Proceedings of the Meeting of BOS in French (UG):

The BOS in French (UG) which met on Monday 17-03-2014 has resolved to recommend the following change of Syllabus for the (UG) programme starting from the academic year June 2014.

Out of three books proposed viz. "Alter Ego" A1, A2, "À Propos" A1, A2, "Écho" A1, A2, the members unanimously preferred the latest Book Écho A1, A2 to the rest because it fulfils all the requirements of the objective and purpose of pursuing French as the second language at the UG level.

Objective: a) To recommend the change of Syllabus which offers the francophiles to learn French from the rock-bottom and to hone their basic skills in verbal and written communication. The choice of the text 'Écho' will orientate the oral skills of the debutants in particular

b) To advise and also approve the launching of A Certificate Course on Week-ends for a period of 9 months open to all who wish to learn French and to develop their skills in reading, writing and speaking French.

c) To recommend and approve a slight change in the scheme of Examination with 70 marks for theory and 30 marks for I.A consisting of 10+10+10 (Test – Presentation – Viva (oral + dictation).

Date:.....

The Chairman welcomed and proceeded with the discussion and deliberation of the agenda stipulated. The board agreed to continue the New Syllabus of Echo A1 and A2 without any alteration as it is quite relevant to the students.

The syllabus on Basic Functional French offered as an Open Elective Paper by the UG Department of French to the Postgraduate Students was scrutinized and approved with the objective of sensitizing the students the importance of learning the basic functional French to manage and speak comfortably with any francophone in varied situations.

It was decided that the Open Elective Course will be according to the Choice based credit system (CBCS) and Continuous assessment grading pattern (CACP) carrying 4 credits (L-T-P 3+1-0). It is also open to such students as want it as an additional subject. In such case, they will get a certificate in Basic Functional French.

The board approved the existing panel of examiners Prof. A. John Siluvai and Prof. Alfred Marie Delcasse.

Resolutions:

1. It was resolved unanimously to confirm the current syllabus A1 and A2 Echo Methode de français and to continue with no alteration in the scheme of examination for the UG courses

2. It was resolved to approve and confirm the Open Elective Paper on Basic Functional French offered by the UG Department of French to the Post-Graduate Students of St. Philomena's College (Autonomous), Mysore-15.
