its door creaked open,
revealing walls of soft yellow.

–as if time had paused inside.

The walls were yellow,
soft like the morning sun,
and the air felt still,
as if time had paused inside.

By the window,
I watched raindrops race,
each one carrying a memory,
a life I once knew.

The walls were yellow,
soft like the morning sun,
and the air felt still,
as if time had paused inside.

When I left,
the yellow followed,
settling in the cracks of my heart,
a quiet reminder of what I'd lost.

"Almost With You"

I would love to walk you through the flowers—
holding your hands,
making sure your feet don't hurt.

I would love to show you the moon—
tell her you're even prettier, just to make the stars jealous of your beauty.

Oh heavens, I would love to love you like no one else ever could—but fate had other plans.
I may never be with you,
but maybe, just maybe,
if I get the chance to be with you—
I would lovingly treat you like a goddess.

"Failure Is Not a Full Stop"

Failure is commonly treated as an ending. Within academic and social frameworks that prioritize linear progress, it is seen as a point of termination rather than a stage within a larger process. A failed examination, an interrupted degree, or an unrealized plan is often interpreted as proof that something essential has gone wrong. The language surrounding failure reinforces this belief, framing it as a conclusion instead of a condition. This perception, however, misunderstands the role failure plays in intellectual and personal development. Failure does not halt growth by itself; it merely disrupts momentum. What makes it feel final is the meaning imposed upon it. When progress is expected to be seamless, any deviation appears irreversible. As a result, failure is internalized as personal inadequacy rather than recognized as part of learning.

In academic spaces, this internalization is especially pronounced. Students are trained to associate performance with worth, turning outcomes into identities. A setback becomes less about what went wrong and more about who they believe they are. This shift is dangerous, not because failure is painful, but because it discourages reflection. When failure is treated as a verdict, curiosity is replaced with caution, and learning becomes secondary to self-protection. Yet failure often provides what success cannot. Success confirms existing methods; failure questions them. It reveals limitations, challenges assumptions, and exposes paths chosen without intention. In doing so, it forces clarity. While uncomfortable, this clarity allows reassessment and redirection, processes essential to meaningful progress.

The fear of failure also produces an unintended consequence: stagnation. In trying to avoid mistakes, individuals choose safety over sincerity. Goals become externally driven, shaped more by expectation than interest. Over time, this avoidance leads to disengagement, a quiet dissatisfaction masked by productivity. Failure disrupts this illusion, not as punishment, but as interruption. What follows failure determines its significance. One response is withdrawal, marked by shame and disengagement. Another is examination— an honest evaluation of approach, direction, and intention. The difference lies not in resilience as a trait, but in interpretation. A full stop ends a sentence. A pause allows it to continue with revision.

Failure does not negate effort, nor does it define capability. It does not erase potential unless it is allowed to. Instead, it creates space— space to question, to recalibrate, and to move forward with greater awareness than before. In this sense, failure is not an ending. It is part of the process of becoming deliberate. Failure is not a full stop. It is where the sentence continues, changed but not concluded.

"Why Writing Still Matters in a World of Scrolling"

We live in a time where information moves faster than understanding. Screens reward speed, reaction, and constant stimulation, while writing asks for something increasingly rare: sustained attention. In comparison to scrolling, writing appears inefficient, even outdated. But that apparent inefficiency is precisely what gives writing its relevance.

Writing is not simply a method of communication. It is a cognitive process. To write is to slow thought down, to test it, to structure it, and to take responsibility for it. Scrolling allows ideas to pass through us; writing forces us to sit with them. It demands that we decide what we actually mean, not just what we feel in the moment. Most digital content thrives on immediacy. It aims to provoke, to entertain, or to be consumed quickly before the next thing appears. Writing operates differently. It allows complexity. It holds a contradiction. It creates space for argument, nuance, and revision. A written idea can be returned to, questioned, and refined. A scrolled idea is usually forgotten the moment it is replaced.

This distinction matters. Societies do not build themselves on reactions. They are built on recorded thought. Laws, philosophies, literature, and political movements survive because they were written. Trends disappear. Words remain. For college students, writing is more than an academic requirement. It is a discipline that shapes thinking itself. Writing teaches coherence in a world that rewards fragmentation. It trains students to connect ideas, defend positions, and recognize gaps in their own reasoning. A student who can write clearly is not just expressing intelligence; they are practicing it.

Beyond classrooms, writing remains a marker of credibility. In professional spaces, clear writing signals clarity of thought and seriousness of intent. In personal spaces, it becomes a way to process experience rather than escape it. Writing allows individuals to confront uncertainty instead of scrolling past it. This is not an argument against technology. Digital platforms are not the enemy. The problem is not speed, but the absence of depth. Writing reintroduces depth where attention has thinned. It resists the pressure to react instantly and instead insists on reflection.

The continued relevance of writing does not lie in nostalgia. It lies in necessity. As long as humans need to explain themselves, challenge ideas, preserve memory, and imagine alternatives, writing will remain essential. Not because it competes with scrolling, but because it does what scrolling cannot. It slows the mind enough to think. And in an age that rarely pauses, that may be its most radical function.

"Finding a Reason, Not Just a Pulse"

The mystery of human existence lies not in staying alive, but in finding something worth living for. Yet most of us are taught the opposite.

From childhood, survival is glorified. Score well. Stay safe. Don't fail. Don't fall behind. Don't ask questions that don't have answers. Life becomes a checklist: education, job, stability, marriage, retirement, as if breathing alone justifies existence. As if a functioning heartbeat equals a meaningful life. But it doesn't. Staying alive is biological. Living is intentional. Every day, we are surrounded by people who are technically alive but internally absent. They move, talk, work, laugh but… something within them has clocked out. Not because they are weak, but because no one ever told them that it is allowed; necessary, even to search for a reason beyond survival. A reason doesn't have to be grand. It doesn't need applause or validation. It doesn't have to make sense to society. Sometimes it's art. Sometimes it's service. Sometimes it's a question that refuses to leave you alone. Sometimes it's anger at how broken things are. Sometimes it's love. Sometimes it's simply the refusal to become numb.

The tragedy is not death. The tragedy is a life lived without urgency, without curiosity, without hunger. We are taught to fear failure more than emptiness. But emptiness is far more dangerous. Failure can teach you something. Emptiness teaches you nothing, it only expands. Finding something to live for is uncomfortable. It demands honesty… the kind that forces you to admit when the life you are chasing isn't yours, when the dreams you defend don't belong to you, when the path feels safe but soulless. That admission alone requires courage most people are never encouraged to develop. A reason to live for does not arrive like a miracle. It is built— slowly, painfully, stubbornly. Through choices that don't always look successful. Through passions that don't always pay. Through questions that don't always resolve. Often through failure. Sometimes through loneliness. Almost always through sitting with yourself when distractions stop working. The point of existence is not perfection. It is direction. To live for something is to wake up knowing why you tolerate the weight of being alive. It is to accept struggle without glorifying suffering. It is to move forward not because life is easy, but because it is yours. "Meaning, however, comes with a cost." Choosing a reason does not make life lighter; often, it makes it heavier. Once you know what you live for, indifference becomes impossible. You start noticing what drains you, what distracts you, what pulls you away from yourself. Ignorance is comfortable. Awareness is exhausting.

This is why many people stop searching halfway: because searching demands responsibility. The moment you admit you want more more meaning, more truth, more depth, you also admit that passivity is no longer an option. You either move toward that reason, or you consciously betray it. And self-betrayal is quiet and corrosive. It doesn't explode. It erodes. There will be days when your reason feels distant. Days when it feels foolish. Days when it feels like a burden you wish you had never picked up. But even then, it offers something survival never can: honesty. You know why you are tired. You know why you are restless. You know why you are still here. A life lived for something is not always happy but, it is awake. Not a perfect life. Not an easy one. Just a conscious one. Because when the noise fades and the checklists lose their meaning, the only question that remains is not how long you lived but whether you ever showed up for the reason you claimed was worth it. Finding something to live for is not romantic. It rarely arrives with clarity. It often begins as discomfort, an itch you can't ignore, a thought that won't shut up, a dissatisfaction no achievement can silence. It may look like failure. It may isolate you. It will almost certainly confuse those who have already accepted their cages.

But it will be yours. Failure is survivable. Confusion is survivable. Being misunderstood is survivable. Living without a reason slowly kills you while keeping you alive. We romanticize success, but avoid the truth behind it: those who truly live for something had to unlearn obedience first. They had to sit with uncertainty. They had to disappoint someone. They had to choose direction over approval. The point of being human is not to arrive at a flawless destination. It is to move with intention. To know why you wake up. To tolerate suffering because it is tied to something you believe in, not because you were too afraid to choose otherwise. In the end, staying alive will happen whether you care or not. Biology handles that. Meaning doesn't. Meaning demands courage. Meaning demands honesty. Meaning demands that you stop asking, "What should I do?" and start asking, "What do I refuse to abandon?"

That is the real mystery of human existence. Not how long we live. Not how safely we survive. But whether we ever find the nerve to decide what makes all of this worth enduring. And if that question makes you uncomfortable— good. That discomfort is proof that you are not done yet.

"The Economy of Hunger"

"ಬೆದಕಾಟ ಬದುಕೆಲ್ಲ ಚಣಚಣವು ಹೊಸ ಹಸಿವು" Life, at every second, invents a new hunger. D. V. Gundappa, through Mankutimma's Kagga, does not describe poverty. He describes restlessness— the permanent condition of the human mind. Hunger here is not emptiness; it is excess. Excess wanting. Excess thinking. Excess chasing. We are born into a bargain we never signed. Live— and you must want. Want— and you must keep wanting. "ಅದಕಾಗಿ ಇದಕಾಗಿ ಮತ್ತೊಂದಕಾಗಿ" For this. For that. For something else.

Notice how the line refuses to name the object of desire. Because it doesn't matter. The object keeps changing, but the structure of craving remains intact. Today it is marks. Tomorrow a job. Then a promotion. Then recognition. Then relevance. Then immortality in memory. Hunger is efficient. It always finds a new costume. DVG saw this long before deadlines, LinkedIn, or algorithmic validation. He understood that the real battlefield is not outside, it is the mind that refuses to stay still. "ಅಧಿಕಾರ ಸಿರಿ ಸೊಗಸು ಕೀರ್ತಿಗಳ ನೆನೆದು ಮನ" Power. Wealth. Beauty. Fame. These four are not villains. They are mirrors. What we seek in them is not the thing itself, but a feeling: control, security, desirability, remembrance. The tragedy is that none of them last long enough to hold the mind at rest. So the mind boils, "ಮನ ಕುದಿಯುತಿಹುದಾವಗಂ" A boiling mind is not a weak mind. It is an untrained one.

Another Kagga quietly deepens this idea: "ಹಸಿವಿಗೆ ತುತ್ತು ಸಾಲದು, ತುತ್ತಿಗೆ ಹಸಿವು ಸಾಲದು" Food is never enough for hunger; hunger is never satisfied by food. DVG isn't pessimistic. He is precise. Fulfilment is not proportional to acquisition. More does not mean full. Often, it means louder emptiness. Look around. We live in the most convenient era humanity has known, yet dissatisfaction has become a personality trait. We scroll not because we are curious, but because silence scares us. We stay busy not because work is sacred, but because stillness asks questions we have no answers for. Students today are trained early in this economy of hunger. Compete. Compare. Upgrade. Achieve. Repeat. Even failure is monetized as "motivation." Even rest is productive only if it improves performance. DVG would probably smile sadly at this.

Another Kagga reminds us: "ಬದುಕಿನ ಗತಿ ತಿಳಿಯದ ಮನಸು, ಗುರಿಯೆಂದೇ ಗುರಿಯನ್ನೇ ಹೊಡೆದು ಬಡೀತು" A mind that does not understand the nature of life keeps mistaking goals for meaning and, hurts itself chasing them. This is not an argument against ambition. It is an argument against blind ambition. Ambition without awareness turns life into a never-ending audition. One where the applause is delayed forever. What DVG offers is not escape, but clarity. Hunger will come. Desire will rise. The mind will race. But wisdom lies in knowing which hunger deserves to be fed. Perhaps that is why Mankutimma's Kagga endures. It doesn't promise peace. It teaches perspective. It tells us that the greatest luxury is not success but… a mind that doesn't boil at every passing want.

In a world addicted to more, DVG quietly asks us a dangerous question: What if enough is not failure— but freedom? And maybe that question is still too radical for our time.

"Manners Maketh Human: A Timeless Truth"

In a world where achievements are celebrated, behaviour is often ignored. You know that moment when you're rushing to your 9 a.m. lecture, sleep-deprived, caffeine-dependent, and already late. Your backpack is overstuffed, one strap threatening to snap. Just as you reach the library door, someone holds it open for an extra second so it doesn't slam into you. It's a tiny act. Barely noticeable. But somehow, it changes your entire morning. Suddenly, the world feels a little less hostile and a little more human.

That's the thing about "Manners Maketh Human." The proverb sounds stiff and ancient, like something your grandfather would needlepoint onto a pillow. It feels distant from our fast, chaotic, Wi-Fi-dependent campus lives. But strip away the old-fashioned phrasing, and you'll find something startlingly alive and desperately relevant right here, right now. Here's the magic no one tells you: every time you choose kindness over convenience, you're not just being nice to someone else you're building yourself.

A Small Moment That Changed Everything:
I still remember my first presentation on stage. I was terrified of public speaking, heart racing, voice shaking, mind going blank. After I had awkwardly mumbled a point during a tutorial, a batch mate I barely knew turned to me and said, "That's a really interesting point." That was it. No grand speech. No dramatic encouragement. Just a simple acknowledgment. But that small sentence gave me the courage to keep trying. It made me feel seen. That batch mate was practicing manners, not the formal kind, but the kind that quietly builds people up. The kind that leaves a lasting impact without demanding credit.

What Manners Really Mean: Beyond "Please" and "Thank You":
We often confuse manners with etiquette. Etiquette is knowing which fork to use at a formal dinner. Manners are making sure the person sitting next to you feels comfortable, whether that's at a fancy event or in the campus canteen. Manners are about one simple but powerful idea: consideration for others. It's listening attentively in class, not only to professors, but also to classmates sharing their perspectives. It's valuing someone else's time and contribution during seminar discussions or group project meetings.

It's holding the door for someone juggling books, lowering your voice in library silent zones, or checking in on a roommate who's clearly having a rough week. It's recognizing the human being behind every interaction. Manners also mean being aware of how your behaviour, your volume, your punctuality, your mess affects the shared environment. College is a community, and every small action either strengthens or strains that community.

Manners in the Digital Age

We've all seen it, the brutal comment under a post, the passive-aggressive subtweet, the careless tag meant as a joke. Thinking twice before you post or tag someone isn't censorship. It's awareness. What feels funny to you at 2 a.m. might be deeply embarrassing or hurtful to someone else in the cold light of day. Digital manners matter just as much as face-to-face ones. Screens don't erase consequences. Words still land. Feelings still get bruised. Choosing empathy online is just another way of choosing respect.

Is Politeness Just Pretending?
Sometimes, "being polite" feels like wearing a mask. There's pressure to be always nice, always calm, always agreeable, and that can feel exhausting and dishonest. But true manners aren't about hiding your feelings. They're about choosing your impact. You can be furious with a teammate and still say, "I'm really frustrated about this. Can we talk about a solution?" instead of exploding in the group chat. That's not fake, but mature. You can disagree passionately during a debate and still say, "I understand your point, but here's where I see it differently." That's not weakness; that's strength. It means your ideas are confident enough to stand beside others without having to demolish them. Good manners create safe spaces were real, messy, honest conversations can actually happen.
The Hidden Curriculum of College Life:
Here's the truth they don't print in the course catalog: while you're here studying economics, literature, management, or engineering, you're also studying yourself. College is a two-year workshop. Every interaction is raw material.

The person you're becoming, the future professional, partner, friend, and leader is being shaped late at night in the library, in coffee shop queues, during tense group projects, and in awkward dorm-room conversations. Your GPA matters. Your degree matters. But so does the way you treat people when you're stressed, tired, or under pressure. Those moments reveal who you are when no one is grading you.

Manners Don't Make Robots; They Make Leaders:
"Manners maketh man" is not about creating perfectly polished, identical individuals. It's about forging people who are strong enough to be kind, confident enough to be humble, and self-aware enough to make others feel valued. In a world that often rewards loudness over listening and speed over thoughtfulness, choosing manners is a quiet act of courage. It's choosing humanity over ego.

The Choice That Shapes You:
So, the next time you're faced with a choice… to hold the door or let it swing shut, to send the thoughtful message or the curt one, to listen or to wait for your turn to speak, remember this: You're not just deciding what to do. You're deciding who you are becoming. And that, more than any degree, more than any placement package, is the final product of your education. After all, the greatest mark you'll leave on this world won't be a grade or a title— it'll be the way you made people feel.

Let's make something beautiful

"The Purpose of Life – A Cosmic Recipe"

Life, as we know it, is a riddle that countless minds have tried to solve, yet the ultimate purpose often remains elusive. But if there's one universal truth, it's this- no one is born without a cause. Just as every dish requires the right ingredients to achieve its perfect flavour, every life has a purpose that contributes to the greater balance of the world.

Consider a simple meal. The chef, let's call them the almighty, carefully selects and blends spices, salt, pepper, vegetables, and herbs. Each ingredient, no matter how small or seemingly insignificant, has a role to play. When each serves its purpose, the final dish is a masterpiece. But when even one element fails to do its part, the meal is incomplete, or worse, ruined. Now imagine the world as that dish, and humanity as its ingredient. Each one of us, no matter how unnoticed or minor we feel, carries a unique essence. Some of us may be like the bold spices, recognized and celebrated. Others, like the curry leaf, may be set aside on the plate, overlooked, yet vital to the overall flavour. Without those hidden contributors, the dish loses its depth, its character. And so, without each of us fulfilling our destined purpose, the world loses its delicate balance.

But how do we discover our purpose in this grand recipe of life? Nature, the greatest guide, offers us the answers. She speaks to us through subtle whispers— moments when we feel drawn to something, a sense of flow that tells us, "This is where I belong." These are not coincidences; they are the universe aligning us with our purpose. The connection of our mind with nature— this is the key to understanding our role. In a world that often feels overwhelming, it's easy to feel insignificant or hopeless, but never lose hope or think of giving up. Just as every ingredient has a purpose, so does every human being. When life feels tough, just ask yourself, "Why am I here?" You have a unique role in the world's balance, and you can be the best version of yourself. Trust in nature's guidance and find your place in this cosmic recipe. No matter how small or grand, your purpose contributes to something greater. You are essential to a design the world cannot do without.

Trust me!!!

“You Are My Sunshine.”

You are my sunshine,
I am your raindrop.
Together, we create a beautiful rainbow.
But if we drift apart,
I'll fall on the ground and shatter into pieces.
Stay with me, and let's paint the sky with love and colour forever.

I know you want me,
I see it in your eyes,
but something holds you back beneath the skies.
It's the first step that feels so hard to take,
a quiet fear, a fragile heart at stake.
Unsure if you should drive or let it show, but in this pause, there's magic waiting there,
for when you leap, our love will fill the air.....

But I believe that's not the fight.
Blending isn't the goal we chase,
I'll guard you from above,
no harm in place.

We may not merge, but that's alright,
I'll protect you day and night,
and together, we'll shine
in our own light.

I rushed with joy to greet the day,
to find you near, yet you'd slipped away, but in a heartbeat, there you were,
a morning wish, a gentle stir.
Not just words, but warmth divine,
a pleasure deep, a hidden sigh,
in every greeting, soft and true,
a silent bond connects us two.
I wail for thee, a dream so bright, when your morning wish will come in rhyme and light,
in poetic lines so pure and clear,
to start each day with you near.

"Why?"

Why am I always called weak?
Why am I forbidden to go on the journey that I seek?
Why should I be loyal when you cheat?
Why was I gifted a doll?
when my brother was given a ball?
All I can do is ask why and helplessly cry!

Why should I not wear trousers?
Am I considered dignified only when I wear pink blouses?
Why frocks and not shirts? Why not shorts, why only skirts?
Why am I not appreciated for the work I do?
All I can do is ask why and helplessly cry!

Why do I need a man to save me from a man?
Why is 'Man' the definition of our clan?
When questions are asked, problems arise;
when unseen and unspoken, our girl praises,
All I can do is ask why and helplessly cry!

I can speak better, I am much stronger,
If you hadn't torn my wings, I would fly,
I would be in the bright, blue sky.
All I can do is ask why and helplessly cry!

"India- A Land of Heritage & Culture"

A nation's identity is not built merely on its geographical boundaries or economic strength, but on the richness of its heritage and the depth of its culture. A land of heritage and culture stands as a living museum, where the past and present walk hand in hand, shaping the values, traditions, and aspirations of its people. Such a land does not simply preserve history in books or monuments; it breathes history through its customs, language, art forms, and everyday life.

Heritage is the collective memory of a civilization. It includes monuments, architecture, literature, philosophy, and age-old traditions that have been passed down from one generation to another. These are not just remains of the past, but guiding lights for the future. Ancient temples, forts, palaces, and historical cities remind us of the vision, skill, and wisdom of those who came before us. They tell stories of courage, creativity, devotion, and sacrifice, and they continue to inspire respect and pride in the minds of people today. Preserving heritage, therefore, is not an act of recollection, but a responsibility toward history and future generations. Culture, on the other hand, is the living expression of a society. It is reflected in language, food habits, clothes, festivals, music, dance, and social values. A culturally rich land is marked by diversity and harmony, where different traditions coexist and enrich one another.

This diversity does not weaken national unity; instead, it strengthens it by teaching people the values of tolerance, respect, and mutual understanding. Cultural practices give meaning to everyday life and create a sense of belonging among individuals, connecting them to their roots while helping them adapt to changing times.
One of the most remarkable aspects of a land of heritage and culture is its ability to balance tradition with progress. While science and technology drive modern development, cultural wisdom provides moral direction. Traditional knowledge systems, ethical values, and community practices continue to play a vital role in shaping responsible citizens. In this way, heritage and culture do not stand in opposition to modernity; rather, they complement it by ensuring that development remains humane and inclusive. Moreover, heritage and culture also contribute significantly to education and character-building. They teach patience, discipline, respect for elders, and a sense of duty toward society. Through stories, art, and historical examples, young minds learn about perseverance, leadership, and social responsibility. This cultural foundation helps individuals grow not only as skilled professionals but also as thoughtful and ethical human beings. In today's globalized world, cultural identity has become even more important. While international influences bring new ideas and opportunities, they can also lead to the weakening of local traditions if not approached carefully. A land that values its heritage and cultural exchange, when rooted in self-respect, becomes a source of strength rather than loss.

In conclusion, a land of heritage and culture is more than just a place on the map; it is a civilization in motion. Its monuments speak of history, its traditions reflect wisdom, and its culture gives life its colour and meaning. By preserving heritage and nurturing culture, a nation safeguards its soul. It ensures that progress does not erase identity and that the future remains firmly connected to the values of the past. Such a land does not merely exist, it inspires, educates, and endures.

THE SCIENCE OF "WHY"?

Why is "WHY"? such a big deal? Well, when you understand the reason behind something, it can completely change your perspective. Instead of just going through the motions, you start making informed decisions and taking purposeful actions. Our brains are naturally wired to seek answers, find patterns, and make sense of the world around us. Understanding the "WHY"? gives us clarity, confidence, and a sense of control it's like saying, "Oh, I get it now!" Asking "WHY"?? pushes us to think deeper, question assumptions, and explore the true reasons behind things. It fuels curiosity, drives learning, and helps us grow both personally and intellectually. In the end, "WHY"? isn't just a question it's the spark that leads to discovery and understanding.
The question "WHY"? is what makes people think of ideas and come up with new things. Every big discovery started with someone asking "WHY"? Scientists want to know about the universe and artists want to know about people's feelings. When people ask "WHY"? they want to know the reasons for things. This is what has made societies better and changed the way we live. When people stop asking "WHY"? they just do things without thinking. When they keep asking "WHY"? they can make things better and change things.
The way our brain works is connected to "WHY"? we're curious. Psychologists and neuroscientists say that when we are curious it makes our brain happy and gives us a feeling. This is because our brain gets a chemical called dopamine when we find answers to things we want to know. This is "WHY"? people always want to learn things. They read books talk to people try things and do experiments. Kids always ask "WHY"? because their brains are trying to learn and understand the world. Even when we are grown up, we still want to know "WHY"?. Knowing "WHY"? we do things can help us understand our feelings and make decisions. For example, if we know "WHY"? we are stressed or happy we can do something about it. If we know why we are doing something at school or at work we do a job. We are more interested and confident when we know "WHY"? we are doing something.
The question "WHY"? is powerful because it helps us understand things. It takes away confusion. Makes our lives more meaningful. It reminds us that knowing things is not about remembering facts. It is, about knowing "WHY"? things are the way they're. When we ask "WHY"? we start to learn and understand things. The q uestion "WHY"? helps us discover things and become wiser.

"A To-Do List for This Mortal Day"

Rise, though the heart feels heavy.
Clothe hope in ordinary duties.
Meet the hours as they come,

And listen, even when the mind wanders.
Speak with kindness, not certainty.
Learn what effort is willing to teach.
Work not only for applause,
But for the quiet dignity of solemnity.
Carry failure without bitterness.
Measure not thy path with another's pace.
Postpone despair till tomorrow, if it must come at all.
At day's end, forgive the self
For tasks left undone and courage delayed,
As tomorrow, too, shall ask for its share.

When Toys become Storytellers: India's Puppet Heritage

A 3,000-year-old tradition rooted in the ancient narratives of the Mahabharata and the Ramayana; Indian puppetry stands as one of the earliest forms of storytelling in human civilization. Long before cinema halls lit up cities and television screens entered homes, colourful puppets danced under the warm glow of oil lamps, narrating stories of Kings, Gods, Warriors, and Ordinary people across the villages of India. These performances were not merely entertainment; they were a living classroom where history, mythology, culture, and moral values were passed from one generation to another.

Indian puppetry is far more than colorful dolls moving beneath dim lights. It is a harmonious blend of movement, music, narration, craftsmanship, and imagination. Every puppet carries the identity of its creator, and every performance reflects centuries of artistic evolution. The rhythm of drums, the expressive voices of storytellers, and the delicate manipulation of strings together create a magical experience that transports audiences into another world.

What appears simple at first glance - the pulling of strings and dancing of miniature figures actually holds deeper meaning. Each gesture, step, and expression performed by the puppet symbolizes emotions, conflicts, and moral lessons hidden within the story. Puppeteers skillfully manipulate the dolls with their fingers, breathing life into lifeless objects. Through this art, wood, cloth, and color transform into living characters capable of laughter, sorrow, bravery, and devotion. Even today, puppet performances never fail to captivate onlookers, both young and old.

The word Kathputli itself reflects the essence of this tradition. Derived from Kath meaning Wood and Putli meaning Doll, Kathputli represents the union of folk imagination and craftsmanship. Originating in Rajasthan, these puppets dressed in vibrant costumes move gracefully as skilled artisans control them with strings. Traditionally performed by travelling communities of puppeteers, Kathputli shows narrated heroic tales, local legends, and social messages while entertaining entire villages.

India's puppetry tradition stretches far beyond one region. From the deserts of Rajasthan to the coastal lands of South India and the Eastern Plains, diverse forms of puppetry flourish, each shaped by regional culture and language.

In Karnataka, Bommalattam combines string and rod techniques, allowing puppets to perform complex movements that resemble human dance. Andhra Pradesh's Bommallata presents mesmerizing leather shadow puppets that cast dramatic silhouettes on a white screen when illuminated from behind. These shadow plays create a mystical atmosphere, often narrating epic stories with powerful visual symbolism.

Kerala's Pavakathakali mirrors the grandeur of the classical Kathakali dance tradition. The puppets wear elaborate costumes, striking facial makeup, and ornate headgear similar to real performers, showcasing remarkable artistic detailing. In West Bengal, Putul Naach employs large rod puppets controlled from behind, giving them an almost human-like presence on stage.

Despite regional differences, every puppetry style reflects the heritage, customs, beliefs, and artistic identity of its homeland. Puppetry becomes a cultural mirror through which communities express their stories and traditions.
More importantly, puppetry has always been a powerful medium of education. Many puppet shows communicate moral values, social awareness, and historical knowledge. Themes of bravery, honesty, kindness, unity, and justice are portrayed through engaging narratives. In earlier times, puppeteers even used performances to spread messages about health, social reform, and community harmony, making puppetry an effective tool of mass communication long before modern media existed.
However, in today's rapidly changing world, traditional puppetry faces serious challenges. The rise of digital entertainment, cinema, and social media has reduced public attention toward folk arts. Urban lifestyles and modernization have limited opportunities for live performances, and many young people remain unaware of this rich cultural heritage. Puppet artists often struggle financially, despite dedicating their lives to preserving an art form inherited from their ancestors.
Yet, the spirit of puppetry refuses to fade. Across India, cultural organizations, schools, museums, and festivals are working to revive this traditional art. Workshops, academic programs, and stage performances are introducing puppetry to younger audiences. Contemporary puppeteers are also experimenting with new themes such as environmental protection, gender equality, and social awareness, proving that ancient art can adapt to modern times.
The question often arises, Is this folk tradition on the verge of disappearing?
The answer is hopeful: No. As long as artists continue to perform and audiences continue to appreciate, puppetry will survive. When young generations show curiosity and respect toward folk arts, they breathe new life into traditions that might otherwise be forgotten.
Puppets remind us that storytelling does not always require screens, special effects, or advanced technology. Sometimes, a simple wooden figure, a creative mind, rhythmic music, and the skilled movement of dancing fingers are enough to create magic. Puppetry reconnects us with the human essence of storytelling, where imagination matters more than technology.
Indian Kathputli and other puppetry traditions symbolize creativity, resilience, and cultural continuity. They connect the past with the present, preserving stories that shaped the nation's identity. Supporting puppet artists, attending performances, promoting folk festivals, and including puppetry in education can ensure that this priceless heritage continues to thrive.

In an age dominated by digital media, puppetry stands as a gentle reminder of India's artistic roots. Each puppet carries centuries of memories, voices of forgotten storytellers, and dreams of future generations. By valuing and encouraging this beautiful art form, we do not merely save a tradition, we keep alive the soul of storytelling itself.

"The Silent Revolution: How AI Works Behind Everything We Use"

Artificial Intelligence (AI) is often portrayed as a futuristic concept—robots replacing humans, machines thinking like people, or advanced systems taking over the world. However, the reality of AI is far more subtle and deeply integrated into everyday life. AI does not announce its presence loudly; instead, it works quietly in the background, influencing decisions, improving efficiency, and shaping digital experiences. This invisible yet powerful transformation can rightly be called the silent revolution because it is changing the way society functions without most people even noticing.

At its core, AI refers to computer systems designed to perform tasks that normally require human intelligence, such as learning, reasoning, recognizing patterns, and making decisions. Unlike traditional software that follows fixed instructions, AI systems learn from data. The more data they process, the more accurate and efficient they become. This ability to learn and adapt is what makes AI such a powerful force behind modern technology. One of the most common places where AI works silently is in search engines and smartphones.

When we type a question into a search bar, AI algorithms analyse the words, understand intent, and rank millions of web pages to deliver the most relevant results within seconds. Similarly, smartphone features such as voice assistants, face recognition, autocorrect, and predictive text rely on AI. These features feel simple and natural, but behind them are complex machine learning models trained on massive datasets.

Social media platforms are another major example of AI's silent influence. AI algorithms decide what content appears on our feeds, which posts gain popularity, and which advertisements are shown to us. Every like, comment, share, and pause is analysed to understand user preferences. Based on this data, AI personalizes content to keep users engaged for longer periods. While this personalization improves user experience, it also shapes opinions, trends, and even social behaviour. Many users are unaware that their digital environment is being constantly curated by intelligent systems. AI also plays a crucial role in entertainment and streaming services. When a platform recommends a movie, song, or video that perfectly matches a user's taste, it is not a coincidence; it is AI at work. Recommendation systems analyse viewing history, ratings, and user behaviour to predict what content a person is most likely to enjoy. This has changed how people consume media, shifting from random browsing to highly personalized experiences.

In the field of education, AI is quietly transforming how students learn. Online learning platforms use AI to personalize lessons, suggest courses, and track learning progress. Adaptive learning systems identify a student's strengths and weaknesses and adjust content accordingly. Language translation tools powered by AI allow students to access global knowledge instantly, breaking language barriers. Writing assistants and research tools help students organize ideas, correct grammar, and improve clarity. Instead of replacing teachers, AI acts as a supportive tool that enhances learning and accessibility. Health care is one of the most impactful areas where AI works behind the scenes. AI systems assist doctors in analysing medical images such as X-rays, MRIs, and CT scans with high accuracy. They help identify diseases at early stages by detecting patterns that may be difficult for humans to notice. AI also supports hospitals in managing patient records, predicting disease outbreaks, and optimizing treatment plans. For patients, this means faster diagnosis, improved care, and better outcomes, often without realizing that AI played a role.

In the business and workplace environment, AI increases efficiency and productivity in countless ways. Email spam filters, smart scheduling tools, customer service chatbots, and data analysis systems all rely on AI. Companies use AI to forecast sales, understand customer behaviour, manage supply chains, and detect fraud. Many repetitive and time-consuming tasks are automated, allowing employees to focus on creative thinking, decision-making, and innovation. AI does not replace work entirely; instead, it reshapes the nature of work. AI also operates silently in financial systems. Banks use AI to detect fraudulent transactions, assess credit risk, and provide personalized financial advice. Digital payment systems rely on AI to ensure security and smooth transactions. Stock markets use AI-driven algorithms to analyze trends and make trading decisions in milliseconds. These systems improve speed and accuracy while reducing human error.

Despite its benefits, the silent nature of AI also raises important ethical and social concerns. Since AI systems depend heavily on data, issues of privacy and data security are critical. Users often share personal information without fully understanding how it is collected and used. There is also the risk of algorithmic bias, where AI systems may reflect or amplify existing social inequalities. Additionally, automation raises concerns about job displacement, especially for roles involving routine tasks. Because AI works invisibly, people may trust it blindly without questioning its decisions. This makes awareness and digital literacy essential. Understanding how AI functions empower users to make informed choices, demand transparency, and use technology responsibly. Governments, educational institutions, and technology companies all share responsibility in ensuring ethical AI development.

In conclusion, AI is not a distant or dramatic revolution; it is a silent revolution unfolding every day behind the screens we use. From smartphones and social media to education, healthcare, business, and finance, AI quietly enhances efficiency, personalization, and decision-making. Its influence is subtle but transformative. As students and future professionals, recognizing and understanding this invisible force is essential. The challenge ahead is not whether AI will shape our future, it already is— but how wisely and ethically we choose to guide its role in society.

"Riya's Phoenix Rise"

Riya's life hasn't been easy. Ever since she was a kid, she's faced one struggle after another. When she was five, she started to feel like her parents loved her younger sister more than her. This made her feel possessive and jealous, and she would often fight with her sister. Things didn't get any better as she got older. Her mom was very strict and always pushed her to get good grades. If she didn't do well, she'd get in trouble. After she finished school, her parents sent her to a hostel in another city. They did this partly because they found out she was talking to a boy, and they didn't approve.

When Riya was in the hostel, she got really into social media. This led to some big problems. A guy started blackmailing her, and she felt so trapped and alone that she thought about ending her life. Luckily, she didn't go through with it, but the experience really affected her mentally. Even though she's stronger now, Riya still struggles. She's not as healthy as she used to be, and she's always dealing with stress and anxiety. She doesn't like to talk about her problems with her parents because she feels like they won't understand. Now that Riya is older, her parents are finally starting to open up to her. They're sharing their own struggles and problems, and Riya is starting to feel like they actually care about her. This makes her feel a little better, but she still has a lot to deal with. Despite everything, Riya is determined to make a better life for herself. She's working hard and trying to stay positive, even when things get tough.

After completing her degree, Riya pursued her master's degree. During her second year of undergraduate studies, she entered into a relationship that would last for seven years. Despite completing her master's degree and landing a job, Riya's relationship was marred by struggles, misunderstandings, and fights. As time passed, ego became a significant issue between the couple. When Riya was offered a job opportunity abroad, her boyfriend discouraged her from taking it, further complicating their relationship. Although they tried to hold on to their relationship, their frequent fights and misunderstandings took a toll. For the past six months, Riya's boyfriend had been pressuring her to get married, citing his parents' insistence. However, Riya's parents were not ready for their daughter to marry him, and she asked him to wait for a few more months. But he and his family were unwilling to wait, and he eventually broke up with her, telling her not to contact him again. Just a month later, Riya's ex-boyfriend got married, leaving her devastated.

The stress from her family, work, and the breakup became overwhelming, and Riya felt like giving up on life. However, the thought of her family gave her the strength to carry on. After six to seven months of struggling to come to terms with the breakup, Riya slowly began to heal. She started rebuilding her life from scratch and eventually found her footing again. A few months later, Riya's parents arranged her marriage to a man of their choice, and she agreed to the union. As fate would have it, Riya's new husband supported her dreams, and they moved abroad together. Riya finally found happiness, and her story came full circle.

"For Now,"

I wake up late,
sometimes because I'm tired,
sometimes because I don't see a reason to rush.
People think I'm quiet,
but they don't know
how loud my thoughts are and how many sleepless nights I have.

Some days,
I try to do things I loved,
but nothing feels fun anymore.
Even the things I loved feel heavy now.

I laugh with friends,
but it feels forced, and still I'm alone.
Inside, I'm quiet and lost.

There's a place I dream about,
but I haven't said it to anyone.
It feels safer
when it's only me who knows it.

Sometimes I hear songs that feel like they were written for me.
I hold them close like it's a treasure to me.

"You're never really alone."
I repeat to myself on the nights I can't sleep and hope tomorrow will be better.

Life feels stuck, but deep down,
I know this isn't the end.

"Destiny of Caterpillar"

Once a caterpillar dreamt of embracing its destiny with a rosebud. But the thorns tangled it to its end. Thus, the caterpillar swore solemnly, "I will surely come for you before my destiny ends." The caterpillar converted its brightness to darkness, caged itself, and tangled in threads of hope. It struggled for 390 hours to embrace its future. Amidst this, the rosebud blinded itself in sunlight, hoping to meet its life (the caterpillar), eager for 336 hours, counting down to its end. The caterpillar broke out of its dark world, reborn as a butterfly, and eagerly approached its love. The two, who fought against destiny for each other, met that day just as 'cloud meets earth through rain,' 'sea embraces shore through waves,' 'sun encounters moon on an eclipse,' with hope for a new journey but, destiny had another plan.

The rose had only 200 hours left to take its final bow. The rose said, "Four hundred hours of your light cannot be compressed into my darkness. Find a sunrise, not a sunset like me. Live freely, embracing the sun, not in a cage." The butterfly was broken inside, yet it said, "Two hundred hours or four hundred hours is not important. I tangled and struggled to see my brightness (rose). Sunrise is just the beginning of destiny; you are neither sunrise nor sunset, but a sun to my life. No matter what destiny holds for us, you are my lifeline, my feather to fly and my hope for life."

They fought again against destiny and began a happy journey, but they forgot that every journey has an end. Soon, the rose lost itself in the battle of life. Destiny almost succeeded in its play, yet the butterfly never surrendered. Instead, it continued its journey in the thoughts of the rose and lived in its precious memories. It met its end by caging itself again in the darkness of sunlight, with hope for rebirth to encounter its lifeline again and start a new chapter. After losing its light in the brightness of day, it was lost in destiny's play but not bitterly; instead, it remained content with its precious memories.
"As every journey to a mountain ends with a cliff, life also has an end. The journey to a mountain is difficult, just like life. But we forget that every edge of a mountain holds a beautiful view. So, each struggle we encounter holds precious memories, lessons, and a beautiful life. Life belongs to the person who fights against destiny and lives as they wish."

"Small deeds done are better than great deeds planned."

"Just a Star"

You are the moon and I was just a star,
not the brightest, not the closest, but always there.
To let you shine, I shattered myself.
Scattering across the sky, just to make you glow completely.
Because I was just a star. But I forgot…
You were in love with the sun, the one who lent you light for the world to see.
You looked at him and glowed, while I remained unseen, just as silent witness. Because I was just a star.
Even the universe conspired to tie your destinies together through eclipse. Ironically even I favoured for your encounter, because I was just a star.

There are legends for 'Moon and Sun', but never for 'Moon and Stars'. No one remembered, one who loved silently from a far.
You may never notice or say my name. But even in broken pieces.
My love for you remains. Because I was just a star.
Forever yours, 'My Chand'- Even if you never look back, know that I lit up your sky, even when I faded to black,
not the brightest, not the closest, but always there.
Because I was just a star.
"Being moon may be difficult, but being star is not easy."

"Pouring Water in the Desert"

The Dream: The dream begins on the day of my BCA graduation. The campus was alive with emotions, many students were proposing to their loved ones, as it was their final day together. I had a crush too, but I never confessed my feelings. As the graduation party was winding down, instead of staying back, I quietly left the college and set off on my bike. I didn't have a destination in mind, I just rode. Eventually, I found myself on a road that led toward Chamundi Hill. At the last moment, I turned away from the Hill Road and took a different path. While riding, a thought struck me with sudden force: if I never tell her what I feel, I'll regret it my whole life. That realization pushed me to head toward her house. By the time I reached, the evening had turned into night, somewhere between 7 and 10 PM. She lived on the top floor of a building. The night air was cool and windy. Opposite her home, the neighbour's house glowed with garden lights, as if they were hosting a celebration.
I climbed the stairs and stopped in front of her door. My heart pounded. The windows were shut, and the lights inside were off. For a moment, I thought they had already gone to bed. Moonlight bathed the corridor in a dim glow. Still, I gathered my courage and knocked on her door three times. From morning till then, I hadn't heard her voice, and I wasn't expecting anyone to respond. But the moment I knocked, her voice came through the door: "Arrin"—"Coming." The sound of her voice washed over me like life itself returning to my body. All my fear dissolved, replaced with calm. When she opened the door, I greeted her softly, "Assalamualaikum." She smiled and replied, "Waalaikum salam." She hadn't expected me to come to her place, that too at such an hour. I followed her inside, but just as I did, her elder brother, a very religious man, saw me. She lived with him, and I greeted him respectfully as well. She introduced me to him, and I sat for a while. Her house reflected her personality in every detail, the hall, the rooms, even the kitchen carried a sense of warmth and discipline. The place felt cozy, and I found myself quietly admiring it all. My conversation with her brother was brief but polite. I did not talk with her much. I greeted her while entering the house; she went inside the kitchen and returned with two cups of tea. I could not talk with her, as her brother was with us, and I was very nervous.

I had never gone to someone's house alone, and going to someone's house late at night felt inappropriate. That's where the dream began to blur. But I guess I confessed my feelings while standing near the door as I was leaving. She came to the main door of the house to see me off, and before saying "Allahafiz" (goodbye), I told her, "Mai tumna pasand kartun." (I like you). I don't recall what happened next or her reaction. The memory faded into silence. But what remains with me is her presence, calm, intellectual, caring, disciplined and the feeling that perhaps the story was never meant to end.

The Reality:

As it was only a dream, when I woke up, I was still just a graduating student. I wrote the dream down in a book, recording everything I could remember. From that day onward, I began noticing the same person (her) in my real life. I started talking to her, taking interest in her opinions, her hobbies, and especially her love for reading books. We had very few conversations together, where we talked about studies, job placements, and real-world projects related to our stream. She began to occupy my thoughts entirely. But somehow, she found out that I was talking with someone about her and her behaviour in the wrong manner (I had spoken with a female friend of mine about my previous interaction with her).

One day, she called me aside for a talk. We stood near the window, and she told me, "You are a good guy, and you are very down-to-earth in front of me. You are ambitious. But… you are a different person with me, and a different person in reality." Those words hit me hard. I had no way to defend myself, because it was true, this was my fault. I should never have discussed our interactions with others, and that too in the wrong way. I apologized several times during our conversation. While explaining the misunderstanding, the words came out of me: "Mai tumna pasand kartun." (I like you). She gently explained that it was okay to fall in love with someone, that it wasn't the brain but the heart that acted in such moments. "We cannot control our feelings for others," she said. She explained everything patiently, but she never gave me a direct answer. I didn't have the courage to ask her again. A few hours later, I went back to her once more. I apologized again and told her that it was not with bad intention. I said, "Please forget everything—the conversation that happened today."

She looked at me and replied softly, "It's okay. Let's forget everything… and let's just be friends." "I am still pouring water into the desert, hoping it will bloom into a garden."

YOU CAN'T BUY HAPPINESS

In a world that constantly tells us to earn more, buy more, and achieve more, it's easy to believe that happiness comes with a price tag. From the latest phones to stylish clothes and luxurious lifestyles we see online, everything seems to suggest that money is the key to a joyful life. But if we look a little deeper, we realize that happiness is not something you can simply purchase.

Money can certainly make life comfortable. It can provide security, good food, a safe home, and access to education and healthcare. These are important and can reduce stress. But comfort is not the same as happiness. Many people who have everything money can buy still feel empty or dissatisfied. This shows that happiness comes from something deeper than material possessions.

True happiness often lies in simple, meaningful experiences. Spending time with family, laughing with friends, achieving personal goals, or even enjoying a quiet moment alone these are the things that stay with us. Unlike objects, these experiences cannot be bought or replaced. They are built through relationships, effort, and time.

Another important aspect of happiness is purpose. When people feel like their life has meaning whether through helping others, following a passion, or working toward a dream they tend to feel more fulfilled. This sense of purpose cannot be purchased it has to be discovered and nurtured.

Gratitude also plays a big role. People who learn to appreciate what they already have often feel happier than those who constantly chase more. It's easy to think, "I'll be happy when I get this or that," but happiness doesn't wait at the finish line. It grows in the present moment when we learn to value what is already around us.

That said, money isn't completely unrelated to happiness. It can create opportunities like traveling, learning new skills, or supporting loved ones that can lead to joyful experiences. But money itself is just a tool. It's how we use it, and what we value beyond it, that truly matters.
In the end, happiness is not something you can buy in a store or order online. It is something you build within yourself and share with others. It comes from connection, purpose, and appreciation. So while money can make life easier, it cannot replace the things that truly make life meaningful.

IMPORTANCE OF BIOTECHNOLOGY IN MODERN SCIENCE

INTRODUCTION
Biotechnology is a branch of science that combines biology and technology to develop useful products and processes for the benefit of humans and the environment. It involves the use of living organisms such as microorganisms, plants, and animals to produce valuable substances like medicines, enzymes, and food products. The concept of biotechnology has been used for centuries in processes like fermentation for making bread, yogurt, and cheese. In modern science, biotechnology has become an important field because it helps solve many problems related to health, agriculture, food production, and environmental protection. Scientists use advanced techniques such as Genetic Engineering, Recombinant DNA Technology, and Polymerase Chain Reaction to study and modify living organisms for beneficial purposes.
2. Today, biotechnology plays a major role in developing new medicines, improving crop, producing vaccines, and controlling diseases such as Cancer, Diabetes, and COVID-19. Because of its wide range of applications, biotechnology is considered one of the most important and rapidly growing fields in modern science.
Major Fields of Biotechnology
Medical Advancements
Biotechnology helps in the development of new medicines, vaccines, and diagnostic techniques for diseases like COVID-19, Cancer, and Diabetes. It also supports gene therapy and personalized medicine.
Improvement in Agriculture
Biotechnology improves crop yield and quality by developing genetically modified crops that are resistant to pests, diseases, and environmental stress.
Food Production and safety
It helps in producing nutritious and safe foods through fermentation and preservation techniques. It also improves shelf life and quality of food products.
Environmental protection
Biotechnology is used in Bioremediation, where microorganisms' clean pollutants from soil, water, and air, helping to protect the environment.
Industrial application
3. Many industries use biotechnology to produce enzymes, biofuels, organic acids, and antibiotics efficiently and sustainably.
Disease diagnosis
Modern biotechnological tools allow early and accurate detection of diseases using molecular techniques like Polymerase Chain Reaction (PCR).
Development of vaccine
Biotechnology helps create effective vaccines to prevent infectious diseases such as Hepatitis B and Human Papillomavirus Infection.

Genetic engineering

Through genetic engineering, scientists can modify genes to improve organisms, produce insulin, and treat genetic disorders.

In conclusion, biotechnology plays a vital role in modern science by providing innovative solutions to many global challenges. It has greatly contributed to advancements in medicine, agriculture, food production, and environmental protection. Through modern techniques such as Genetic Engineering, Bioremediation, and Recombinant DNA Technology, biotechnology helps improve human health, increase agricultural productivity, and maintain environmental sustainability. As scientific research continues to progress, biotechnology will play an even more important role in developing new treatments for diseases like Cancer and Diabetes, improving food security, and protecting natural resources. Therefore, biotechnology is considered one of the most promising and powerful tools for the future development of science and society.

THE LIFE WE DON'T POST ONLINE
"Perfection is posted; reality is lived."

In a world illuminated by screens, life often appears perfect. Smiling selfies, filtered sunsets, celebration posts and achievement updates fill our feeds, creating the illusion that everyone else is living a flawless life. Yet beyond the glowing screens exists a quieter reality the life we don't post online. Social media has become a highlight reel rather than a reflection of truth. We share victories but hide failures, post laughter but conceal tears and display confidence while silently battling self-doubt. Behind every polished photograph may be a moment of anxiety, exhaustion or an untold struggle. This culture of comparison quietly shapes our thoughts. We begin measuring our worth against curated images of success and happiness, forgetting that we are comparing our behind-the-scenes reality with someone else's edited story. The pressure to appear "perfect" can leave individuals feeling inadequate, even when they are trying their hardest.

Students today carry invisible burdens — academic pressure, uncertainty about the future and personal battles that rarely make it online. It becomes easier to upload a smiling picture than to admit feeling overwhelmed.

Yet there is comfort in recognizing that imperfection is universal. No life is as flawless as it appears on a screen. True strength lies not in pretending everything is fine, but in accepting our struggles and growing through them. Perhaps the real connection we seek lies not in perfect posts, but in honest conversations. When we allow ourselves to be authentic, we create space for empathy, understanding, and genuine human connection.

Because life is not a filtered image — it is raw, unedited, and beautifully real

BIOMIMICRY: INNOVATIONS INSPIRED BY NATURE

Biomimicry is a field of science where humans observe and learn from nature to develop new technologies and solutions. The term biomimicry includes 'bio' meaning life & 'mimicry' meaning imitation. In which studying how plants, animals and natural systems work then applying those ideas to improve new inventions is involved. Nature has been developing and improving for billions of years, because of this long process many plants and animals have very smart & efficient designs. Scientists & engineers study these natural designs and try to use the same ideas to create new inventions. A well-known example is Velcro, which was invented by George de Mestral. He noticed that Burr seeds(Xanthium spinosum) were sticking to his clothes & animal fur.

When he examined them under a microscope, he saw tiny hook-like structures. By copying this design, he invented Velcro, which is now used in shoes, bags, and many types of clothing. Another interesting example comes from the Kingfisher bird. While designing the Shinkansen, engineers faced a problem because the train made loud noise passing through the tunnels. Then kingfisher's beak study, which helps the bird dive into water smoothly without making any splash. By designing the train's front like the bird's beak engineers reduced the noise & improved the train's speed. Biomimicry is also used in building design and material science. For example, some buildings are designed based on termite mounds, which naturally regulate temperature through airflow. This helps buildings stay cool without depending heavily on-air conditionings.

Overall, biomimicry shows that nature can be an excellent source of inspiration for innovation. By carefully studying natural systems, scientists can develop technologies that are environmentally friendly. Biomimicry plays an important role in solving future challenges related to energy & environmental protection with this we can move toward sustainable, regenerative future.

The Pressure to "Have It All Together" in Your20s

Somewhere along the way, your 20s quietly turned into a deadline.

Not an official one-no email, no announcement-but a constant, unspoken expectation. By now, you should have a stable career, a growing bank balance, meaningful relationships, clarity about your future, and ideally... a sense of peace about it all. And if you don't? It feels like you're falling behind. The truth is, this pressure doesn't come from one place. It's built slowly-through social media updates, conversations with peers, family expectations, and the subtle comparisons we make every day. One friend gets a promotion. Other moves abroad. Someone else gets engaged. And without realizing it, you start measuring your life against theirs. It becomes less about what you actually want, and more about whether you're "keeping up." Career-wise, you're expected to have direction. Not just a job-but the right job. Something meaningful, high-paying, and somehow aligned with your passion. But in reality, most people in their 20s are still experimenting, switching paths, and figuring out what they don't want just as much as what they do. Financially, there's pressure to earn, save, invest, and still live your life. You're told to be responsible-but also to enjoy your youth. The balance sounds simple in theory, but in practice, it often feels like you're doing neither well enough. Then come relationships. There's an invisible timeline here too. Be independent, but not too detached. Build your career, but also find "the one." And somehow, manage emotional stability through it all-without ever being taught how. What makes all of this heavier is the illusion that everyone else has already figured it out. But they haven't What you're seeing is a highlight reel-carefully curated moments of success, clarity, and happiness. What you don't see are the doubts, the wrong turns, the late-night anxiety, and the constant questioning that almost everyone experiences at this stage. The reality is far less polished. Your 20s are not meant to be a finished product. They're a phase of construction-messy, uncertain, and often uncomfortable. It's where you try, fail, adjust, and try again. It's where clarity comes slowly, not all at once. Having it "all together" is not a prerequisite for moving forward. In fact, most growth happens when things feel like they're falIing apart. So perhaps the goal isn't to have everything figured out. Perhaps it's to become comfortable with not knowing-while still showing up, still trying, and still building a life that feels right for you, not just one that looks right to others. Because in the end, the most grounded people aren't the ones who had it all together early. They're the ones who learned how to navigate not having it together at all.

ಪ್ರೀತಿ ಎಂಬುದು ಒಂದು ದೈವಿಕ ಭಾವ ಎಂದರೆ ತಪ್ಪಾಗಲಾರದು. ಆ ಪ್ರೀತಿಗೆ ಪ್ರಸ್ತುತ ತಲೆಮಾರಿನಲ್ಲಿ ಅಪಮಾನವಾಗುತ್ತಿದೆ. ಪ್ರೀತಿ ಎಂದರೇನು ಎಂಬ ಪ್ರಶ್ನೆಗೆ ಪ್ರತಿಯೊಬ್ಬರಲ್ಲೂ ವಿಭಿನ್ನ ಉತ್ತರಗಳಿವೆ. ಪ್ರೀತಿ ಎಂದರೆ ಆಕರ್ಷಣೆಯೋ, ವ್ಯಾಮೋಹವೊ, ಆರಾಧನೆಯೋ, ಯಾವುದೋ ನನಗೆ ತಿಳಿಯದು. ಆದರೆ ಅದು ಮಾನವನ ಕುಲದಲ್ಲಿ ಇರುವ ಮುಗ್ಧವಾದ ಭಾವನೆ, ವರ, ಸ್ನೇಹ ಮುಂತಾದ ಪದಗಳನ್ನು ನೀಡಿದರೂ ಅದಕ್ಕೆ ಸಾಲದು.
ನನ್ನ ಪ್ರಕಾರ ಪ್ರೀತಿ ಎಂದರೆ ಸ್ಥಿರವಾಗಿರುವುದು, ಆರಾಧಿಸುವುದು, ಒಬ್ಬರನ್ನೊಬ್ಬರು ಅರ್ಥೈಸುವುದು, ಒಬ್ಬರನ್ನೊಬ್ಬರು ಗೌರವಿಸುವುದು ಇರಬಹುದು. ಪ್ರಸ್ತುತ ಕಾಲದಲ್ಲಿ ಈ ಪ್ರೀತಿಯೆಂಬುದು ನಶಿಯೆಂಬ ಪಾತ್ರವನ್ನು ವಹಿಸಿದೆ. ಅದು ಆ ಪಾತ್ರ ವಹಿಸಲು ಯಾರು ಕಾರಣ ಎಂಬ ಪ್ರಶ್ನೆಗೆ ಉತ್ತರವಿಲ್ಲ? ಅದು ಕೆಲವರಿಗೆ ಅಂಟಿದಂತಿದೆ. ಈ ಪಾತ್ರಕ್ಕೆ ಕಾರಣ ಮಾಧ್ಯಮವೋ, ಬೇರೊಬ್ಬರ ಅನುಕರಣೆಯೋ ತಿಳಿಯದು. ಹಿಂದೆಲ್ಲಾ ಪ್ರೀತಿಯೆಂದರೆ ಪ್ರೇಮಿಗಳಿಗೆ ದೈವ ಭಕ್ತಿಗೆ ಸಮ. ಕೆಲವರು ದೂರದಿಂದಲೇ ಪ್ರೇಮಿಸುತ್ತಿದ್ದರು. ಅವರಿಗೆ ಭೇಟಿ ಕಡಿಮೆ. ನೆನಪುಗಳೇ ಸ್ನೇಹಿತರು. ಆದರೂ ಅವರ ಪ್ರೇಮ ಅಮರವಾಗಿ ಇರುತ್ತಿದ್ದವು. ಈಗಿನ ದಿನದಲ್ಲಿ ಈ ಪ್ರೇಮವು ಎರಡು-ಮೂರು ದಿನ. ಬಿಟ್ಟು ಇದ್ದರೆ ಅದು ನೋವನ್ನು ಅನುಭವಿಸಿರುತ್ತದೆ. ನಮ್ಮ ಪೂರ್ವಜರ ಪ್ರೀತಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ದೇಹ ಮುಟ್ಟುವಿಕೆ ಇಲ್ಲ. ಒಬ್ಬರನ್ನೊಬ್ಬರು ಗೌರವಿಸುತ್ತಾ, ಉತ್ತಮ ಸ್ನೇಹಿತರಂತೆ ಇರುತ್ತಿದ್ದರು. ಅವರು ಹೆಚ್ಚು ಭಾವನೆಗಳಿಗೆ ಬೆಲೆ ಕೊಡುತ್ತಿದ್ದರು. ಪ್ರೇಮವನ್ನು ಕೇವಲ ಮದುವೆಯ ತನಕ ತರುವ ತಾತ್ಕಾಲಿಕ ಭಾವನೆಯೂ ಆಗಿರಲಿಲ್ಲ. ಅದು ಅವರ ಜೀವನ ಪಯಣದುದ್ದಕ್ಕೂ ಜೀವಂತವಾಗಿರುತ್ತಿತ್ತು. ಅದೆಷ್ಟೇ ಮುನಿಸು, ಮನಸ್ತಾಪ ಇದ್ದರೂ ಕೂಡ ಒಂದು ದಿನಕ್ಕಿಂತ ಹೆಚ್ಚು ಇರುತ್ತಿರಲಿಲ್ಲ. ಆದರೆ ಈಗ ಪ್ರೀತಿಗಿಂತ ಕೋಪ, ಅಹಂಕಾರ ಹೆಚ್ಚು. ಪ್ರಸ್ತುತ ಪ್ರೇಮದಲ್ಲಿ ಸ್ವಾಮ್ಯಸೂಚಕತೆ ತುಂಬಾ ಚಾಲ್ತಿಯಲ್ಲಿದೆ. ನೀವು ನಿಮ್ಮ ಸಂಗಾತಿಯನ್ನು ಪ್ರೀತಿಸುತ್ತಿದ್ದೀರೋ ಅಥವಾ ಅನುಮಾನಿಸುತ್ತಿರುವಿರೋ ಗೊತ್ತಿಲ್ಲ. ನಿಜವಾದ ಪ್ರೀತಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ಈ ಸ್ವಾಮ್ಯಸೂಚಕತೆ ಇರುವುದಿಲ್ಲ. ಮೊದಲಿಗೆ ಪ್ರೀತಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ಸ್ವಾತಂತ್ರ್ಯ ವಿರಬೇಕು, ಇಲ್ಲ ಎಂದರೆ ಪಂಜರದಲ್ಲಿನ ಹಕ್ಕಿಯಂತಾಗುತ್ತದೆ. ಸ್ವಾತಂತ್ರ್ಯ ಕೊಟ್ಟು ಪ್ರೇಮಿಗಳು ಜೊತೆಗಿರಬೇಕು. ನಮ್ಮವರು ಕೊನೆತನಕ ನಮ್ಮೊಟ್ಟಿಗೆ ಬರುವರು, ಹೋಗುತ್ತಿರುವರು, ಹೋಗುವರು.

ಯಾರು ನಿಜವಾದ ಪ್ರೇಮಿಗಳೂ ಅವರು ಎಂದೂ ಎಂತಹದೇ ಸಂದರ್ಭದಲ್ಲಿ, ಯಾರೇ ಬಂದರೂ ಜಗ್ಗುವುದಿಲ್ಲ. ಪ್ರೀತಿ ಎಂದರೆ ನಂಬಿಕೆ. ಈಗಂತೂ ದೇಹ ಬಯಸುವುದೇ ಹೆಚ್ಚು. ಈ ಮಾತನ್ನು ಕೇಳಿ ಕೆಲವರು ತಪ್ಪು ತಿಳಿಯಬಹುದು. ಅವರಿಗೆ ಒಂದು ಪ್ರಶ್ನೆ? ನೀವು ನಿಮ್ಮ ಸಂಗಾತಿಯನ್ನು ಪ್ರೀತಿಸಿದ್ದು, ಅವರ ಗುಣ ನೋಡಿಯೋ ಅಥವಾ ಭಾವನೆಗಳಿಗೆ ಗೌರವಿಸಿಯೋ ಅಥವಾ ದೇಹದ ಸೌಂದರ್ಯಕ್ಕೆ ಮರುಳಾಗಿಯೋ. ಬಹುಶಃ ಈಗಿನವರಿಗೆ ಅದರ ಅರ್ಥ ತಿಳಿಯದು ಅನಿಸುತ್ತದೆ. ಈ ಪ್ರಶ್ನೆಯ ಉತ್ತರದಲ್ಲೇ ನಿಮ್ಮ ಪ್ರೀತಿಯು ಯಾವ ತರಹದ ಎಂದು ತಿಳಿಯುತ್ತದೆ. ದೇಹ ಬಯಸಿ ಪೋಷಕರಿಗೆ ಅಪಮಾನಿಸಿ, ನಿಮ್ಮ ಬದುಕನ್ನು ಹಾಳು ಮಾಡಿಕೊಳ್ಳುವ ಅವಘಡಗಳು ಏಕೆ ಏಕೆ? ಮೊದಲಿಗೆ ಪ್ರೇಮಕ್ಕೆ ಮಸಿ ಬಳಿಯ ಬೇಡಿ. ಮೊದಲು ನೀವು ನಿಮ್ಮ ಸಂಗಾತಿಯ ಬದುಕನ್ನು ಕಟ್ಟಕೊಳ್ಳಿ. ಆಗ ಪೋಷಕರೇ ಒಪ್ಪುವರು. ಆದರೆ ಜೊತೆಗೆ ಸಾಗುವ ತಾಳ್ಮೆ ಬೆಳೆಸಿಕೊಳ್ಳಿ. ತಂದೆ ತಾಯಿಗಳು ಒಪ್ಪದ ಕಾರಣಗಳೇ ಇವು. ನೀವು ನಿಮ್ಮ ಪ್ರೇಮವನ್ನು ಯಾವ ಸಂದರ್ಭದಲ್ಲೂ ಬಿಡದೆ ಪ್ರತಿಯೊಬ್ಬರೂ ಕಷ್ಟದಲ್ಲಿ ಒಬ್ಬರಿಗೊಬ್ಬರು ಆಗಿ ನಿಂತರೆ ಸಾಕು. ಪವಿತ್ರವಾಗಿ ಇದ್ದರೆ ಅದು ನಿಮ್ಮನ್ನು ಗೆಲ್ಲಿಸುತ್ತದೆ. ದೇಹ ಬಯಸುವುದು ತಪ್ಪಲ್ಲ, ಅದು ಮದುವೆಯ ಮುಂಚೆ ಆದರೆ ತಪ್ಪಾಗುತ್ತದೆ. ಏಕೆಂದರೆ ಅದು ನಾವು ನಮ್ಮ ಬದುಕನ್ನು ಕಟ್ಟುವ ಸಮಯ. ಆ ಸಮಯದಲ್ಲಿ ಇವೆಲ್ಲಾ ಆದರೆ ಬದುಕಿಗೆ ತೊಂದರೆ. ಹಾಗಾಗಿ ನಿಮ್ಮ ಮನಸ್ಸಿನಲ್ಲಿ ಯೋಚಿಸಿ ಪ್ರಬುದ್ಧರಾಗಿ. ಪ್ರೀತಿ ತ್ಯಾಗ ಮಾಡಬೇಡಿ. ನೀವು ಗೆಲ್ಲಿ ನಿಮ್ಮ ಪ್ರೇಮವನ್ನೂ ಗೆಲ್ಲಿಸಿ. ಯಾವುದೇ ಕಾರಣಕ್ಕೂ ಅನುಮಾನಿಸಬೇಡಿ. ಇನ್ನು ಹೇಳುತ್ತಾ ಹೋದರೆ ತುಂಬಾ ವಿಷಯಗಳಿವೆ... ಪುಟಗಳೇ ಸಾಲದು..

ವಚನ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯವು ೧೨ನೇ ಶತಮಾನದಲ್ಲಿ ಉದಯವಾದ ಅಸಾಧಾರಣ ಚಿಂತತೆಯ ಪ್ರಭಾವವಾಗಿದೆ.ಇದು ಅಸ್ಪೃಶ್ಯತೆ, ಜಾತಿ-ಮತ ಭೇಧ,ಅಂಧಶ್ರದ್ಧೆಗಳನ್ನು ತಳ್ಳಿ ಹಾಕಿ ಸಮಾನತೆ, ಮಾನವೀಯತೆ ಮತ್ತು ಶ್ರಮದ ಮಹತ್ವವನ್ನು ಸಾರಿತು.ಬಸವಣ್ಣನ "ಕಾಯಕವೇ ಕೈಲಾಸ"ದಿಂದ ಹಿಡಿದು ಅಕ್ಕಮಹಾದೇವಿಯ ಅಹಂಕಾರರಹಿತ ಭಕ್ತಿ,ಅಲ್ಲಮಪ್ರಭುವಿನ ಗುಹೇಶ್ವರ ತತ್ವವು ಇನ್ನೂ ಮುಂತಾದವರು ಮಾನವನ ಒಳಜಗತನ್ನು ಶುದ್ಧೀಕರಿಸುವ ದಾರಿ ತೋರಿಸುತ್ತದೆ.ವಚನ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯದಲ್ಲಿನ ವೈಚಾರಿಕತೆ ನಮಗೆ ಸಮಾನತೆ,ಪ್ರಜಾಸತ್ತಾತ್ಮಕತೆ,ಶ್ರದ್ಧೆಗಿಂತ ಶ್ರಮದ ಮಹತ್ವ ,ಮಹಿಳಾ ಗೌರವ,ಭಕ್ತಿ ಮತ್ತು ಸಾಮಾಜಿಕ ನ್ಯಾಯ ಎಂಬ ಮೌಲ್ಯಗಳನ್ನು ಕಲಿಸುತ್ತದೆ.ಆದ್ದರಿಂದ,ವಚನ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯವು ಕೇವಲ ಧಾರ್ಮಿಕ ಕಾವ್ಯವಲ್ಲಿ ಅದು ಮಾನವತೆಯ ದೀಪವಾಗಿಯೂ ಬೆಳಗುತ್ತದೆ.

ಕನ್ನಡ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯದಲ್ಲಿ ವಚನ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯವು ಕ್ರಾಂತಿಕಾರಿ ಘಟ್ಟವೆಂದು ಪರಿಗಣಿಸಲಾಗುತ್ತದೆ. 12ನೇ ಶತಮಾನದಲ್ಲಿ ಬಸವಣ್ಣ, ಅಲ್ಲಮಪ್ರಭು, ಅಕ್ಕಮಹಾದೇವಿ ಮುಂತಾದ ಶರಣರು ಜನಸಾಮಾನ್ಯರ ಬದುಕನ್ನು ಸ್ಪರ್ಶಿಸುವ ರೀತಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ತಮ್ಮ ಆಲೋಚನೆಗಳನ್ನು ವಚನಗಳ ಮೂಲಕ ವ್ಯಕ್ತಪಡಿಸಿದರು. ಈ ವಚನಗಳು ಕೇವಲ ಧಾರ್ಮಿಕ ಭಕ್ತಿ ಗೀತೆಗಳಲ್ಲ; ಅವು ಸಮಾಜ ಸುಧಾರಣೆ, ಸಮಾನತೆ, ಮಾನವೀಯತೆ, ಶ್ರಮದ ಗೌರವ, ಸ್ತ್ರೀಮುಕ್ತಿ, ಅಹಿಂಸೆ ಮುಂತಾದ ವೈಚಾರಿಕ ಅಂಶಗಳನ್ನು ಒಳಗೊಂಡಿವೆ.

ಅನುಭವ ಮಂಟಪ ಎಂಬ ವಿಶಿಷ್ಟವಾದ ಚರ್ಚಾಮಂಟಪದ ಮೂಲಕ ಶರಣರು ಆ ಕಾಲದ ಜಾತ್ಯಾತೀತ, ಲಿಂಗಭೇದರಹಿತ, ಶ್ರಮಕ್ಕೆ ಗೌರವ ನೀಡುವ ಸಮಾಜದ ಕನಸನ್ನು ರೂಪಿಸಿದರು. ವಚನ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯವು ಜನಭಾಷೆಯಾದ ಕನ್ನಡದಲ್ಲಿ, ಸರಳವಾಗಿ, ನೇರವಾಗಿ ಜನಮನಗಳನ್ನು ಸ್ಪರ್ಶಿಸುವ ಶಕ್ತಿ ಹೊಂದಿತ್ತು.

ಇಂದು ಸಹ ಸಮಾಜದಲ್ಲಿ ಅಸಮಾನತೆ, ದ್ವೇಷ, ಹಿಂಸೆ, ಸ್ತ್ರೀಯರ ಮೇಲಿನ ಅನ್ಯಾಯ ಮುಂತಾದವು ಮುಂದುವರಿದಿರುವಾಗ, ವಚನ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯವು ನೀಡಿದ ವೈಚಾರಿಕ ಸಂದೇಶಗಳು ಇನ್ನೂ ಜೀವಂತವಾಗಿವೆ. ಆದ್ದರಿಂದ ವಚನ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯದ ವೈಚಾರಿಕತೆಯನ್ನು ಅಧ್ಯಯನ ಮಾಡುವುದು ಕೇವಲ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯ ವಿಮರ್ಶೆಯಲ್ಲ, ಅದು ಇಂದಿನ ಸಮಾಜಕ್ಕೆ ದಾರಿದೀಪವಾಗುವಂತಹ ಚಿಂತನೆ.

ವಚನ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯದ ಹುಟ್ಟು ಮತ್ತು ಹಿನ್ನೆಲೆ:

ವಚನ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯವು 12ನೇ ಶತಮಾನದಲ್ಲಿ ಹುಟ್ಟಿದ ಶರಣ ಚಳವಳಿಯಿಂದ ಉದ್ಭವಿಸಿತು. ಅದಕ್ಕೆ ಪೀಠಿಕೆಯಾಗಿದ್ದ ಸಮಾಜದಲ್ಲಿ ಜಾತಿ-ಅಜಾತಿ, ಉನ್ನತ-ಅಧಮ, ಸ್ತ್ರೀ-ಪುರುಷ, ಧರ್ಮೀಯ ಅಸಮಾನತೆಗಳು ಗಟ್ಟಿಯಾಗಿ ನೆಲೆಸಿದ್ದವು. ಧಾರ್ಮಿಕ ಜೀವನವೆಂದರೆ ಯಜ್ಞ-ಯಾಗ, ಬಲಿ-ಪ್ರಥೆಗಳು, ಆಚಾರ-ವಿಚಾರಗಳ ಅಂಧ ಅನುಸರಣೆ.

ಇಂತಹ ಸಾಮಾಜಿಕ ಹಿನ್ನಲೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ಬಸವಣ್ಣನವರ ನೇತೃತ್ವದಲ್ಲಿ ನಡೆದ ಶರಣ ಚಳವಳಿಯು ಕ್ರಾಂತಿಕಾರಿ ತಿರುವು ಕೊಟ್ಟಿತು. ಧರ್ಮವನ್ನು ಅಂಧವಿಶ್ವಾಸದಿಂದ ಮುಕ್ತಗೊಳಿಸುವ ಪ್ರಯತ್ನ, ಮನುಷ್ಯನ ಮೌಲ್ಯವನ್ನು ಅವನ ಶ್ರಮ ಮತ್ತು ಗುಣಗಳಿಂದ ಅಳೆಯುವ ನಿಲುವು, ದೇವರನ್ನು ದೇವಾಲಯ-ಮೂರ್ತಿಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಸೀಮಿತಗೊಳಿಸದೆ ಹೃದಯದಲ್ಲಿ ಕಂಡುಕೊಳ್ಳುವ ದಾರಿ, ಎಲ್ಲರಿಗೂ ಸಮಾನ ಅವಕಾಶ ನೀಡುವ ಮನೋಭಾವ – ಇವೆಲ್ಲವೂ ವಚನ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯದ ಜನನಕ್ಕೆ ಕಾರಣ. ವಚನ ಎಂಬ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯ ರೂಪವು ಅತ್ಯಂತ ಸರಳ, ಜನರ ಮಾತಿನ ಭಾಷೆಯಂತೆಯೇ ಇದ್ದುದರಿಂದ ಸಾಮಾನ್ಯ ಜನರಿಗೂ ಅರ್ಥವಾಗುತ್ತಿತ್ತು. ಇದೇ ಕಾರಣದಿಂದ ವಚನಗಳು ಬೇಗನೆ ಜನಮನಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಬೆಳೆದವು. ಬಸವಣ್ಣನ ವೈಚಾರಿಕತೆ – ಕಾಯಕ ಮತ್ತು ದಾಸೋಹ:
ವಚನ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯದಲ್ಲಿ ಬಸವಣ್ಣನ ಪಾತ್ರ ಅತ್ಯಂತ ಮುಖ್ಯ. ಅವರು ಸಮಾಜಕ್ಕೆ ಎರಡು ಮಹತ್ವದ ತತ್ವಗಳನ್ನು ಕೊಟ್ಟರು:
1. ಕಾಯಕವೇ ಕೈಲಾಸ
ಶ್ರಮವೇ ಪುಣ್ಯ, ಶ್ರಮವೇ ಧರ್ಮ. ಮನುಷ್ಯನನ್ನು ಅವನ ಕೆಲಸದಿಂದಲೇ ಅಳೆಯಬೇಕು. -ಶ್ರಮವಿಲ್ಲದ ಜೀವನ ವ್ಯರ್ಥ.
2. ದಾಸೋಹ -
ಶ್ರಮದಿಂದ ಗಳಿಸಿದ ಸಂಪತ್ತನ್ನು ಕೇವಲ ಸ್ವಂತ ಪ್ರಯೋಜನಕ್ಕಾಗಿ ಬಳಸದೆ, ಸಮಾಜದ ಹಿತಕ್ಕಾಗಿ ಹಂಚಿಕೊಳ್ಳಬೇಕು. ದಾಸೋಹದಿಂದ ಸಮಾಜದಲ್ಲಿ ಸಮಾನತೆ, ಹಸಿವು-ಬಡತನದ ನಿವಾರಣೆ ಸಾಧ್ಯ.
ಇದಲ್ಲದೆ, ಬಸವಣ್ಣನು ದೇವರ ಅನುಭವವನ್ನು ಮಂದಿರ-ಮೂರ್ತಿಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಹುಡುಕದೆ "ಅಂತರಂಗದ ಶುದ್ಧತೆ"ಯಲ್ಲಿ ಕಂಡುಕೊಂಡರು. ಅವರು ವಚನಗಳಲ್ಲಿ"ಮನೆಯನ್ನು ಮಂದಿರ ಮಾಡು, ಮನಸ್ಸನ್ನು ದೇವರ ಮೂರ್ತಿಮಾಡು" ಎಂದು ಹೇಳಿದರು. ಈ ನಿಲುವು ಜನಸಾಮಾನ್ಯರ ಭಕ್ತಿಯನ್ನು ಅಂಧವಿಶ್ವಾಸದಿಂದ ಮುಕ್ತಗೊಳಿಸಿತು.

ಅಲ್ಲಮಪ್ರಭುವಿನ ತಾತ್ವಿಕತೆ

ಅಲ್ಲಮಪ್ರಭು ವಚನ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯದ ಗಹನ ತಾತ್ವಿಕ ಧ್ವನಿ. ಅವರ ವಚನಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಅಸ್ಥಿರ ಲೋಕದ ಬಗ್ಗೆ ಆಳವಾದ ಚಿಂತನೆ ವ್ಯಕ್ತವಾಗುತ್ತದೆ. ಜಗತ್ತಿನ ಸೌಂದರ್ಯ, ಐಶ್ವರ್ಯ, ಅಧಿಕಾರ – ಇವೆಲ್ಲವೂ ನಾಶವಾಗುವವು. ನಿಜವಾದ ಶಾಶ್ವತವು ಆತ್ಮಸಾಕ್ಷಾತ್ಕಾರ. ಅಲ್ಲಮಪ್ರಭುವಿನ ತಾತ್ವಿಕ ವಚನಗಳು ಜೀವನದ ಅರ್ಥವನ್ನು ಅರಿಯಲು ಮಾನವನನ್ನು ಪ್ರೇರೇಪಿಸುತ್ತವೆ. ಅವರು ದೇವರ ಅನುಭವವನ್ನು ಬಾಹ್ಯಾಚರಣೆಗಳಲ್ಲವಲ್ಲ, ಅಂತರಂಗದ ಆಳವಾದ ಅನುಭವದಲ್ಲಿ ಕಂಡುಕೊಳ್ಳಬೇಕೆಂದು ಸಾರಿದರು. ಶ್ರಮದ ಗೌರವ ಮತ್ತು ದಾಸೋಹದ ತತ್ವ: ಶರಣರು ಸಮಾಜದಲ್ಲಿ ಶ್ರಮಜೀವಿಗಳ ಸ್ಥಾನವನ್ನು ಎತ್ತಿಹಿಡಿದರು.

ಆ ಕಾಲದಲ್ಲಿ ಶ್ರಮವನ್ನೆಲ್ಲಾ "ಕೀಳು" ಎಂದೆಣಿಸಿದು, ಕೆಲವು ಜಾತಿಗಳಿಗೆ ಮಾತ್ರ ನಿರ್ದಿಷ್ಟ ವೃತ್ತಿ ನೀಡಲಾಗುತ್ತಿತ್ತು. ಬಸವಣ್ಣನ "ಕಾಯಕವೇ ಕೈಲಾಸ" ತತ್ತ್ವವು ಪ್ರತಿಯೊಂದು ಕೆಲಸಕ್ಕೂ ಗೌರವ ನೀಡಿತು. ಶ್ರಮವಿಲ್ಲದೆ ಬದುಕುವುದು ನಿಜವಾದ ಭಕ್ತಿ ಅಲ್ಲವೆಂದರು. ಕಾಯಕದಲ್ಲಿ ಬಂದ ಸಂಪತ್ತನ್ನು ಸಮಾಜದ ಹಿತಕ್ಕಾಗಿ ಹಂಚುವ ದಾಸೋಹ ತತ್ತ್ವವು ಆರ್ಥಿಕ ಸಮಾನತೆಗೆ ದಾರಿಯಾಯಿತು. ಇದು ಇಂದಿನ ಸಾಮಾಜಿಕ ನ್ಯಾಯ, ಕಾರ್ಮಿಕ ಹಕ್ಕುಗಳ ಚಳವಳಿಗಳಿಗೆ ಬಹಳ ಹತ್ತಿರವಾದ ಸಂದೇಶವಾಗಿದೆ. ಸ್ತ್ರೀಮುಕ್ತಿ ಮತ್ತು ಸಮಾನತೆ ವಚನ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯದಲ್ಲಿ ವ್ಯಕ್ತವಾಗಿರುವ ಅತ್ಯಂತ ಕ್ರಾಂತಿಕಾರಿ ವೈಚಾರಿಕ ಅಂಶವೆಂದರೆ ಸ್ತ್ರೀಮುಕ್ತಿ. ಅಕ್ಕಮಹಾದೇವಿ ಪಿತೃತ್ವಾಧಾರಿತ ಸಮಾಜದ ಅನ್ಯಾಯವನ್ನು ಧೈರ್ಯವಾಗಿ ಪ್ರಶ್ನಿಸಿದರು. ದೇಹ ಸೌಂದರ್ಯದ ಆಧಾರದ ಮೇಲೆ ಮಹಿಳೆಯರನ್ನು ಕಟ್ಟಿ ಹಾಕುವ ಸಮಾಜವನ್ನು ತಿರಸ್ಕರಿಸಿದರು.

ತಮ್ಮ ವಚನಗಳಲ್ಲಿ:
"ನನ್ನನುಸಿರು ಶರಣರಿಗೇ, ಚೆನ್ನಮಲ್ಲಿಕಾರ್ಜುನನಿಗೇ"
ಎಂದು ಘೋಷಿಸಿ ತಮ್ಮ ಅಸ್ತಿತ್ವವನ್ನು ದೇವರ ಪ್ರೇಮಕ್ಕೆ ಅರ್ಪಿಸಿದರು.

ಅನುಭವ ಮಂಟಪದಲ್ಲಿ ಮಹಿಳೆಯರು ಪುರುಷರ ಸಮಾನವಾಗಿ ಭಾಗವಹಿಸಿದ್ದು, ಆ ಕಾಲದ ಸಮಾಜದಲ್ಲಿ ಅತ್ಯಂತ ಕ್ರಾಂತಿಕಾರಿ ಬೆಳವಣಿಗೆಯಾಯಿತು. ವಚನ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯವು ಮಹಿಳೆಯರಿಗೂ ಧಾರ್ಮಿಕ-ಆಧ್ಯಾತ್ಮಿಕ ಅನುಭವಕ್ಕೆ ಸಮಾನ ಹಕ್ಕು ಒದಗಿಸಿತು. ಅಹಿಂಸೆ, ಪ್ರೀತಿ ಮತ್ತು ಸಹಿಷ್ಣುತೆ ವಚನ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯದಲ್ಲಿ ಮಾನವೀಯ ಮೌಲ್ಯಗಳಿಗೆ ಹೆಚ್ಚಿನ ಪ್ರಾಮುಖ್ಯತೆ:
ಅಹಿಂಸೆ –
ಬಸವಣ್ಣನು "ಜೀವದಯೆ ಬಯಸಿದವರೇ ಶಿವನ ಭಕ್ತರು" ಎಂದರು. ಪ್ರಾಣಿಹತ್ಯೆ, ಹಿಂಸೆ ಧರ್ಮವಲ್ಲ.
ಪ್ರೀತಿ –
ಅಕ್ಕಮಹಾದೇವಿಯ ವಚನಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಶಿವನನ್ನು ಅಂತರಂಗದ ಪ್ರಿಯನಾಗಿ ಕಂಡ ಪ್ರೇಮ. ಬಸವಣ್ಣ, ಅಲ್ಲಮಪ್ರಭು ಮುಂತಾದವರು ಪ್ರೀತಿಯ ಮೂಲಕವೇ ದೇವರ ಅನುಭವ ಸಾಧ್ಯವೆಂದು ಸಾರಿದರು.
ಸಹಿಷ್ಣುತೆ –
ಬೇರೆ ಧರ್ಮ, ಬೇರೆ ನಂಬಿಕೆಗಳನ್ನು ಗೌರವಿಸುವ ನಿಲುವು. ಬಸವಣ್ಣನ "ಪರಧರ್ಮದ ನಿಂದೆ ಮಾಡಬೇಡ, ತನ್ನ ಧರ್ಮದಲ್ಲಿ ನಿಷ್ಠೆಯಿರಲಿ" ಎಂಬ ವಚನ ಇದರ ಸಾಕ್ಷಿ.
ಇಂದಿನ ಸಮಾಜದಲ್ಲಿ ಹಿಂಸೆ, ಅಸಹಿಷ್ಣುತೆ ಹೆಚ್ಚುತ್ತಿರುವಾಗ, ವಚನಗಳ ಈ ಸಂದೇಶಗಳು ಅತ್ಯಂತ ಪ್ರಸ್ತುತ. ಇಂದಿನ ಸಮಾಜಕ್ಕೆ ವಚನ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯದ ಸಂಬಂಧ: ವಚನ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯವು ಶತಮಾನಗಳ ಹಿಂದೆ ಬರೆಯಲ್ಪಟ್ಟಿದ್ದರೂ ಇಂದಿಗೂ ಜೀವಂತ. ಸಾಮಾಜಿಕ ಸಮಾನತೆ – ಇಂದಿನ ಜಾತಿ-ಧರ್ಮದ ಅಸಮಾನತೆಗಳನ್ನು ನಿವಾರಿಸಲು ಶರಣರ ತತ್ತ್ವ ಅವಶ್ಯ. ಸ್ತ್ರೀಶಕ್ತಿ – ಅಕ್ಕಮಹಾದೇವಿಯ ಸಂದೇಶ ಇಂದಿನ ಮಹಿಳಾ ಸಬಲೀಕರಣ ಚಳವಳಿಗೂ ದಾರಿದೀಪ. ಅಹಿಂಸೆ ಮತ್ತು ಸಹಿಷ್ಣುತೆ – ಜಾಗತಿಕ ಸಂಘರ್ಷಗಳ ಕಾಲದಲ್ಲಿ ಶಾಂತಿ-ಸಹಬಾಳ್ವೆಗೆ ಸಂದೇಶ. ಶ್ರಮದ ಗೌರವ – ಕಾರ್ಮಿಕರ ಹಕ್ಕುಗಳಿಗೆ ತತ್ತ್ವಾಧಾರ. ಯುವಜನತೆಗೆ ಸ್ಫೂರ್ತಿ – ನೈತಿಕ ಬದುಕಿಗೆ ದಾರಿದೀಪ.

ಹೀಗಾಗಿ ವಚನ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯವು ಕೇವಲ ಇತಿಹಾಸದಲ್ಲೇ ಸೀಮಿತವಲ್ಲ; ಅದು ಇಂದಿನ ಮತ್ತು ಭವಿಷ್ಯದ ಸಮಾಜಕ್ಕೂ ಶಾಶ್ವತ ಪ್ರೇರಣೆ. ವಚನ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯವು ಕನ್ನಡದ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯ ಪರಂಪರೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ಮಾತ್ರವಲ್ಲ, ಜಗತ್ತಿನ ಮಾನವೀಯ ಚಿಂತನೆಯ ಇತಿಹಾಸದಲ್ಲೂ ಅಪ್ರತಿಮ ಸ್ಥಾನ ಪಡೆದಿದೆ. 12ನೇ ಶತಮಾನದಲ್ಲಿ ಹುಟ್ಟಿದ ಈ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯವು ಧರ್ಮವನ್ನು ಕೇವಲ ಪೂಜೆ-ಪಾಠಗಳಲ್ಲದೆ ಮಾನವೀಯ ಮೌಲ್ಯಗಳ ಆಧಾರದಲ್ಲಿ ಅರ್ಥೈಸಿತು. ಬಸವಣ್ಣನ "ಕಾಯಕವೇ ಕೈಲಾಸ", ಅಲ್ಲಮಪ್ರಭುವಿನ ತಾತ್ವಿಕ ಗಹನತೆ, ಅಕ್ಕಮಹಾದೇವಿಯ ಸ್ತ್ರೀಮುಕ್ತಿ ಧ್ವನಿ, ಇತರ ಶರಣರ ಸಮಾನತೆಯ ಸಂದೇಶ – ಇವೆಲ್ಲವೂ ಸಮಾಜದಲ್ಲಿ ಹೊಸ ಬೆಳಕನ್ನು ಹರಿಸಿದವು.

ಇಂದಿಗೂ ಜಾತಿ-ಧರ್ಮದ ಭೇದ, ಸ್ತ್ರೀಯರ ಮೇಲಿನ ಅನ್ಯಾಯ, ಹಿಂಸೆ, ಅಸಹಿಷ್ಣುತೆ ಇತ್ಯಾದಿ ಸಮಸ್ಯೆಗಳು ಮುಂದುವರಿದಿರುವಾಗ, ವಚನ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯದ ವೈಚಾರಿಕತೆ ನಮಗೆ ಶಾಶ್ವತ ದಾರಿದೀಪವಾಗಿದೆ. ಅದು ನಮಗೆ ಕಲಿಸುವುದು – ಶ್ರಮದ ಗೌರವ, ಸಮಾನತೆ ಮತ್ತು ಮಾನವೀಯತೆ, ಪ್ರೀತಿ ಮತ್ತು ಸಹಿಷ್ಣುತೆ, ಸ್ತ್ರೀ-ಪುರುಷ ಸಮಾನ ಸ್ಥಾನ, ದೇವರ ಅನುಭವಕ್ಕಾಗಿ ಶುದ್ಧ ಮನಸ್ಸಿನ ಅಗತ್ಯ. ಅದರದರಿಂದ ವಚನ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯವು ಕೇವಲ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯವಲ್ಲ, ಅದು ಮಾನವೀಯ ಕ್ರಾಂತಿಯ ಘೋಷಣೆ. ಶತಮಾನಗಳಾದರೂ ಅದರ ಪ್ರಾಸಂಗಿಕತೆ ಕುಂದಿಲ್ಲ. ನಮ್ಮ ಬದುಕಿನಲ್ಲಿ ವಚನಗಳ ಸಂದೇಶವನ್ನು ಅಳವಡಿಸಿಕೊಂಡರೆ ಮಾತ್ರ ನಿಜವಾದ ಸಮಾನತೆ, ಶಾಂತಿ, ನ್ಯಾಯದ ಸಮಾಜವನ್ನು ನಿರ್ಮಿಸಬಹುದು.

ನನ್ನ ಹೆಸರು ಮಲ್ಲಿಕಾರ್ಜುನ. ನಾನು ಸಂತ ಫಿಲೋಮಿನಾ ಕಾಲೇಜಿನಲ್ಲಿ ವ್ಯಾಸಂಗ ಮಾಡುತ್ತಿದ್ದೇನೆ. ನನ್ನ ಜೀವನದಲ್ಲಿ ಫ್ಯಾಷನ್ ಡಿಸೈನಿಂಗ್ ಕ್ಷೇತ್ರದ ಮೇಲೆ ವಿಶೇಷ ಆಸಕ್ತಿ ಇದೆ. ಈ ಕ್ಷೇತ್ರದಲ್ಲಿ ಹೊಸ ಹೊಸ ವಿನ್ಯಾಸಗಳನ್ನು ಕಲಿಯುವುದು ಮತ್ತು ಅದನ್ನು ಸೃಜನಾತ್ಮಕವಾಗಿ ಪ್ರದರ್ಶಿಸುವುದು ನನಗೆ ಬಹಳ ಇಷ್ಟ.
ಫ್ಯಾಷನ್ ಡಿಸೈನಿಂಗ್ ಎಂದರೆ ಕೇವಲ ಬಟ್ಟೆ ತಯಾರಿಸುವುದಲ್ಲ, ಅದು ವ್ಯಕ್ತಿಯ ವ್ಯಕ್ತಿತ್ವವನ್ನು ತೋರಿಸುವ ಒಂದು ಕಲೆಯಾಗಿದೆ. ಬಣ್ಣಗಳು, ವಿನ್ಯಾಸಗಳು, ಹೊಸ ಶೈಲಿಗಳು ಹಾಗೂ ಆಧುನಿಕ ಟ್ರೆಂಡ್ಗಳನ್ನು ಅರ್ಥಮಾಡಿಕೊಂಡು ಅದನ್ನು ಜನರಿಗೆ ತಲುಪಿಸುವುದು ಫ್ಯಾಷನ್ ಡಿಸೈನರ್ನ ಕರ್ತವ್ಯವಾಗಿದೆ.
ಈ ಕ್ಷೇತ್ರದಲ್ಲಿ ಯಶಸ್ಸು ಸಾಧಿಸಲು ಸೃಜನಶೀಲತೆ, ಪರಿಶ್ರಮ ಮತ್ತು ತಾಳ್ಮೆ ಬಹಳ ಮುಖ್ಯ. ಹೊಸ ಆಲೋಚನೆಗಳನ್ನು ರೂಪಿಸಿ ಅದನ್ನು ವಿನ್ಯಾಸದ ಮೂಲಕ ವ್ಯಕ್ತಪಡಿಸುವುದು ನನ್ನ ಕನಸಾಗಿದೆ. ಭವಿಷ್ಯದಲ್ಲಿ ಒಬ್ಬ ಉತ್ತಮ ಫ್ಯಾಷನ್ ಡಿಸೈನರ್ ಆಗಿ ಸಮಾಜದಲ್ಲಿ ಗುರುತಿಸಿಕೊಳ್ಳಬೇಕು ಎಂಬುದು ನನ್ನ ಆಶಯ.
ಫ್ಯಾಷನ್ ಕ್ಷೇತ್ರವು ದಿನದಿಂದ ದಿನಕ್ಕೆ ಬೆಳೆಯುತ್ತಿರುವ ಕ್ಷೇತ್ರವಾಗಿದೆ. ಇದರಲ್ಲಿ ಅನೇಕ ಉದ್ಯೋಗಾವಕಾಶಗಳಿದ್ದು, ಯುವಜನರಿಗೆ ಉತ್ತಮ ಭವಿಷ್ಯವನ್ನು ನೀಡುತ್ತದೆ. ಆದ್ದರಿಂದ ನಾನು ಈ ಕ್ಷೇತ್ರದಲ್ಲಿ ಹೆಚ್ಚಿನ ಜ್ಞಾನವನ್ನು ಪಡೆದು ನನ್ನ ಪ್ರತಿಭೆಯನ್ನು ಬೆಳೆಸಿಕೊಳ್ಳಲು ಪ್ರಯತ್ನಿಸುತ್ತಿದ್ದೇನೆ..

ರೈತನು ಈ ಲೋಕದ ಬೆನ್ನೆಲುಬು ಎಂದು ಹೇಳುವುದು ಯಾವುದೇ ಅತಿಶಯೋಕ್ತಿ ಅಲ್ಲ. ನಮ್ಮ ಸಮಾಜದ ಜೀವನ ಚಕ್ರದಲ್ಲಿ ರೈತನ ಪಾತ್ರ ಅತ್ಯಂತ ಪ್ರಮುಖವಾಗಿದೆ. ಆಹಾರವಿಲ್ಲದೆ ಮಾನವ ಜೀವನ ಸಾಗುವುದೇ ಅಸಾಧ್ಯ. ಆ ಆಹಾರವನ್ನು ಉತ್ಪಾದಿಸುವವನು ರೈತ. ಆದ್ದರಿಂದ ರೈತನ ಜೀವನದ ಮಹತ್ವವನ್ನು ಗೌರವದಿಂದ ಕಾಣಬೇಕು.
ಕೃಷಿ ಮಾಡುವ ಜೀವನ ಎಂದರೆ ಸುಲಭದ ಜೀವನವಲ್ಲ. ರೈತನು ಬೆಳಿಗ್ಗೆ ಬೇಗ ಎದ್ದು ತನ್ನ ಹೊಲಗಳಿಗೆ ತೆರಳಿ ಕಷ್ಟಪಟ್ಟು ದುಡಿಯುತ್ತಾನೆ. ಬಿಸಿಲು, ಮಳೆ, ಗಾಳಿ ಯಾವ ಪರಿಸ್ಥಿತಿಯಲ್ಲಾದರೂ ತನ್ನ ಕೆಲಸವನ್ನು ನಿಲ್ಲಿಸುವುದಿಲ್ಲ. ಅವನ ಪರಿಶ್ರಮದಿಂದಲೇ ನಮ್ಮ ಮನೆಗಳಿಗೆ ಅಕ್ಕಿ, ಬೇಳೆ, ಹಣ್ಣು, ತರಕಾರಿ ಹಾಗೂ ಇತರ ಆಹಾರ ಪದಾರ್ಥಗಳು ತಲುಪುತ್ತವೆ.
ರೈತನ ಜೀವನ ತುಂಬಾ ಕಷ್ಟಗಳಿಂದ ಕೂಡಿದೆ. ಒಂದು ಕಡೆ ಪ್ರಕೃತಿಯ ಅಸಮತೋಲನ, ಇನ್ನೊಂದು ಕಡೆ ಬೆಳೆ ನಾಶ, ಸಾಲದ ಸಮಸ್ಯೆ, ಬೆಲೆ ಕುಸಿತ ಇತ್ಯಾದಿ ಅನೇಕ ತೊಂದರೆಗಳನ್ನು ಅವನು ಎದುರಿಸಬೇಕಾಗುತ್ತದೆ. ಆದರೂ ರೈತನು ಧೈರ್ಯ ಕಳೆದುಕೊಳ್ಳದೆ ತನ್ನ ಕರ್ತವ್ಯವನ್ನು ಮುಂದುವರಿಸುತ್ತಾನೆ. ಇಂದಿನ ಆಧುನಿಕ ಯುಗದಲ್ಲಿಯೂ ರೈತನ ಮಹತ್ವ ಕಡಿಮೆಯಾಗಿಲ್ಲ. ದೇಶದ ಆರ್ಥಿಕ ಅಭಿವೃದ್ಧಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ಕೃಷಿಯ ಪಾತ್ರ ಅತ್ಯಂತ ಮುಖ್ಯವಾಗಿದೆ. ರೈತರು ಸಮೃದ್ಧರಾಗಿದ್ದರೆ ದೇಶವೂ ಸಮೃದ್ಧವಾಗುತ್ತದೆ.
ಆದ್ದರಿಂದ ನಾವು ರೈತರನ್ನು ಗೌರವಿಸಬೇಕು, ಅವರ ಪರಿಶ್ರಮವನ್ನು ಮೆಚ್ಚಬೇಕು ಮತ್ತು ಅವರಿಗೆ ಅಗತ್ಯವಾದ ಸಹಾಯ-ಸಹಕಾರವನ್ನು ನೀಡಬೇಕು. ರೈತನೇ ನಮ್ಮ ಜೀವನದ ನಿಜವಾದ

ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಆರೋಗ್ಯ : ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿ ಮತ್ತು ಮನೋವಿಜ್ಞಾನ ಸಹಾಯಕ ಪ್ರಾಧ್ಯಾಪಕಿ ಸಂಭಾಷಣೆ:-
ಇಂದಿನ ಸ್ಪರ್ಧಾತ್ಮಕ ಮತ್ತು ವೇಗದ ಜೀವನದಲ್ಲಿ ಯುವಜನರು ಶೈಕ್ಷಣಿಕ ಒತ್ತಡ, ಭವಿಷ್ಯದ ಅನಿಶ್ಚಿತತೆ, ಸಾಮಾಜಿಕ ನಿರೀಕ್ಷೆಗಳು ಹಾಗೂ ಸ್ವ-ಆತ್ಮವಿಶ್ವಾಸದ ಕೊರತೆಯಿಂದಾಗಿ ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಒತ್ತಡವನ್ನು ಅನುಭವಿಸುತ್ತಿದ್ದಾರೆ. ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಆರೋಗ್ಯದ ಬಗ್ಗೆ ಇನ್ನೂ ಸಮಾಜದಲ್ಲಿ ಹಲವಾರು ತಪ್ಪು ಕಲ್ಪನೆಗಳು ಇರುವುದನ್ನು ಗಮನಿಸಬಹುದು. ಈ ಹಿನ್ನೆಲೆಯಲ್ಲಿ, ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಆರೋಗ್ಯದ ನಿಜವಾದ ಅರ್ಥ, ಯುವಜನರು ಎದುರಿಸುತ್ತಿರುವ ಸಮಸ್ಯೆಗಳು ಹಾಗೂ ಅವುಗಳಿಗೆ ಸಾಧ್ಯವಾದ ಪರಿಹಾರಗಳ ಕುರಿತು ಸ್ಪಷ್ಟ ಅರಿವು ಮೂಡಿಸುವ ಉದ್ದೇಶದಿಂದ, ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿಯೊಬ್ಬರು ಮನೋವಿಜ್ಞಾನ ಸಹಾಯಕ ಪ್ರಾಧ್ಯಾಪಕಿಯವರೊಂದಿಗೆ ನಡೆಸಿದ ಸಂಭಾಷಣೆಯನ್ನು ಇಲ್ಲಿ ನೀಡಲಾಗಿದೆ.

1) ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿ :ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಆರೋಗ್ಯ ಅಂದ್ರೆ ಏನು ಮ್ಯಾಮ್?

ಮನೋವಿಜ್ಞಾನ ಸಹಾಯಕ ಪ್ರಾಧ್ಯಾಪಕಿ :
ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಆರೋಗ್ಯ ಅಂದರೆ ವ್ಯಕ್ತಿಯ ಭಾವನೆಗಳು, ಚಿಂತನೆಗಳು ಮತ್ತು ವರ್ತನೆಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಸಮತೋಲನ ಇರುವ ಸ್ಥಿತಿ. ಮನಸ್ಸು ಶಾಂತವಾಗಿರುವುದು, ಭಾವನೆಗಳನ್ನು ಸಮರ್ಥವಾಗಿ ನಿಭಾಯಿಸುವುದು ಮತ್ತು ದಿನನಿತ್ಯದ ಜೀವನದ ಒತ್ತಡಗಳನ್ನು ಎದುರಿಸುವ ಸಾಮರ್ಥ್ಯವೇ ಉತ್ತಮ ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಆರೋಗ್ಯ. ವಿಶ್ವ ಆರೋಗ್ಯ ಸಂಸ್ಥೆಯ ಪ್ರಕಾರ, ಪ್ರಪಂಚದ ನಾಲ್ಕು ಜನರಲ್ಲಿ ಒಬ್ಬರು ತಮ್ಮ ಜೀವನದ ಯಾವುದೋ ಹಂತದಲ್ಲಿ ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಸಮಸ್ಯೆಗಳನ್ನು ಅನುಭವಿಸುತ್ತಾರೆ. ಭಾರತದಲ್ಲಿ ಇದು ಸುಮಾರು ಹದಿನಾಲ್ಕು ದಶಾಂಶ ಮೂರು ಶೇಕಡಾ ಜನರಲ್ಲಿ ಕಂಡುಬರುತ್ತದೆ.

2) ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿ :ಸಾಮಾನ್ಯವಾಗಿ ಜನರು ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಆರೋಗ್ಯವನ್ನು ಹೇಗೆ ತಪ್ಪಾಗಿ ಅರ್ಥಮಾಡಿಕೊಳ್ಳುತ್ತಾರೆ?

ಮನೋವಿಜ್ಞಾನ ಸಹಾಯಕ ಪ್ರಾಧ್ಯಾಪಕಿ :
ಬಹಳಷ್ಟು ಜನರು ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಆರೋಗ್ಯ ಅಂದರೆ ಮನಸ್ಸು ಯಾವಾಗಲೂ ಖುಷಿಯಾಗಿರಬೇಕು ಅಥವಾ ಒತ್ತಡವೇ ಇರಬಾರದು ಎಂದು ಭಾವಿಸುತ್ತಾರೆ. ಆದರೆ ನಿಜವಾದ ಅರ್ಥವೆಂದರೆ, ಒತ್ತಡ ಅಥವಾ ಸವಾಲುಗಳು ಬಂದಾಗಲೂ ಅವುಗಳನ್ನು ಸಮತೋಲನದಲ್ಲಿ ನಿಭಾಯಿಸುವ ಸಾಮರ್ಥ್ಯ ಹೊಂದಿರುವುದೇ ಉತ್ತಮ ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಆರೋಗ್ಯ.

3) ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿ :ಇಂದು ಯುವಜನರಲ್ಲಿ ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಆರೋಗ್ಯ ಸಮಸ್ಯೆಗಳು ಹೆಚ್ಚಾಗುತ್ತಿರುವುದಕ್ಕೆ ಕಾರಣಗಳೇನು?
ಮನೋವಿಜ್ಞಾನ ಸಹಾಯಕ ಪ್ರಾಧ್ಯಾಪಕಿ :
ಯುವಜನರಲ್ಲಿ ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಸಮಸ್ಯೆಗಳು ಹೆಚ್ಚಾಗಲು ಹಲವು ಕಾರಣಗಳಿವೆ. ಅತಿಯಾದ ಶೈಕ್ಷಣಿಕ ಒತ್ತಡ, ಪರೀಕ್ಷೆಗಳು, ಉದ್ಯೋಗ ಮತ್ತು ಭವಿಷ್ಯದ ಚಿಂತೆ ಪ್ರಮುಖ ಕಾರಣಗಳಾಗಿವೆ. ಜೊತೆಗೆ ಸಾಮಾಜಿಕ ಜಾಲತಾಣಗಳಿಂದ ಬರುವ ಹೋಲಿಕೆಗಳು, ಸ್ವ-ಆತ್ಮವಿಶ್ವಾಸದ ಕೊರತೆ, ಸಹಾಯ ಕೇಳಲು ಹಿಂಜರಿಕೆ ಹಾಗೂ ಅಸಮರ್ಪಕ ಜೀವನಶೈಲಿ ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಆರೋಗ್ಯದ ಮೇಲೆ ದುಷ್ಪರಿಣಾಮ ಬೀರುತ್ತವೆ.
4) ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿ:ಶೈಕ್ಷಣಿಕ ಒತ್ತಡ ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿಗಳ ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಆರೋಗ್ಯದ ಮೇಲೆ ಯಾವ ರೀತಿಯ ಪರಿಣಾಮ ಬೀರುತ್ತದೆ?
ಮನೋವಿಜ್ಞಾನ ಸಹಾಯಕ ಪ್ರಾಧ್ಯಾಪಕಿ :
ಶೈಕ್ಷಣಿಕ ಒತ್ತಡ ಹೆಚ್ಚಾದಾಗ ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿಗಳು ಚಿಂತೆ, ಆತಂಕ, ಕೋಪ ಮತ್ತು ನಿದ್ರೆ ಸಮಸ್ಯೆಗಳನ್ನು ಅನುಭವಿಸುತ್ತಾರೆ. ಇದರಿಂದ ಏಕಾಗ್ರತೆ ಕಡಿಮೆಯಾಗುತ್ತದೆ, ಕಲಿಕೆಯ ಸಾಮರ್ಥ್ಯ ಕುಂಠಿತವಾಗುತ್ತದೆ ಹಾಗೂ ದಿನನಿತ್ಯದ ಕಾರ್ಯಕ್ಷಮತೆಯ ಮೇಲೂ ಪರಿಣಾಮ ಬೀರುತ್ತದೆ.
5) ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿ :ಇತ್ತೀಚಿನ ದಿನಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ನಿದ್ರೆ ಸಮಸ್ಯೆಗಳು ಹೆಚ್ಚಾಗುತ್ತಿರುವುದಕ್ಕೆ ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಒತ್ತಡದ ಪಾತ್ರ ಏನು?
ಮನೋವಿಜ್ಞಾನ ಸಹಾಯಕ ಪ್ರಾಧ್ಯಾಪಕಿ :
ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಒತ್ತಡ ನಿದ್ರೆ ಸಮಸ್ಯೆಗೆ ಪ್ರಮುಖ ಕಾರಣವಾಗಿದೆ. ನಿರಂತರ ಚಿಂತೆಯಿಂದ ಮನಸ್ಸು ಶಾಂತವಾಗದೆ, ನಿದ್ರೆ ಸರಿಯಾಗಿ ಬರುವುದಿಲ್ಲ. ಇದರ ಪರಿಣಾಮವಾಗಿ ದೈಹಿಕ ಆರೋಗ್ಯ ಮತ್ತು ಅಧ್ಯಯನ ಸಾಮರ್ಥ್ಯ ಎರಡೂ ಕುಂಠಿತವಾಗುತ್ತವೆ.
6) ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿ :ಕುಟುಂಬ, ಸ್ನೇಹಿತರು ಮತ್ತು ಶಿಕ್ಷಕರ ಬೆಂಬಲವು ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಆರೋಗ್ಯವನ್ನು ಹೇಗೆ ರಕ್ಷಿಸುತ್ತದೆ?
ಮನೋವಿಜ್ಞಾನ ಸಹಾಯಕ ಪ್ರಾಧ್ಯಾಪಕಿ :
ಕುಟುಂಬ, ಸ್ನೇಹಿತರು ಮತ್ತು ಶಿಕ್ಷಕರಿಂದ ದೊರೆಯುವ ಬೆಂಬಲ ವ್ಯಕ್ತಿಗೆ ಭದ್ರತೆ ಮತ್ತು ಆತ್ಮವಿಶ್ವಾಸ ನೀಡುತ್ತದೆ. ಸಮಸ್ಯೆಗಳ ಸಂದರ್ಭದಲ್ಲಿ ಮಾತನಾಡಲು ಮತ್ತು ಸಹಾಯ ಪಡೆಯಲು ಅವಕಾಶ ದೊರೆಯುವುದರಿಂದ ಆತಂಕ ಕಡಿಮೆಯಾಗುತ್ತದೆ ಹಾಗೂ ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಸ್ಥಿರತೆ ಹೆಚ್ಚುತ್ತದೆ.
7) ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿ :ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿಗಳು ತಮ್ಮ ಸಮಸ್ಯೆಗಳ ಬಗ್ಗೆ ತೆರೆದಾಗಿ ಮಾತನಾಡಲು ಏಕೆ ಹಿಂಜರಿಯುತ್ತಾರೆ?
ಮನೋವಿಜ್ಞಾನ ಸಹಾಯಕ ಪ್ರಾಧ್ಯಾಪಕಿ :
ಅಪಮಾನವಾಗುವ ಭಯ, ಇತರರು ತೀರ್ಪು ನೀಡುತ್ತಾರೆ ಎಂಬ ಚಿಂತೆ ಮತ್ತು ಸಹಾಯ ಕೇಳುವುದು ದುರ್ಬಲತೆ ಎಂಬ ತಪ್ಪು ನಂಬಿಕೆಗಳು ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿಗಳನ್ನು ಹಿಂಜರಿಯುವಂತೆ ಮಾಡುತ್ತವೆ. ಇದರಿಂದ ಸಮಸ್ಯೆಗಳು ಮನಸ್ಸಿನೊಳಗೆ ಸಂಗ್ರಹವಾಗಿ ಗಂಭೀರವಾಗುತ್ತವೆ.
8) ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿ :ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಆರೋಗ್ಯ ಸಮಸ್ಯೆ ಇದ್ದಾಗ ಯಾವ ಹಂತದಲ್ಲಿ ತಜ್ಞರ ಸಹಾಯ ಪಡೆಯಬೇಕು?
ಮನೋವಿಜ್ಞಾನ ಸಹಾಯಕ ಪ್ರಾಧ್ಯಾಪಕಿ :
ಎರಡು ವಾರಗಳಿಗಿಂತ ಹೆಚ್ಚು ಕಾಲ ದುಃಖ, ಆತಂಕ ಅಥವಾ ಭಯ ಮುಂದುವರಿದರೆ, ನಿದ್ರೆ ಮತ್ತು ಊಟದ ಕ್ರಮದಲ್ಲಿ ಬದಲಾವಣೆ ಕಂಡುಬಂದರೆ ಅಥವಾ ದಿನನಿತ್ಯದ ಕಾರ್ಯಗಳು ಕಷ್ಟವಾಗುತ್ತಿದ್ದರೆ ತಜ್ಞರ ಸಹಾಯ ಪಡೆಯುವುದು ಅಗತ್ಯ. ಸ್ವತಃ ಅಥವಾ ಇತರರಿಗೆ ಹಾನಿ ಮಾಡುವ ಆಲೋಚನೆಗಳು ಬಂದರೆ ತಕ್ಷಣ ಸಹಾಯ ಪಡೆಯಬೇಕು.
9) ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿ :ಕೌನ್ಸೆಲಿಂಗ್ ಅಥವಾ ಥೆರಪಿ ಬಗ್ಗೆ ಯುವಜನರಲ್ಲಿ ಇರುವ ಮಿಥ್ಯೆಗಳೇನು?
ಮನೋವಿಜ್ಞಾನ ಸಹಾಯಕ ಪ್ರಾಧ್ಯಾಪಕಿ :
ಕೌನ್ಸೆಲಿಂಗ್ ಅಂದರೆ ದುರ್ಬಲತೆ, ಔಷಧಿ ಕಡ್ಡಾಯ ಅಥವಾ ಜೀವನಪೂರ್ತಿ ಚಿಕಿತ್ಸೆ ಬೇಕು ಎಂಬ ತಪ್ಪು ಕಲ್ಪನೆಗಳು ಸಾಮಾನ್ಯ. ವಾಸ್ತವದಲ್ಲಿ ಕೌನ್ಸೆಲಿಂಗ್ ಮತ್ತು ಥೆರಪಿ ಮಾತಿನ ಮೂಲಕ ಸಮಸ್ಯೆಯನ್ನು ಅರ್ಥಮಾಡಿಕೊಂಡು ಪರಿಹಾರ ಕಂಡುಕೊಳ್ಳುವ ವೈಜ್ಞಾನಿಕ ಪ್ರಕ್ರಿಯೆಗಳಾಗಿವೆ.
10) ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿ :“ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಆರೋಗ್ಯ ಸಹಾಯ ಪಡೆಯುವುದು ದುರ್ಬಲತೆ ಅಲ್ಲ” ಎಂಬ ಸಂದೇಶವನ್ನು ಯುವಜನರಿಗೆ ಹೇಗೆ ತಲುಪಿಸಬಹುದು?
ಮನೋವಿಜ್ಞಾನ ಸಹಾಯಕ ಪ್ರಾಧ್ಯಾಪಕಿ :
ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಆರೋಗ್ಯದ ಬಗ್ಗೆ ಮುಕ್ತ ಮತ್ತು ನಿರಂತರ ಸಂಭಾಷಣೆ ನಡೆಸಬೇಕು. ಕೌನ್ಸೆಲಿಂಗ್ ಅನ್ನು ರೋಗದಂತೆ ಅಲ್ಲ, ಸ್ವ-ಅಭಿವೃದ್ಧಿಯ ಭಾಗವಾಗಿ ಪರಿಚಯಿಸಿದರೆ ಯುವಜನರಲ್ಲಿ ಇರುವ ಭಯ ಕಡಿಮೆಯಾಗುತ್ತದೆ.
11) ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿ :ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿಗಳು ದಿನನಿತ್ಯ ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಆರೋಗ್ಯವನ್ನು ಕಾಪಾಡಿಕೊಳ್ಳಲು ಯಾವ ಸರಳ ಕ್ರಮಗಳನ್ನು ಪಾಲಿಸಬಹುದು?
ಮನೋವಿಜ್ಞಾನ ಸಹಾಯಕ ಪ್ರಾಧ್ಯಾಪಕಿ :
ನಿಯಮಿತ ನಿದ್ರೆ, ದಿನನಿತ್ಯ ಸ್ವಲ್ಪ ವ್ಯಾಯಾಮ, ಭಾವನೆಗಳನ್ನು ವಿಶ್ವಾಸಾರ್ಹ ವ್ಯಕ್ತಿಗಳೊಂದಿಗೆ ಹಂಚಿಕೊಳ್ಳುವುದು ಮತ್ತು ಕೆಲ ಸಮಯ ಸಾಮಾಜಿಕ ಜಾಲತಾಣಗಳಿಂದ ದೂರವಿರುವುದು ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಆರೋಗ್ಯಕ್ಕೆ ಸಹಾಯಕವಾಗುತ್ತದೆ.
12) ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿ :ಪೋಷಕರು ಮತ್ತು ಶಿಕ್ಷಕರು ಯುವಜನರ ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಆರೋಗ್ಯಕ್ಕೆ ಹೇಗೆ ಬೆಂಬಲ ನೀಡಬಹುದು?
ಮನೋವಿಜ್ಞಾನ ಸಹಾಯಕ ಪ್ರಾಧ್ಯಾಪಕಿ :
ತೀರ್ಪು ನೀಡದೇ ಕೇಳುವ ಮನೋಭಾವ, ಅತಿಯಾದ ನಿರೀಕ್ಷೆಗಳ ಬದಲು ಪ್ರಯತ್ನವನ್ನು ಮೆಚ್ಚುವುದು ಮತ್ತು ಮಾರ್ಗದರ್ಶನ ನೀಡುವುದು ಯುವಜನರಲ್ಲಿ ಭದ್ರತೆಯ ಭಾವನೆ ಮೂಡಿಸುತ್ತದೆ. ಇದು ಉತ್ತಮ ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಆರೋಗ್ಯಕ್ಕೆ ಭದ್ರ ಅಡಿಪಾಯವಾಗಿದೆ.

13) ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿ :ಈ ಮ್ಯಾಗಜಿನ್ ಓದುತ್ತಿರುವ ಯುವಜನರಿಗೆ ನಿಮ್ಮ ಒಂದು ಮುಖ್ಯ ಸಂದೇಶವೇನು?
ಮನೋವಿಜ್ಞಾನ ಸಹಾಯಕ ಪ್ರಾಧ್ಯಾಪಕಿ :
ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿಗಳ ಅಂಕಗಳು ಅಥವಾ ಸಾಧನೆಗಳು ಮಾತ್ರ ಅವರ ಮೌಲ್ಯವಲ್ಲ. ಅವರ ಭಾವನೆಗಳು ಮತ್ತು ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಆರೋಗ್ಯವೂ ಸಮಾನವಾಗಿ ಮಹತ್ವದವು. ಸಹಾಯ ಕೇಳುವುದು ದುರ್ಬಲತೆ ಅಲ್ಲ, ಅದು ಜವಾಬ್ದಾರಿಯ ಮತ್ತು ಧೈರ್ಯದ ನಡೆ.
ಸಮಾರೋಪ:-ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಆರೋಗ್ಯ ಇಂದಿನ ಯುವಜನರ ಜೀವನದಲ್ಲಿ ಅತ್ಯಂತ ಮಹತ್ವದ ವಿಷಯವಾಗಿದೆ. ಒತ್ತಡ, ಆತಂಕ ಮತ್ತು ಸವಾಲುಗಳು ಜೀವನದ ಸಹಜ ಭಾಗಗಳಾಗಿದ್ದರೂ, ಅವುಗಳನ್ನು ಒಬ್ಬರೇ ಹೊತ್ತುಕೊಳ್ಳಬೇಕೆಂಬ ಅನಿವಾರ್ಯತೆ ಇಲ್ಲ. ಸರಿಯಾದ ಅರಿವು, ಸಮಯಕ್ಕೆ ತಜ್ಞರ ಸಹಾಯ ಮತ್ತು ಕುಟುಂಬ–ಶಿಕ್ಷಕರ ಬೆಂಬಲ ದೊರೆತಾಗ ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಸಮಸ್ಯೆಗಳನ್ನು ಸಮರ್ಥವಾಗಿ ನಿಭಾಯಿಸಬಹುದು.
ಮಾನಸಿಕ ಆರೋಗ್ಯದ ಆರೈಕೆ ದುರ್ಬಲತೆಯಲ್ಲ, ಅದು ಸ್ವ-ಜವಾಬ್ದಾರಿ ಮತ್ತು ಆರೋಗ್ಯಕರ ಜೀವನದ ಸೂಚಕವಾಗಿದೆ. “ಮೌನವಾಗಿ ಹೋರಾಡುವುದಕ್ಕಿಂತ, ಮಾತಾಡಿ ಸಹಾಯ ಪಡೆಯುವುದು ಬದುಕನ್ನು ಸುಲಭಗೊಳಿಸುತ್ತದೆ.”

IRON MAN

ಬ್ರಿಟೀಷರು ಭಾರತವನ್ನು ಸುಮಾರು 200ಕ್ಕಿಂತ ಹೆಚ್ಚು ವರ್ಷ ಆಳಿದ ಬಳಿಕ 1947ರಲ್ಲಿ ನಮಗೆ ಸ್ವಾತಂತ್ರ ಬಂತು. ಆಗ 2 ಹೊಸ ದೇಶ ಈ ಭೂಪಟದಲ್ಲಿ ಕಾಣಿಸಿದವು. ಸಿಂಧ್ ಪ್ರಾಂತ್ಯದ ಹಲವು ರಾಜ ಮಹಾರಾಜರು ಭಾರತಕ್ಕೆ ಸೇರಲು ಒಪ್ಪುತ್ತಿರಲಿಲ್ಲ. ಆಗ ಸರ್ದಾರ್ ಪಟೇಲ್ರವರು ಭಾರತ ದೇಶವನ್ನು ಒಂದಾಗಿಸಲು ಪಟ್ಟ ಶ್ರಮ, ಸೇವೆಯಿಂದಾಗಿ ನಾವು ಇವತ್ತಿನ ಭಾರತದಲ್ಲಿ ಇದ್ದೇವೆ.ಇವತ್ತು ಅಂಡಮಾನ್ ದ್ವೀಪಗಳು ಭಾರತಕ್ಕೆ ಸೇರಲು ಇವರ ಶ್ರಮ ಕಾರಣ. ಭಾರತದಲ್ಲಿ 550ಕ್ಕೂ ಹೆಚ್ಚು ರಾಜಪ್ರಭುತ್ವ, ರಾಜ್ಯಗಳು ಮತ್ತು 10ಕ್ಕೂ ಹೆಚ್ಚು ಬ್ರಿಟಿಷ್ ಆಳ್ವಿಕೆಯ ಪ್ರಾಂತ್ಯಗಳು ಇದ್ದವು. ಈ ರಾಜ್ಯಗಳನ್ನು ಬ್ರಿಟಿಷ್ ಸರ್ಕಾರದ ಅಧಿಕಾರವನ್ನು ಒಪ್ಪಿಕೊಂಡ ರಾಜ ಕುಟುಂಬಗಳು ಆಳುತ್ತಿದ್ದವು. ಬ್ರಿಟಿಷರು ಹೊರಟು ಹೋದಾಗ, ಪರಮಾಧಿಕಾರವು ಕಳೆದು ಹೋಗಲಿದ್ದು, ಕಾರಣ ಸರ್ದಾರ್ ವಲ್ಲಭಬಾಯಿ ಪಟೇಲ್ ರಾಜರುಗಳನ್ನು ಭಾರತದ ಹೊಸ ಒಕ್ಕೂಟಕ್ಕೆ ಸೇರುವಂತೆ ಕೇಳಿಕೊಂಡರು. 1947ರ ಮೊದಲ ರಾಜರು ಸೇರಲು ಒಪ್ಪಿಕೊಂಡರೆ, ಅವರು ಖಾಸಗಿ ನಿಧಿಗಳಿಗೆ ಅರ್ಹರಾಗಿರುತ್ತಾರೆ ಎಂದು ತೀರ್ಮಾನವಾಗಿತ್ತು. ಸರ್ದಾರ್ ವಲ್ಲಭಬಾಯಿ ಪಟೇಲ್ರವರು ಭಾರತದ ಪ್ರಥಮ ಉಪಪ್ರಧಾನಿಯಾಗಿದ್ದು ಹಾಗೂ ಭಾರತದ ಪ್ರಥಮ ಕೇಂದ್ರ ಗೃಹ ಸಚಿವರಾಗಿ 15 ಆಗಸ್ಟ್ 1947 ರಿಂದ 15 ಡಿಸೆಂಬರ್ 1950 ರವರೆಗೆ ಕಾರ್ಯನಿರ್ವಹಿಸಿದ್ದರು. ಸರ್ದಾರ್ ಒಬ್ಬ ಪ್ರವೀಣ ರಾಜತಾಂತ್ರಿಕರಾಗಿದ್ದರು. ಬಹುತೇಕ ಎಲ್ಲಾ ಭಾರತೀಯ ಆಡಳಿತ ಗಾರರು ಸ್ನೇಹಪರ ಮತ್ತು ಶಾಂತಿಯ ಚರ್ಚೆಗಳ ಮೂಲಕ ಭಾರತಕ್ಕೆ ಸೇರಲು ಮನವರಿಕೆ ಮಾಡಿಕೊಂಡಿದ್ದರು. ತಮ್ಮ ರಾಜ್ಯದ ರಕ್ಷಣೆ, ವಿದೇಶಾಂಗ ವ್ಯವಹಾರ ಗಳು ಮತ್ತು ಸಂವಹನಗಳನ್ನು ಭಾರತ ಸರ್ಕಾರಕ್ಕೆ ಹಸ್ತಾಂತರಿಸಿದರೆ ಅವರು ತಮ್ಮ ಆಡಳಿತ ಅಧಿಕಾರವನ್ನು ಕಳೆದುಕೊಳ್ಳುತ್ತಿದ್ದರೂ,

ಹೊಸ ರಾಷ್ಟ್ರದ "ಸಹ-ವಾಸ್ತುಶಿಲ್ಪಿ ಗಳಾಗಬಹುದೆಂಬ ಸರ್ದಾರ್ ಅವರ ವಿನಂತಿಯನ್ನು ರಾಜಕುಮಾರರು ಪಾಲಿಸಿದರು. ಕೆಲವು ರಾಜ್ಯಗಳು ತೊಂದರೆಗಳನ್ನು ತಂದೊಡ್ಡಿದವು. ವಲ್ಲಭಬಾಯಿಪಟೇಲ್ ಇವುಗಳನ್ನು ಜಾಣ್ಮೆಯಿಂದ ನಿಭಾಯಿಸಿ ಅವರುಗಳನ್ನು ಭಾರತಕ್ಕೆ ಸೇರುವಂತೆ ಒತ್ತಾಯಿಸಿದ್ದರೂ, ಒಪ್ಪದಿದ್ದಲ್ಲಿ ಅವರ ಆಸ್ತಾನವನ್ನು ಒತ್ತಾಯಪೂರ್ವಕವಾಗಿ ಸೇರಿಸುವಂತೆ ಮಾಡುತ್ತಿದ್ದರು. ಸರ್ದಾರ್ ವಲ್ಲಭಬಾಯಿ ಪಟೇಲ್ ಅವರು ಹೈದರಾಬಾದ್ ಅನ್ನು ಭಾರತಕ್ಕೆ ವಿಲೀನಗೊಳಿಸುವಲ್ಲಿ ನಿರ್ಣಾಯಕ ಪಾತ್ರ ವಹಿಸಿದ್ದರು. ಅವರು "ಆಪರೇಶನ್ ಪೋಲೋ" ಎಂದು ಕರೆಯಲ್ಪಡುವ ಮಿಲಿಟರಿ ಕಾರ್ಯಾಚರಣೆಯನ್ನು ಮುನ್ನಡೆಸಿದ್ದರು. ಇದರ ಪರಿಣಾಮವಾಗಿ ಸೆಪ್ಟೆಂಬರ್ ೧೯ಳಲರಲ್ಲಿ ರಾಜ್ಯವು ಸ್ವಾಧೀನಕ್ಕೆ ಬಂದಿತು. ಹೈದರಾಬಾದ್ ನಿಜಾಮರನ್ನು ಭಾರತಕ್ಕೆ ವಿಲೀನಗೊಳಿಸಲು ಮನವೊಲಿಸುವ ರಾಜಕಾಯಕ ಪ್ರಯತ್ನಗಳು ವಿಫಲವಾದ ನಂತರ ಈ ಕ್ರಮ ಕೈಗೊಳ್ಳಲಾಯಿತು. ಈ ನಿರ್ಣಾಯಕ ಸೇವೆ ಹಾಗೂ ಅವರಲ್ಲಿ ಭಾರತಕ್ಕೆ ಇದ್ದ ಪ್ರೀತಿ, ಭಾರತಕ್ಕೆ ನೀಡಿದ ಸೇವೆಗೆ ಅವರನ್ನು "ಐರನ್ ಮ್ಯಾನ್ ಆಫ್ ಇಂಡಿಯಾ" ಎಂದು ಕರೆಯಲಾಗುತ್ತದೆ.

ನಮ್ಮ ಕಣ್ಣಿಗೆ ಕಾಣುವ ಪ್ರಪಂಚದ ಹಿಂದೆ, ನಮಗೆ ತಿಳಿಯದ ಇನ್ನೊಂದು ಕರಾಳ ಸತ್ಯ ಅಡಗಿದೆ. ನಾವು ಕಾಕತಾಳೀಯ ಎಂದು ನಂಬುವ ಘಟನೆಗಳ ಹಿಂದೆ ಯಾರೋ ಅಥವಾ ಯಾವುದೋ ಶಕ್ತಿಯ ಕೈವಾಡವಿರುತ್ತದೆ.
ಇಂದಿನ ಕಥೆ: 'ನೆರಳಿನ ಹಿಂದೆ ಇರುವ ಸತ್ಯ'.
ಗಮನ ವಿಟ್ಟು ಕೇಳಿ... ಯಾಕಂದ್ರೆ ಸತ್ಯ ಯಾವಾಗಲೂ ನೆರಳಿನಲ್ಲೇ ಅಡಗಿರುತ್ತದೆ!"
ಕಥೆಯ ಶೀರ್ಷಿಕೆ: "ನೆರಳಿನ ಹಿಂದೆ ಇರುವ ಸತ್ಯ
ರಾಮ್ ಬಾಲ್ಯದಿಂದಲೇ ಸ್ವಲ್ಪ ವಿಭಿನ್ನನಾಗಿ ಕಾಣುತ್ತಿದ್ದ. ಇತರ ಮಕ್ಕಳು ಭೂತಗಳ ಕಥೆ ಕೇಳಿದಾಗ ಹೆದರಿಕೊಂಡು ದೊಡ್ಡವರ ಹತ್ತಿರ ಸೇರಿಕೊಳ್ಳುತ್ತಿದ್ದರೆ, ಅವನ ಮನಸ್ಸಿನಲ್ಲಿ ಭಯಕ್ಕಿಂತ ಕುತೂಹಲವೇ ಹೆಚ್ಚು ಮೂಡುತ್ತಿತ್ತು. "ಆ ಭೂತಕ್ಕೆ ಸಾಕ್ಷಿ ಏನು?" ಎಂಬ ಪ್ರಶ್ನೆ ಅವನಿಗೆ ಸಹಜವಾಗಿತ್ತು. ವಿಜ್ಞಾನ ಶಿಕ್ಷಕರಾಗಿದ್ದ ಅವನ ತಂದೆ, ಅರ್ಥವಾಗದ ವಿಷಯವನ್ನು ಭಯಪಡುವುದಕ್ಕಿಂತ ಅದನ್ನು ಅರ್ಥಮಾಡಿಕೊಳ್ಳಲು ಪ್ರಯತ್ನಿಸಬೇಕು ಎಂದು ಮೃದುವಾಗಿ ಹೇಳುತ್ತಿದ್ದರು. "ಭಯ ಅಜ್ಞಾನದಿಂದ ಹುಟ್ಟುತ್ತದೆ" ಎಂಬ ಅವರ ಮಾತು ರಾಮ್ ಮನಸ್ಸಿನಲ್ಲಿ ನಿಧಾನವಾಗಿ ನೆಲೆಯೂರಿತು. ಆ ಚಿಕ್ಕ ಪಾಠವೇ ಅವನ ಜೀವನದ ದಾರಿಯನ್ನು ರೂಪಿಸಿತು; ಸತ್ಯವನ್ನು ಹುಡುಕುವುದು ಅವನಿಗೆ ಕೇವಲ ಆಸೆಯಲ್ಲ, ಒಂದು ಹೊಣೆಗಾರಿಕೆಯಾಯಿತು. ಕಾಲ ಕಳೆದಂತೆ ಅವನು ಯುವ ಪತ್ರಕರ್ತನಾಗಿ ಬೆಳೆದನು, ಮತ್ತು ಪ್ರತಿಯೊಂದು ಸುದ್ದಿಯ ಹಿಂದೆ ಅಡಗಿರುವ ನಿಜವನ್ನು ತಿಳಿಯಬೇಕೆಂಬ ಉತ್ಸಾಹ ಅವನನ್ನು ಮುನ್ನಡೆಸುತ್ತಿತ್ತು.ಒಂದು ದಿನ ಸಂಪಾದಕರು ಪರ್ವತಗಳ ಮಧ್ಯೆ ಇರುವ ಒಂದು ಚಿಕ್ಕ ಹಳ್ಳಿಯ ಬಗ್ಗೆ ಮಾತನಾಡಿದರು. ಅಲ್ಲಿ ಇರುವ ಒಂದು ಹಳೆಯ ಮನೆ ಕುರಿತು ಜನರಲ್ಲಿ ವಿಚಿತ್ರ ಭಯ ಹರಡಿಕೊಂಡಿತ್ತು. ಅಲ್ಲಿ ಹೋದವರು ಮರಳಿ ಬರುತ್ತಿಲ್ಲ ಎಂಬ ಊಹಾಪೋಹಗಳು ಹಳ್ಳಿಯಲ್ಲೆಲ್ಲ ಹರಡಿದ್ದವು. ರಾಮ್ ಇದನ್ನು ಕೇಳಿ ಹೊರಗೆ ನಗು ತೋರಿಸಿದರೂ, ಈ ಸನ್ನಿವೇಶಗಳ ಹಿಂದೆ ಏನೋ ಅಜ್ಞಾತ ಸತ್ಯ ಅಡಗಿದೆ ಎಂಬ ಭಾವನೆ ಅವನೊಳಗೆ ಮೂಡಿತು. ಅದನ್ನು ಕಂಡುಹಿಡಿಯಬೇಕೆಂಬ ನಿರ್ಧಾರ ನಿಧಾನವಾಗಿ ಗಟ್ಟಿಯಾಯಿತು. ಸಂಜೆ ಹೊತ್ತಿಗೆ ಹಳ್ಳಿಗೆ ತಲುಪಿದಾಗ, ಅಲ್ಲಿ ಆವರಿಸಿದ್ದ ನಿಶ್ಯಬ್ದ ಅವನ ಗಮನ ಸೆಳೆಯಿತು. ಗಾಳಿ ಬೀಸುವ ಶಬ್ದವೂ ಅಸಹಜವಾಗಿ ಕೇಳಿಸುತ್ತಿತ್ತು. ಚಹಾ ಅಂಗಡಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ಮನೆ ಬಗ್ಗೆ ಕೇಳುತ್ತಿದ್ದಂತೆ ಜನರ ಮುಖದಲ್ಲಿ ಕಾಣಿಸಿದ ಆತಂಕ ಸ್ಪಷ್ಟವಾಗಿತ್ತು; ಅವರು ಹೇಳಿದ ಕಥೆಗಳು ಕೇಳಿದ ಮಾತುಗಳಾಗಿದ್ದರೂ, ಅವರ ಕಣ್ಣುಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಕಂಡ ಭಯ ನಿಜವಾಗಿತ್ತು.
ಆ ರಾತ್ರಿ ಮನೆಗೆ ಹೋಗುವ ನಿರ್ಧಾರ ಮಾಡಿದ ರಾಮ್, ಮಂಕಾದ ಚಂದ್ರಬೆಳಕಿನಲ್ಲಿ ಮನೆಯ ಮುಂದೆ ನಿಂತಾಗ ಗಾಳಿಯಿಂದ ಹಳೆಯ ಬಾಗಿಲಿನ ಶಬ್ದ ವಾತಾವರಣವನ್ನು ಇನ್ನಷ್ಟು ಭಾರವಾಗಿಸಿತು. ಒಳಗೆ ಕಾಲಿಟ್ಟ ಕ್ಷಣದಲ್ಲಿ ಧೂಳಿನ ವಾಸನೆ, ಖಾಲಿ ಗೋಡೆಗಳು ಮತ್ತು ಆವರಿಸಿದ್ದ ಒಂಟಿತನ ಅವನ ಮನಸ್ಸನ್ನು ಕ್ಷಣಕಾಲ ಕದಡಿತು. ಮೇಲ್ಮಹಡಿಯಿಂದ ಕೇಳಿಬಂದ ಹೆಜ್ಜೆಯ ಶಬ್ದ ಅವನ ಹೃದಯದ ಬಡಿತವನ್ನು ವೇಗಗೊಳಿಸಿತು; ಕೈಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಸಣ್ಣ ನಡುಕು ಮೂಡಿದರೂ ಆತ ತನ್ನ ಮನಸ್ಸನ್ನು ಸಮಾಧಾನಪಡಿಸಿಕೊಂಡ. ಮೇಲಕ್ಕೆ ಹೋದಾಗ ಗೋಡೆಯ ಮೇಲೆ ಕದಲುತ್ತಿದ್ದ ದೊಡ್ಡ ನೆರಳು ಒಂದು ಕ್ಷಣ ಭಯ ಹುಟ್ಟಿಸಿತು, ಆದರೆ ಗಮನಿಸಿದಾಗ ಅದು ಕಿಟಕಿಯ ಹೊರಗಿನ ಮರದ ಕೊಂಬೆಗಳ ನೆರಳು ಎಂಬುದು ತಿಳಿಯಿತು. ಅವನು ತನ್ನಲ್ಲಿಯೇ, "ಓ, ದೃಷ್ಟಿಭ್ರಮೆ," ಎಂದುಕೊಂಡ. ಆ ಕ್ಷಣದಲ್ಲಿ ಭಯ ಎಷ್ಟು ಸುಲಭವಾಗಿ ನಮ್ಮ ಮನಸ್ಸನ್ನು ಮೋಸಗೊಳಿಸಬಹುದು ಎಂಬ ಅರಿವು ಅವನಿಗೆ ಮೂಡಿತು.
ಮುಂದಿನ ಕೋಣೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ಕಂಡ ಕೆಂಪು ಗುರುತುಗಳು ಮೊದಲ ನೋಟಕ್ಕೆ ರಕ್ತದಂತೆ ಕಾಣಿಸಿಕೊಂಡವು. ಹಳ್ಳಿ ಜನರ ಮಾತುಗಳು ಅವನ ಮನಸ್ಸಿನಲ್ಲಿ ಮರುಕಳಿಸಿದವು. ಆದರೆ ಹತ್ತಿರದಿಂದ ಪರಿಶೀಲಿಸಿದಾಗ ಅದು ಕೇವಲ ಬಣ್ಣವಾಗಿರುವುದು ಗೊತ್ತಾಯಿತು. ಯಾರೋ ಉದ್ದೇಶಪೂರ್ವಕವಾಗಿ ಭಯವನ್ನು ಸೃಷ್ಟಿಸುತ್ತಿದ್ದಾರೆ ಎಂಬ ಅನುಮಾನ ಅವನಲ್ಲಿ ಬಲವತ್ತಾಯಿತು. ಅಷ್ಟರಲ್ಲಿ ದೂರದಿಂದ ಕೇಳಿಬಂದ ಕಿರುಚುವ ಶಬ್ದ ವಾತಾವರಣವನ್ನು ಚೀರಿದಂತಾಯಿತು; ಆ ಶಬ್ದದಲ್ಲಿ ನೋವು, ಭಯ ಮತ್ತು ಸಹಾಯಕ್ಕಾಗಿ ಮಾಡಿದ ಬೇಡಿಕೆ ಸ್ಪಷ್ಟವಾಗಿತ್ತು. ಆ ದಿಕ್ಕಿನಲ್ಲಿ ಹೋಗುತ್ತಿದ್ದ ರಾಮ್ ಒಂದು ಗುಪ್ತ ದಾರಿಯನ್ನು ಕಂಡುಹಿಡಿದನು. ಭೂಗರ್ಭದ ಕೋಣೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ಬಂಧಿತನಾಗಿದ್ದ ಯುವಕನ ಕಣ್ಣಲ್ಲಿ ಕಂಡ ನಿರಾಶೆ ಮತ್ತು ಭಯ ಆ ಸ್ಥಳದ ನಿಜವನ್ನು ಹೇಳುತ್ತಿದ್ದವು.

ಅವನನ್ನು ಬಿಡಿಸಿದ ನಂತರ ನಿಧಾನವಾಗಿ ಸತ್ಯ ಹೊರಬಂತು – ಭೂತದ ಕಥೆಗಳ ಹಿಂದೆ ಮನುಷ್ಯರ ವಂಚನೆ ಅಡಗಿತ್ತು; ಜನರ ಭಯವನ್ನು ಬಳಸಿಕೊಂಡು ದರೋಡೆಕೋರರು ದರೋಡೆ ಮಾಡುತ್ತಿದ್ದರು. ಅಷ್ಟರಲ್ಲಿ ಮೇಲಿನಿಂದ ಮತ್ತೆ ಕೇಳಿಬಂದ ಶಬ್ದಗಳನ್ನು ಪರಿಶೀಲಿಸಿದಾಗ ತಿಳಿದು ಬಂದದ್ದು, ಅಲ್ಲಿದ್ದ ದರೋಡೆಕೋರರು ನಡೆಯುತ್ತಿದ್ದ ಹೆಜ್ಜೆ ಶಬ್ದವೇ ಹಳ್ಳಿಯೆಲ್ಲ ಭಯ ಮತ್ತು ಗಲಿಬಿಲಿಯನ್ನು ಹರಡಿಸಿತು. ಕ್ಷಣಕಾಲ ಅಪಾಯದ ಭಾವನೆ ಮೂಡಿದರೂ ರಾಮ್ ಈಗಾಗಲೇ ಎಲ್ಲವನ್ನೂ ದಾಖಲಿಸಿದ್ದನು. ಕೆಲವೇ ಕ್ಷಣಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಪೊಲೀಸ್ ಸೈರನ್ ಕೇಳಿಬಂದು ನಿಶ್ಯಬ್ದ ಮುರಿಯಿತು ಮತ್ತು ಸತ್ಯ ಬೆಳಕಿಗೆ ಬಂದಿತು. ಮರುದಿನ ಹಳ್ಳಿಯವರು ನಿಜವನ್ನು ಅರಿತುಕೊಂಡರು; ಅವರು ನಂಬಿದ್ದದ್ದು ಭೂತವಲ್ಲ, ಭಯವೇ ಎಂಬುದು ಅವರಿಗೆ ತಿಳಿಯಿತು. ತನ್ನ ಲೇಖನದ ಕೊನೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ರಾಮ್ ಒಂದು ವಿಚಾರವನ್ನು ಬರೆದನು – ಪ್ರಶ್ನೆಗಳು ನಿಲ್ಲುವಲ್ಲಿ ಮೂಢನಂಬಿಕೆ ಆರಂಭವಾಗುತ್ತದೆ, ಪ್ರಶ್ನೆಗಳು ಹುಟ್ಟುವಲ್ಲಿ ವಿಜ್ಞಾನ ಜೀವಂತವಾಗುತ್ತದೆ. ಆ ಅನುಭವದ ನಂತರ ಅವನು ಮತ್ತೊಮ್ಮೆ ಅರಿತುಕೊಂಡದ್ದು, ಭೂತಗಳು ಇರದೇ ಇರಬಹುದು, ಆದರೆ ಭಯವನ್ನು ಆಯುಧವನ್ನಾಗಿಸಿಕೊಂಡ ಮನುಷ್ಯರು ಖಂಡಿತ ಇರುತ್ತಾರೆ.

آزادیاں وہ اب اپنے گھونسلے کی		اپنی خوشی سے آنا اپنی خوشی سے جانا
لگتی ہے چوٹ دل پر آتا ہے یاد جس دم		شبنم کے آنسوؤں پر کلیوں کا مسکرانا
وہ پیاری پیاری صورت وہ کامنی سی مورت		آباد جس کے دم سے تھا میرا آشیانا
آتی نہیں صدائیں اس کے میرے قفس میں		ہوتی میری رہائی اے کاش میرے بس میں
کیا بدنصیب ہوں میں گھر کو ترس رہا ہوں		ساتھی تو ہیں وطن میں میں قید میں پڑا ہوں
آئی بہار کلیاں پھولوں کی ہنس رہی ہیں		میں اس اندھیرے گھر میں قسمت کو رو رہا ہوں
اس قید کا الٰہی دکھڑا کسے سناؤں		ڈالے ہیں قفس میں ، میں غم سے مر نہ جاؤں
چپ سے چمن چھٹا ہے یہ حال ہوگیا ہے		دل غم کو کھا رہا ہے غم دل کو کھا رہا ہے
گانا اسے سمجھ کر خوش ہوں نہ سننے والے		دکھے ہوئے دلوں کی فریاد یہ صدا ہے
آزاد مج کو کردے اور قید کرنے والے		میں بے زباں ہوں قیدی تو چھوڑ کر دعا لے

ہوا آہستہ چلتی ہے ، کچھ کہتی بھی نہیں		دریا چپ چاپ بہتا ہے، مگر رکتا بھی نہیں
نیلا سا آسمان آج کچھ کم بولتا ہے		سورج کی روشنی بھی آنکھیں چبھوتی نہیں

پھول کھلے ہیں مگر شور نہیں مچاتے		خوشبو ہے پاس، مگر دور بھی نہیں جاتی
چاند پوری رات جاگے، پھر بھی خاموش رہے		وہ جیسے دیکھتا سب ہے، مگر پوچھتا نہیں
یہ منظر سب کچھ کہہ کر ٹھہر جاتا ہے		بس کسی کا نام لے کر پکارتا نہیں

ہم دیکھے تو گئے، مگر اختیار نہ بن سکے		پسند تو آئے، مگر اعتبار نہ بن سکے
دل میں جگہ تھی نام کسی اور کا رہا		ہم قربتوں میں بھی رشتہ دار نہ بن سکے
ہر موڑ پر کہا گیا، بس تھوڑا سا صبر		یہ صبر ہی عمر بھر کا انتظار نہ بن سکے
وہ جنہیں کم جانا گیا وہی چُن لئے گئے		ہم سب جان کر بھی معیار نہ بن سکے
ہم نے کبھی ضد نہیں کی، نہ شور مچایا		شاید اسی لئے ہم امیدوار نہ بن سکے
آخر میں یہی سچ ہاتھ آیا ہمیں		ہم مناسب تھے۔۔۔مگر اختیار نہ بن سکے

کامیابی یا سکون: کس کی تلاش

از: مسکان خانم،

سال دوم، بی کام

آج کے دور میں کامیابی کو اکثر دولت، نام اور مقام سے ناپا جاتا ہے۔ ہمیں بتایا جاتا ہے کہ اگر ہم اچھی ڈگری حاصل کرلیں۔ ایک مستحکم نوکری مل جائے، اور لوگ ہمیں پہچاننے لگیں تو ہم کامیاب کہلائیں گے۔ لیکن اس دوران ایک سوال خاموشی سے ابھرتا ہے، کیا کامیابی ہمیشہ سکون بھی ساتھ لاتی ہے؟

بہت سے لوگ اسی زندگی کا بڑا حصہ کامیابی کے پیچھے دوڑتے ہوئے گزار دیتے ہیں، دیر رات تک محنت، مسلسل دباؤ اور

دوسروں کی توقعات کو وہ معمول سمجھ لتے ہیں۔ آہستہ آہستہ یہ سب اتنا عادت بن جاتا ہے کہ جب کامیابی مل جاتی ہے تو سکون محسوس نہیں ہوتا۔ دل مطمئن اور ذہن ہمیشہ اگلے ہدف کی طرف بھاگتا رہتا ہے۔

اس دوڑ میں ہم اکثر اپنی خوشی، صحت اور رشتے پیچھے چھوڑ دیتے ہیں، ہم یہ بھول جاتے ہیں کہ کامیابی کا مطلب صرف حاصل کرنا ہے۔ بلکہ زندگی کو محسوس کرنا بھی ہے۔ اگر ہم اپنی منزل تک پہنچ کر بھی خود کو خالی محسوس کریں تو پھر یہ سوال اٹھتا ہے کہ ہم اصل میں کس چیز کی تلاش میں تھے۔

سکون کوئی ایسی چیز نہیں جو صرف کامیابی کے بعد ملتی ہو۔ بعض اوقات سکون اس سفر میں ہوتا ہے جہاں ہم اپنے آپ کے ساتھ سجے رہتے ہیں، جب ہم اپنی حدود کو پہنچانتے ہیں، اپنی محنت کی قدر کرتے ہیں اور ہر چیز کو مکمل بنانے کی ضد چھوڑ دیتے ہیں اصل کامیابی شاید وہی ہے، جہاں ہم دل اور ذہن دونوں کو ساتھ لے کر چل سکیں۔ جہاں مقاصد ہوں، مگر خود کو کھونا نہ پڑے، جہاں محنت ہو، سکون بھرا ہو، کیونکہ آخر میں وہ کامیابی جو سکون چھین لے، وہ کامیابی نہیں۔

خود پر یقین

از: افصیٰ نور عین

سال اول، بی بی اے

زندگی میں سب سے بڑی طاقت خود پر یقین ہے، جب انسان اپنی صلاحیتوں پر اعتماد کرنا سیکھ لیتا ہے تو کوئی بھی مشکل اسے کمزور نہیں کر سکتی۔ اکثر ہم دوسروں کی رائے سے اتنے متاثر ہو جاتے ہیں کہ اپنی آواز سننا بھول جاتے ہیں۔ حالانکہ اصل راستہ ہمارے دل کے اندر ہوتا ہے۔ ناکامی انسان کو توڑنے نہیں بلکہ مضبوط بنانے آتی ہے۔ ہر ٹھوکر ہمیں کچھ نہ کچھ سکھا جاتی ہے، اور ہر مشکل کے بعد آسانی ضرور آتی ہے۔ جو لوگ ہمت نہیں ہارتے، وہی اپنے خوابوں کو حقیقت میں بدلتے ہیں۔

خود سے محبت کرنا، اپنی قدر پہچاننا اور صبر کے ساتھ آگے بڑھتے رہنا ہی کامیابی کا اصل راز ہے۔ یاد رکھیں جو انسان خود پر یقین رکھتا ہے، وہ دنیا میں اپنی الگ پہچان بنا لیتا ہے۔

آخر میں یہی کہا جا سکتا ہے کہ خود پر یقین وہ روشنی ہے جو زندگی کے اندھیروں میں راستہ دکھاتی ہے، جو انسان اس روشنی کو دل میں جلا لیتا ہے، وہ نہ صرف اپنے خواب پورے کرتا ہے بلکہ دوسروں کے لئے بھی امید کی مثال بن جاتا ہے۔

جدید اردو غزل کا ایک منفرد باغی تمہید اردو ادب کے وہ درخشندہ ستارے ہیں جن کی چمک وقت ساتھ بڑھتی جارہی ہے، وہ شخص ایک شاعر نہیں بلکہ ایک فلسفی اور مفکر تھے، ان کا تعلق امروہہ (بھارت) سے تھا، لیکن قیام پاکستان کے بعد وہ کراچی منتقل ہوگئے۔ جون نے روایتی شاعری کے بجائے سچائی اور بے باکی کو اپنایا، ان کے کلام میں تنہائی، اداسی اور معاشرتی منافقت کا گہرا ذکر ملتا ہے۔ وہ تاریخ، فلسفہ اور منطق کے ماہر تھے، جس کا عکس ان کی شاعری میں نظر آتا ہے۔ منتخب اشعار:

جو گزاری نہ جاسکی ہم سے :: ہم نے وہ زندگی گزاری ہے

اب نہیں کوئی بات خطرے کی :: اب سبھی کو سبھی سے خطرہ ہے

बिखरे लफ़्ज़ों में ढूँढता हूँ तेरा नाम, हर शेर में बस तेरा ही पैग़ाम।

चाहत की राहों में खो गया हूँ मैं, तू मिल जाए तो मुकम्मल हो मेरा अंजाम।

ख़ामोश रातों से करता हूँ तेरी गुफ़्तगू,
तन्हाई भी अब लगती है तेरी जुस्तजू।

वक़्त के हर मोड़ पर तेरा ही इंतज़ार रहा,
मैं ठहरा रहा, और जहाँ बस गुज़रता रहा।

अगर क़िस्मत लिखने का इख़्तियार मिल जाए मुझे, तेरे बाद कुछ न लिखूँ— बस तू ही तू रहे।

तू न हो तो हर लफ़्ज़ अधूरा सा लगता है,
और तेरा होना ही मेरी हर नज़्म का मतलब बन जाता है।

डिजिटल युग और युवा पीढ़ी

भूमिका :
आज हम ऐसे दौर में जी रहे हैं जहाँ जीवन का हर क्षेत्र डिजिटल क्रांति से प्रभावित है। तकनीक अब केवल सुविधा का साधन नहीं रही, बल्कि यह हमारी सोच, व्यवहार और सपनों का हिस्सा बन चुकी है।इस युग में युवापीढ़ी सबसे अधिक सक्रिय और सशक्त भूमिका निभा रही है।
मुख्य भाग :
डिजिटल साधनों ने युवाओं को नए अवसरों से जोड़ा है।शिक्षा अब केवल कक्षा तक सीमित नहीं रही; इंटरनेट, ऑनलाइन पुस्तकालय, वर्चुअल कक्षाएँ और ई-लर्निंग प्लेटफ़ॉर्म ने ज्ञान की सीमाएँ तोड़ दीहैं।
इसी प्रकार, युवा अपनी प्रतिभा को सोशल मीडिया, ब्लॉग और ऑनलाइन मंचों पर प्रस्तुत कर विश्व स्तर पर पहचान बना रहेहैं।
लेकिन इसके साथ चुनौतियाँ भी हैं ।डिजिटल माध्यम जहाँ जानकारी का भंडार है, वहीं यह भटकाव और समय की बर्बादी का कारण भी बन सकता है।निरर्थक स्क्रॉलिंग, फेकन्यूज़ और डिजिटल नशा युवाओं की एकाग्रता और रचनात्मकता को कमजोर करता है।इसीलिए डिजिटल युग में सबसे ज़रूरी है विवेकपूर्ण उपयोग।
युवापीढ़ी को यह समझना होगा कितकनीक साधन है, लक्ष्य नहीं।यदि इसका उपयोग सही दिशा में किया जाए तो यही तकनीक बेरोज़गारी की समस्या का समाधान बन सकती है, उद्यमिता को प्रोत्साहन दे सकती है और भारत को आत्मनिर्भर बना सकती है।

निष्कर्ष:

डिजिटल युग ने युवाओं को असीमित संभावनाएँ दी हैं।अब यह हमारे हाथ में है कि हम इनसं भावनाओं को अवसर में बदलें।यदि युवा अपने समय, ऊर्जा और तकनीक का सही उपयोग करें तो निश्चित ही वे भारत को डिजिटल महाशक्ति बना सकते हैं।

सच कहा गया है — "तकनीक तब तक श्रेष्ठ है जब तक वह मानवता की सेवा में हो।"

युवापीढ़ी यदि इस आदर्श को अपनाए तो डिजिटल युग केवल परिवर्तन नहीं, बल्कि प्रगति का युग सिद्ध होगा।

रेगिस्तान में पानी डालना

सपना:

यह सपना मेरी

बी सी ए ग्रेजुएशन के दिन से शुरू होता है ।कैपस भावनाओं से भरा था—बहुत से छात्र अपनी आखिरी मुलाकात होने के कारण अपने चाहनेवालों को प्रपोज़ कर रहे थे।मेरी भी एक क्रश थी, पर मैंने कभी अपने दिल की बात नहीं बताई।

जैसे ही ग्रेजुएशन पार्टी खत्म होने लगी, मैं वहाँ रुकने के बजाय चुपचाप कॉलेज से निकल गया और अपनी बाइक पर सवार हो गया। मेरे मन में कोई मंज़िल नहीं थी—मैं बस चलाता गया।अंत में, मैं खुद को एक ऐसी सड़क पर पाया जो चामुंडी पर्वत की ओर जा रही थी।आखिरी पल में, मैं पहाड़ वाली सड़क से मुड़ गया और एक अलग रास्ता ले लिया।

बाइक चलाते समय, एक विचार अचानक मेरे मन में आया: "अगर मैंने उसे कभी नहीं बताया कि मैं क्या महसूस करता हूँ, तो मुझे ज़िंदगी भर इसका पछतावा रहेगा।"इसी बात ने मुझे उसके घर की ओर जाने के लिए प्रेरित किया।

जबतक मैं पहुँचा, शाम रात में बदल चुकी थी, लगभग 7 से 10 बजे के बीच।वह एक इमारत की सबसे ऊपरी मंज़िल पर रहती थी।रात की हवा ठंडी और तेज़ थी।उसके घर के सामने, पड़ोसी का घर बगीचे की लाइटों से चमक रहा था, जैसे वे कोई जश्न मना रहे हों।

मैं सीढ़ियाँ चढ़कर उसके दरवाज़े के सामने रुक गया।मेरा दिल ज़ोर से धड़क रहा था।खिड़कियाँ बंद थीं, अंदर की लाइटें बंद थीं।एक पल के लिए, मुझे लगा कि वे पहले ही सो चुके हैं।चाँद की रोशनी से गलियारे में हल्की चमक थी। फिर भी, मैंने हिम्मत जुटाई और उसके दरवाज़े पर तीन बार दस्तक दी।

सुबह से लेकर अब तक, मैंने उसकी आवाज़ नहीं सुनी थी—और मुझे उम्मीद नहीं थी कि कोई जवाब देगा।लेकिन जिस पल मैंने दस्तक दी, उसकी आवाज़ दरवाज़े के पार से आई: "अरीं—आतीहूँ।"

उसकी आवाज़ मेरे अंदर ज़िंदगी के लौटने जैसी थी।मेरा सारा डर गाय बहो गया, उसकी जगह शांति आ गई।जब उसने दरवाज़ा खोला, मैंने धीरे से अभिवादन किया, "अस्सलाम वालेकुम।"वह मुस्कुराई और जवाब दिया, "वालेकुम अस्सलाम।"उसे उम्मीद नहीं थी कि मैं इतनी देर से आऊँगा।

मैं उसके पीछे -पीछे अंदर गया, लेकिन जैसे ही मैं अंदर गया, उसके बड़े भाई—जो कि बहुत धार्मिक व्यक्ति हैं—ने मुझे देख लिया।वह उनके साथ रहती थी, और मैंने उन्हें भी आदर पूर्वक नमस्कार किया।उसने मुझे उनसे मिलवाया, और मैं थोड़ी देर बैठ गया।

उसका घर उसकी पहचान को हर चीज़ में दिखा ताथा—हॉल, कमरे, यहाँ तक कि रसोई में भी गरमाहट और अनुशासन का भाव था।वह जगह आरामदायक लगी, और मैं चुपचाप हर चीज़ की तारीफ़ कर रहा था।उसके भाई के साथ मेरी बातचीत संक्षिप्त थी, लेकिन विनम्र।

मैंने उस से ज़्यादा बात नहीं की।मैंने घर में घुसते समय उसे नमस्ते किया, वह अंदर रसोई में गई और चाय के दो कप लेकर वापस आई।मैं उस से बात नहीं कर पाया क्योंकि उसके भाई हमारे साथ थे और मैं बहुत घबराया हुआ था।"मैं कभी किसी के घर अकेला नहीं गया था,

सपना यहीं पर धुंधला होने लगा।पर मुझे लगता है कि जाते समय दरवाज़े के पास खड़े होकर मैंने अपनी भावनाएँ बता दी थीं।वह मुझे छोड़ने के लिए घर के मुख्य दरवाज़े तक आई और "अल्लाहहाफ़िज़" (अलविदा) कहने से पहले मैंने उससे कहा, "मैं तुम्हें पसंद करता हूँ।"... मुझे याद नहीं कि आगे क्या हुआ या उसकी क्या प्रतिक्रिया थी।यह याद खामोशी में फीकी पड़ जाती है।

हकीकत:
क्यों कि यह केवल एक सपना था, जब मेरी आँख खुली, मैं अभी भी सिर्फ एक ग्रेजुएट होने वाला छात्र था।मैंने इस सपने को एक किताब में लिख लिया, जो कुछ भी याद था सब दर्जकर लिया।उस दिन से, मैंने उसी व्यक्ति (उसे)को अपनी असली ज़िंदगी में देखना शुरु कर दिया।
मैंने उससे बात करना शुरु कर दिया, उसकी राय (opinions), उसके शौकों में, और खास कर किताबें पढ़ने के उसके प्यार में दिलचस्पी लेने लगा।वह पूरी तरह से मेरे विचारों पर छागई।
लेकिन किसी तरह, उसे पता चल गया कि मैं किसी और से उसके और उसके व्यवहार के बारे में गलत तरीके से बात कर रहा था।
एकदिन, उसने मुझे बात करने के लिए एक तरफ बुलाया।हम खिड़की के पास खड़े थे, और उसने मुझ से कहा, "तुम एक अच्छे लड़के हो, और मेरे सामने तुम बहुत सीधे-सादे हो। तुम महत्त्वाकांक्षी (ambitious) हो।पर... तुम मेरे साथ एकअलग इंसान हो, और अस लिय तमें एक अलग इंसान।"
ये शब्द मुझे बहुत ज़ोर से लगे।मेरे पास अपना बचाव करने का कोई तरीका नहीं था, क्योंकि यह सच था—यह मेरी गलती थी।मुझे कभी भीअपनी बातचीत किसी और से, और वह भी गलत तरीके से, नहीं करनी चाहिए थी।
मैंने अपनी बातचीत के दौरान कई बार माफी माँगी।गलतफहमी समझाते हुए, मेरे मुँह से ये शब्द निकल गए: "मैं तुम्हें पसंद करता हूँ।"
उसने प्यार से समझाया कि किसी के प्यार में पड़ना ठीक है—कि ऐसे पलों में दिमाग नहीं, बल्कि दिल काम करता है।उसने कहा, "हम दूसरों के लिए अपनी भावनाओं को काबू नहीं कर सकते।"उसने धैर्य से सब कुछ समझाया, लेकिन उसने मुझे कभी सीधा जवाब नहीं दिया।मुझमें उससे दो बारा पूछने की हिम्मत नहीं थी।
कुछ घंटों बाद, मैं एक बार फिर उसके पास गया।मैंने दोबारा माफी माँगी और उसे बताया कि मेरा इरादा कभी बुरा नहीं था।
मैंने कहा, "कृपा करके सब कुछ भूल जाओ—जो बातचीत आज हुई।"
उसने मेरी तरफ देखा और धीरे से जवाब दिया, "ठीक है।चलो सब भूल जाते हैं... और चलो सिर्फ दोस्त बन जाते हैं।"

"मैं अभी भी रेगिस्तान में पानी डाल रहा हूँ, उम्मीद कर रहा हूँ कि वह एक बगीचे में खिल जाएगा।"

छात्र जीवन और सपनों की उड़ान

कॉलेज जीवन हर व्यक्ति के जीवन का सबसे सुनहरा और यादगार समय होता है। यह वह दौर जब एक छात्र अपने बचपन की सीमाओं से निकल कर अपने सपनों की दुनिया में प्रवेश करता है। कॉलेज न केवल शिक्षा का केंद्र होता है, बल्कि यह हमारे व्यक्तित्व निर्माण आत्माविश्वास, और भविष्य की दिशा तय करने का आधार भी बनता है।

कॉलेज के दिनों में हम सिर्फ किताबों से नहीं, बल्कि अनुभवों से भी सीखते हैं।यहाँ हमें अपने विचार व्यक्त करने की आजादी मिलती है, नए लोगों से मिल ने का अवसर मिलता है, और जीवन के असली अर्थ को समझने का मौका भी। विभिन्न प्रतियोगिताएँ, और समाजिक कार्य क्रम हमारी प्रतिभा को निखारते है और हमें समाज में सक्रिय भूमिका निभाने के लिए तैयार करते हैं।

इसी अवधि में हमारे भीतर सपने आकर लेते हैं- कोई समाज सेवी, को ईइंजीनियर, कोई डॉक्टर बनना चाहता है, तो कोई कलाकार।कॉलेज का वातावरण, मित्रों का सहयोग, और शिक्षको का मार्गदर्शन इन सपनों को पख देने का काम करते हैं।यहाँ हम असफलताओं से जूझ नाभी सीखते है। और सफलता की असली कीमत को समझते हैं।

कॉलेज का जीवन हमें यह सिखाता है कि सपने देखने से अधिक जरूरी है, उन्हे साकार करने का साहस रखना।यही साहस हमें हमारे भविष्य की ओर ले जाता है।

अंत में कहा जा सकता है कि

कॉलेज जीवन केवल पठाई का नहीं, बल्कि जीवन को समझने और सपनों की उडान के का विद्यालय है।"।

चलो आज हम "कॉलेज" जाते हैं ...
करके " बी.कॉम और बी.बी.ए. " पास अब...
आगे थोड़ा "बढ़ते" हैं....
चलो आज हम "कॉलेज" जाते हैं...
चलो आज हम "कॉलेज" जाते हैं...

"नए-नए" से हम गए....
सफर में ही "थक" गए...
सोच रहे थे "पहुंचेंगे" कैसे..
सोच सोच कर "पहुंच" गए....

"नए-नए" से हम गए....
सफर में ही "थक" गए...
सोच रहे थे "पहुंचेंगे" कैसे..
सोच सोच कर "पहुंच" गए....

"दिल" में भी अजीब सी....
"घबराहट" तब होती है.
"भीड़ ". तो बहुत है ..पर....
"पहचान" किसी से नहीं होती है...
धीरे-धीरे "हिम्मत" कर...
"पहचान" सबसे फिर करते हैं...
देखते ही देखते तब....
सब "दोस्त" से बन जाते हैं.....

कॉलेज का "सिलेबस" तो....
स्कूल से कुछ "अलग" होता है..
" एक ". ....साल का सिलेबस..
यहां महीने में "कवर" होता है...
स्कूल में तो "सिलेबस"...
बस "कछुए" की तरह चलता है...
और "कॉलेज" में वो सिलेबस.....
"हवाई जहाज" जैसा उड़ता है...
हम भी "बैठे बैठे"....
कुछ समझने की "कोशिश" करते हैं..
कुछ कुछ "समझ" आता है....
कुछ सर के "ऊपर" निकल जाता है...

खत्म करके "क्लास" को...
सब बाहर "घूमने" जाते हैं..
देखते हैं सारे "लड़कियां"...
और "बहाना" कैंपस का लगाते हैं
देखते ही देखते..
"प्रपोज" उनको करते हैं...
मना करती है वह यह "कहकर"
आप तो.." भैया" जैसे लगते हैं...
कुछ दिनों तक "दिल" में..
"उदासी" सी छा जाती है...
सोचते हैं "दुनिया" भुला देंगे..
कमबख्त दूसरी "पसंद" आजाती है.....

छात्र जीवन और सपनों की उड़ान
(Student Life and the Flight of Dreams)

कॉलेज जीवन हर व्यक्ति के जीवन का सबसे सुनहरा और यादगार समय होता है। यह वह दौर है जब एक छात्र अपने बचपन की सीमाओं से निकलकर अपने सपनों की दुनिया में प्रवेश करता है। कॉलेज न केवल शिक्षा का केंद्र होता है, बल्कि यह हमारे व्यक्तित्व निर्माण, आत्मविश्वास, और भविष्य की दिशा तय करने का आधार भी बनता है।

कॉलेज के दिनों में हम सिर्फ किताबों से नहीं, बल्कि अनुभवों से भी सीखते हैं। यहाँ हमें अपने विचार व्यक्त करने की आज़ादी मिलती है, नए लोगों से मिलने का अवसर मिलता है, और जीवन के असली अर्थ को समझने का मौका भी। विभिन्न प्रतियोगिताएँ, संगोष्ठियाँ, और सामाजिक कार्यक्रम हमारी प्रतिभा को निखारते हैं और हमें समाज में सक्रिय भूमिका निभाने के लिए तैयार करते हैं।

इसी अवधि में हमारे भीतर सपने आकार लेते हैं — कोई डॉक्टर बनना चाहता है, कोई इंजीनियर, कोई कलाकार, तो कोई समाजसेवी। कॉलेज का वातावरण, मित्रों का सहयोग, और शिक्षकों का मार्गदर्शन इन सपनों को पंख देने का काम करते हैं। यहाँ हम असफलताओं से जूझना भी सीखते हैं और सफलता की असली कीमत को समझते हैं।

कॉलेज जीवन हमें यह सिखाता है कि सपने देखने से अधिक ज़रूरी है, उन्हें साकार करने का साहस रखना। यही साहस हमें हमारे भविष्य की ओर ले जाता है।

अंत में कहा जा सकता है कि —
“कॉलेज जीवन केवल पढ़ाई का नहीं, बल्कि जीवन को समझने और अपने सपनों को उड़ान देने का विद्यालय है।”

मेरे पापा

आसान नहीं लगता था मेरे पापा को बेटी कादिल पाना, और लादेते थे मुझे वह गुड़िया, खिलौना, में नहीं चाहती थी उनको खोना।।

उन्को खोदेने के डर सेभी आ जाते थे आँसू, उनके बिना अब न जाने कैसे साँस लूँ अब चाहती हूँ उन्हें एक बार गले से लगालूँ !!

दुनिया में मैंने पापा के नाम से है इज्जत कमाई अब देना चाहती हूँ उनको इज्जत करके पढ़ाई, उन्होंने सिर्फ यही सिखाया के न करो किसी से लड़ाई उनके सर पर ताज देखूँ यही थी मेरी इच्छा, "

मेरे लिए उनका प्रेम था हमेशा सच्चा, कोई नहीं मेरे माँ-पापा से अच्छा

मुझे तैयार देखकर मुझसे अधिक उन्हें थी खुशी,मिलती थी मुझे खुशी जब भी में देखती थी उनका मुख,देते नहीं थे मुझे वह कभी भी दुख॥

मुझे परेशान देखकर जिनका था हाथ, पैर काँपा,

वह थे मेरे पापा।' वह थे मेरे पापा।।

"शिक्षा से करियर तक की यात्रा"

शिक्षा और करियर दोनों ही हमारे जीवन के लिए बहुत जरूरी हैं। यहाँ दोनों शब्द अलग नहीं बल्कि एक-दूसरे से जुड़े हुए हैं। शिक्षा केवल परीक्षा पास करना नहीं है, बल्कि यह हमें ज्ञान देती है, सोचने का तरीका सिखाती है और हमें एक बेहतर इंसान बनाती है। करियर एक पेशा है जो हमें जीवन में आगे बढ़ने में मदद करता है। आज के समय में करियर के कई रास्ते हैं — कोई इंजीनियर बनना चाहता है तो कोई गायक बनना चाहता है। लेकिन हमें वही करियर चुनना चाहिए जिसमें हमारा मन हो और जिसमें हम मेहनत करने को तैयार हों। आज के जमाने को देखें तो शिक्षा और पढ़ाई का तरीका बदल रहा है। अब केवल डिग्री लेने पर जोर नहीं दिया जाता, डिग्री के अलावा हुनर और काम की जानकारी पर भी ध्यान दिया जाता है।

अब सिर्फ किताबों का ज्ञान ही काफी नहीं रहता, बल्कि डिजिटल जैसे काम सीखने वाले कोर्स भी तेजी से बढ़ रहे हैं। अगर हम आज के युवाओं पर नजर डालें, तो पता चलता है कि वे नौकरी खोजने की बजाय नौकरी देने के बारे में सोच रहे हैं। आज के युवा करियर चुनने में उलझन का सामना कर रहे हैं। इस उलझन को दूर करने में करियर काउंसलर मदद करते हैं, जो छात्रों की पसंद और उनकी क्षमताओं को पहचानकर उन्हें सही रास्ता दिखाते हैं।

शिक्षा हमारे जीवन की वह सीढ़ी है जो हमें करियर की ऊंचाइयों तक ले जाती है। शिक्षा एक मशाल की तरह है जो अंधेरे में सही रास्ता दिखाती है। हमारा करियर भी उसी रास्ते पर चलना चाहिए। शिक्षा हमें सिखाती है कि हमें केवल काम के लिए नहीं, बल्कि पूरी जिंदगी सीखते रहने के लिए तैयार रहना चाहिए।

शिक्षा के साथ मेहनत का सही इस्तेमाल करना भी जरूरी है। हमें हमेशा कुछ नया सीखते रहना चाहिए ताकि हम अपने काम में आगे बढ़ सकें और अपने सपनों को पूरा कर सकें। आज के युवाओं के लिए डिग्री केवल एक शुरुआत है, असली सफलता तो जीवनभर कुछ नया सीखते रहने में है।

हिंदी: एकता की परिभाषा

विविधताओं से भरा है आँचल, रूप अनेक प्रधान हैं, पर सबको जो जोड़ के रखे, हिंदी वह वरदान है।

न यह जाति की दीवार माने, न
मजहब का घेरा,
हिंदी है उस भोर की किरण, जहाँ एकता का बसेरा।

उत्तर से दक्षिण तक गूँजे, पूरब-पश्चिम की वाणी, गंगा-जमुना की लहरों जैसी, इसकी निर्मल कहानी।

शोषित हो या वंचित कोई, सबको देती मान है,
जात-पात के भेद से ऊपर, यह राष्ट्र की पहचान है।

अनेकता में एकता का, यह मधुर राग सुनाती है, हर हिंदुस्तानी के दिल में, अपनत्व जगाती है।

सभ्यता की यह संवाहक, संस्कृति का आधार है, हिंदी सिर्फ भाषा नहीं, हम सबका प्यार है।

कदम मिलाकर चलें सभी, यह संकल्प हमें दोहराना है,
हिंदी के माध्यम से ही, भारत को जग में चमकाना है।

मिटा के सारे ऊँच-नीच, एक नया इतिहास रचेंगे, हिंदी की इस पावन धारा में, हम सब मिलकर बहेंगे।

"आओ हम अपनीमंज़िल कीओर बढ़ें"

"आओ हम अपनी मंज़िल की ओर बढ़ें"सुबह का समय था। सूरज अपनी सुनहरी किरणें धरती पर बिखेर रहा था। चारों ओर पक्षियों की मधुर चहचहाहट और ठंडी हवाओं की सरसराहट वातावरण को एक नई ऊर्जा और उमंग से भर रही थी। ऐसा लग रहा था मानो प्रकृति स्वयं आशा, नये आरंभ और उज्ज्वल भविष्य का संदेश दे रही हो। इसी शांत और प्रेरणादायक वातावरण मेंएक युवक की नींद खुली। उसकी आँखों में सपने थे-कुछ कर दिखाने के, अपने जीवन को एक नई दिशा देने के। संगीत के प्रति उसका प्रेम गहरा और निष्ठा पूर्ण था। उसने निश्चय किया कि वह अपने जीवन को इसी कला को समर्पित करेगा। अपने सपनों को साकार करने के लिए उसने शहर के प्रसिद्ध संगीत विश्वविद्यालय में प्रवेश ले लिया। संगीत उसके लिए केवल एक कला नहीं, बल्कि उसकी आत्मा का हिस्सा था। इसके लिए उसने अपने गाँव, कबी ले और प्रियजनों को भी पीछे छोड़ दिया। उसने स्वयं को पूरी तरह से राग, लय और धुन की साधना में समर्पित कर दिया। दिन-रात अभ्यास, अध्ययन और आत्मचिंतन ही उसका जीवन बन गया। कुछ समय के पश्चात, वर्षों की कड़ी मेहनत और अटूट समर्पण के फलस्वरूप वह युवक संगीत की दुनिया में एक महान कलाकार के रूप में पहचाना जाने लगा। उसके नाम की गूंज देश ही नहीं, विदेशों तक पहुँचने लगी। जिस स्थान और समाज कोवह पीछे छोड़ आया था, आज वही उसकी प्रशंसा कर रहा था, उसकी सफलता पर गर्व कर था।किसी ने कहा है-
"यदि जीवन में कुछ पाना है, तो कुछ खोना पड़ता है। किन्तु में इसे पूरी तरह से सही नहीं मानता। "यदि जीवन में कुछ पाना है, तो कुछ करना पड़ता है पूरी लगन मेहनत और विश्वास के साथ।" उस युवक की कठिन मेहनत नेही उसे उसकी मंज़िल तक पहुँचाया। उसका जीवन अब सफलता की हरियालियों से भर गया था। आज उसकी यही जीवन-यात्रा, उसकी लगन और परिश्रम हम सभी के लिए प्रेरणा बन गई है। वह हमें सिखाता है किय दि हम सच्चे मन से किसी लक्ष्य की ओर बढ़ें, तो कोई भी बाधा हमें रोक नहीं सकती। सपने तभी पूरे होते हैं जब हम उन्हें पाने की पूरी कोशिश करें बिना थके, बिना रुके.

“आओ हम अपनी मंज़िल कीओर बढ़ें” यह केवल एक वाक्य नहीं, बल्कि जीवन को आगे बढ़ाने का एक सार्थक संदेश है। यह हमें याद दिलाता हैकि मंज़िलें उन्हीं को मिलती हैं जो ठान लेते हैं कि रुकना नहीं है। जीवन में लक्ष्य तय करना जितना ज़रूरी है, उतना ही आवश्यक है उस लक्ष्य की ओर निरंतर आगे बढ़ते रहना चाहे रास्ता कठिन हो या चुनौतीपूर्ण। हमें यह समझना होगा कि सफलता कभी भी रातोंरात नहीं मिलती; उसके लिए लगन, धैर्य और सतत प्रयास की आवश्यकता होती है। हर दिन एक नयाअवसर है- खुद को बेहतर बनाने का, अपने सपनों को साकार करने का। इसलिए, अब समय है कि हम यह संकल्प लें, हम अपनी क्षमताओं पर विश्वास रखें, अपने सपनों को सच करने का साहस रखें और हर कठिनाइयों का सामना करते हुए अपनी मंज़िल की ओर बढ़ते चलें। क्योंकि अंततःवही लोग इतिहास रचते हैं जो कभी थकते नहीं, रुकते नहीं बस चलते रहते हैं। जिस तरह कहा गया है, जो पानी से नहाता है वह सिर्फ अपना लिबास बदलता है,, लेकिन को जो पसीने सेनहाता है वह अपना इतिहास बदलता है!!

முயற்சி திருவினையாக்கும்..!

எங்கள் ஊர் கொளத்தூர், அந்த ஊரில் சாமியார் காடு என்பதும் மிகச் சிறிய கிராமம். எங்கள் தாய் கபடி மிக நன்றாக விளையாடுவார். ஆனால் அவர் காலத்தில் அந்த விளையாட்டிற்கு யாரும் ஒத்துழைப்பு நல்காதலால், பள்ளிகூட படிப்பையும், விளையாட்டையும் மேலும் தொடர முடியவில்லை. எங்கள் கிராமத்தில் என் தந்தைக்கு மட்டும்தான் லாரி ஓட்டத் தெரியும். அவரே பலருக்கு அந்த வாகனத்தை ஓட்டக் கற்று கொடுத்திருக்கிறார். இப்போது நாங்கள் ஹூக்கியம் என்ற கிராமத்தில் இருக்கிறோம். அங்கே அழகான ஏரி உள்ளது

நானும் அக்காவும் கபடி விளையாடுவதில் மிகத் தேர்ந்தவர்கள். என் அக்காவும் நானும் பல இடங்களில் கபடி விளையாடி பலமுறை பரிசு பெற்றிருக்கிறோம். நான் மூன்றாம் வகுப்பு படிக்கும் போதே என் தந்தை எனக்கு லாரி மற்றும் பெரிய வாகனங்களை ஓட்டக் கற்றுக் கொடுத்திருக்கிறார். அதனால் சிறு சிறு ஊர்களுக்கு போகும் போது என் தந்தை அருகில் இருக்க அந்த வாகனத்தை ஓட்டிச் சென்ற இனிமையான அனுபவம் உண்டு.

இந்த இடத்தில் ஒரு விஷயம் சொல்லியாக வேண்டும். என் தந்தையும் மற்றும் சில நண்பர்களும் சேர்ந்து அந்த கிராமத்தில் மொரார்ஜி தேசாய் குடியிருப்பு பள்ளி என்ற ஒன்றை ஆரம்பிக்க வேண்டி அப்பள்ளிக்கு பல உதவிகள் செய்தனர். இப்போது அப்பள்ளி மிக நன்றாக வளர்ந்து விட்டது. அங்கே குறைந்த பட்சம் 400 மாணவர்கள் படிக்கின்றார்கள். ஆங்கில வழியில் அங்கே வகுப்புகள் நடத்தப்படுகின்றன. எங்கள் கிராமத்திற்கு ஒரு பள்ளிகூடம் வந்தது எனக்கு பெருமையாக உள்ளது. அதற்கு உதவி புரிந்த என் தந்தை என் குரு, தெய்வம் என்றால் மிகையாகாது.

எங்கள் வீட்டுக்கு அருகில் சென்ட்ரா மலை என்ற மிக அழகிய காடு உள்ளது. நிறைய மாதா கோயில்கள், இந்துக் கோயில்கள் என உண்டு. எனக்கு இரு மாமாமார்கள் இருக்கிறார்கள். அவர்கள் மிக இள வயதிலேயே பீஹார், மற்றும் மும்பை என இந்தியாவின் பல நகரங்களுக்குச் சென்று பல இடங்களில் பணி புரிந்து , நிலம் வாங்கி, அதில் நிலக் கடலை, மர வள்ளிக்கிழங்கு போன்ற கிழங்கு வகைகள், சோளம், நெல், வாழை, மாமரம், தென்னை மரம் என பயிரிட்டார்கள். நாங்கள் கால்நடைகளையும் வளர்க்கிறோம்.

என் தந்தை இப்போது எங்களுடன் இல்லை. என் தாய்தான் தையல் தொழில் மற்றும் கால்நடைகளைப் பேணுதல் போன்ற தொழில் செய்து எங்களைக் காப்பற்றுகிறார். மிக அழகான குடும்பமாக இருந்தவர்கள்தான் நாங்கள். என் தந்தையின் மரணம் சற்று எங்களை திக்கு முக்காடச் செய்து விட்டது. இருந்தும் நாங்கள் இடைவிடாது முயற்சி செய்துக் கொண்டீருக்கின்றோம். என் அக்கா இப்போது செவிலியர்களுக்கான பட்ட வகுப்பு நிறைவு செய்ய இருக்கிறார். வேலை கிடைத்து விடும். என்ற நம்பிக்கை உள்ளது. நானும் காவல் துறை இலாகாவில் சேர்ந்து பணி புரிய ஆசை கொண்டுள்ளேன்.

என் தாயின் அன்பும், அரவனைப்பும் இடைவிடாத உழைப்பும் எங்களை ஊக்கப்படுத்திக் கொண்டே இருக்கிறது. கடைசி வரை என் தாயைக் காப்பாற்றுவோம் என்று நானும் என் அக்காவும் உறுதி கொண்டுள்ளோம்.

கிராமத்தின் பசுமையான சூழ்நிலை மற்றும் சாலைகளில் பெரிய வாகனங்கள் பார்க்கும் போது எனக்குள் இருக்கும் தாகம் இன்னும் அதிகரிக்கிறது. நிலம் வாங்க வேண்டும், வீடு கட்ட வேண்டும் என நல்ல முறையில் வாழ உள்ளம் துடிக்கிறது.

பெற்றோரா? பிள்ளைகளா?

என் குடும்பம் ஒரு அழகான குடும்பம். அரியலூரில் உள்ள மிகச் சிறிய உலகம் எங்களுடையது, இதில் நான் என் அப்பா, அம்மா, தம்பி என நால்வர். அனைவருக்குமே எல்லோரையும் பிடிக்கும். ஆனால், என் அம்மாவிற்கு எங்கள் மேல் அளவற்ற காதல், பாசம், பிரியம்.. அன்பு, எல்லாமே! என் அப்பாவிற்கோ தன் மனைவி, தன் கடமை மற்றும் எங்கள் மீது கண்டிப்பான பாசம், அன்பு.

எங்கள் அம்மாவைப் பற்றி கூறியாக வேண்டும். யாராவது எங்களை ஏதாவது சொல்லி விட்டால் விட மாட்டார். என்ன காரணம், எதற்கு என்று விவரம் கேட்டு எங்களுக்காகப் பரிந்து பேசுவார். அதற்காக என் அம்மா படாத வேதனை இல்லை. இதனாலேயே எங்களுக்கு எங்கள் அம்மாவை மகிழ்ச்சியாக வைத்துக் கொள்ள வேண்டும் என்ற ஆவல் நாளுக்கு நாள் அதிகமாகிறது.

ஆனால் என் அப்பாவிற்கு என் அம்மாவின் மேல் தனிப்பட்ட அன்பு அதிகம். உயிர் என்றே சொல்லலாம்! என் அம்மாவின் கைப்பக்குவம் சொல்லி மாளாது. என் அப்பாவிற்கு எது செய்தாலும் என் அம்மாவின் கையிலிருந்துதான் பெற்றுக் கொள்வார். நாங்கள் பலமுறை அதைச் சொல்லிக் கேலி பண்ணுவோம். அவர் தன் சிறு வயதிலேயே தன் தாயை இழந்ததுதான் இதற்குக் காரணம். மேலும் எங்கள் அப்பா வெளியூரில் தங்கி வேலை பார்க்கிறார். மாத விடுமுறையில் வருவார். அவருடன் நாங்கள் இருக்கும் நாட்கள் மிக விரைவாகக் கடந்து விடும். நாங்கள் யாரும் எதற்காகவும் கஷ்டப்படக்கூடாது என்று பலமுறை கூறுவார். படிப்பு மிக முக்கியம் என்று கருதுவார். அதற்காக தன் சக்திக்கு மீறி எங்கள் எல்லோரையும் இருவருமே மிக நன்றாகப் படிக்க வைக்கிறார்கள்.

என் தம்பியை எனக்கு மிகவும் பிடிக்கும். சில நேரங்களில் அவனை வேண்டுமென்றே ஏதாவது சொல்லி கேலி செய்வேன், சிறு சிறு சண்டைகள் புரிவேன். அவன் எனக்காக விட்டுக் கொடுப்பான்.

எங்கள் வீட்டில் நான் என்றால் எல்லோருக்கும் மிகவும் பிரியம் அதிகம். படிப்பிற்காக நான் அவர்களை விட்டுப் பிரிந்து மைசூரில் வந்து இருக்கிறேன். என் உறவினர்கள் பலமுறை நான் வெளியூருக்குச் சென்று படிப்பதை மறுத்தார்கள். ஆனாலும் என் பெற்றோர்கள் என் உற்சாகம் கண்டு அனுப்பி வைத்தார்கள். பலமுறை என் தாய் தந்தையரை நினைத்து வேதனைப்படுவேன். அவர்களை உடனே பார்க்க வேண்டும் என்று துடிப்பேன். ஆனாலும் எனக்கு இங்கே மிக நல்ல நண்பர்கள் இருக்கிறார்கள்.

என்னுடன் இருக்கும் பலர் தன் சொந்த ஊரை விட்டுதான் இங்கே படிக்க வந்திருக்கிறார்கள். சில மாலைப் பொழுதுகளில் நாங்கள் ஒன்றாக அமர்ந்து உரையாடுவோம்; பேசுவோம்; நகைச்சுவைக் கதைகளை சொல்லி மகிழ்வோம். அதில் சிலர் மிக நன்றாகப் பாடுவார்கள், ஆடுவார்கள். அப்படிப்பட்ட வேளைகளில் நான் என் துன்பம் மறந்து அவர்களுடன் ஒன்றாகிறேன்.

எனக்குள் மிகப் பெரிய தாகம். என் தாய் தந்தையரின் கனவை நனவாக்க வேண்டும். சுய புத்தியுடனும், நல்ல பண்புகளுடனும், அக்கறையுடனும் ஒழுங்காகப் படித்து, நல்ல இடத்தில் எனக்கு வேலை கிடைக்க வேண்டும். என் குடும்பத்தாரை என்னுடன் வைத்துப் போற்ற வேண்டும்.

என் பெற்றோர்கள் தன் சுகத்தை எனக்காக விட்டுக் கொடுத்து வாழ்கின்றனர். நானும் அதை உணர்ந்து என் கடமையை நிறைவேற்றத் துணிவேன்.
